Bernard Pyne Grenfell

Oxyrhynchus Papyri Part Xxiii:

The Oxyrhynchus Papyri Edgar Lobel, 1956      The Oxyrhynchus papyri Edgar Lobel, 1956      The Cemeteries of Abydos Edouard Naville, 1914      Simonides the Poet Richard Rawles, 2018-04-19 Simonides is tantalising and enigmatic known both from fragments and from an extensive tradition of anecdotes This monograph the first in English for a generation employs a two part diachronic approach Richard Rawles first reads Simonidean fragments with attention to their intertextual relationship with earlier works and traditions and then explores Simonides through his ancient reception In the first part interactions between Simonides own poems and earlier traditions both epic and lyric are studied in his melic fragments and then in his elegies The second part focuses on an important strand in Simonides ancient reception concerning his supposed meanness and interest in remuneration This is examined in Pindar's Isthmian 2 and then in Simonides reception up to the Hellenistic period The book concludes with a full re interpretation of Theocritus 16 a poem which engages both with Simonides poems and with traditions about his life      The Oxyrhynchus Papyri Part Xv Bernard Pyne Grenfell, 1922

Memoir of the Egypt Exploration Society, 1905      The Hunt in Ancient Greece Judith M. Barringer, 2003-04-01 Hunting and its imagery continued to play a significant role in archaic and classical Greece long after hunting had ceased being a necessity for survival in everyday life Drawing on vase paintings sculpture inscriptions and other literary evidence Judith Barringer reexamines the theme of the hunt and shows how the tradition it depicts helped maintain the dominance of the ruling social groups Along with athletics and battle hunting was a defining activity of the masculine aristocracy and was crucial to the efforts of the Athenian elite to control the social agenda even as their political power declined The Hunt in Ancient Greece examines descriptions of hunting in initiation rituals as well as the ideals of masculinity and adulthood such rites of passage promoted Barringer argues that depictions of the hunt in literature and art also served as striking metaphors for the intricacies of courtship shedding light on sexuality and gender roles Through an exploration of various representations of the hunt Barringer provides extraordinary insight into Athenian society      Memoir of the Egypt Exploration Fund, 1903      The Cup of Song Vanessa Cazzato, Dirk Obbink, Enrico Emanuele Prodi, 2016-09-08 The symposion is arguably the most significant and well documented context for the performance transmission and criticism of archaic and classical Greek poetry a distinction attested by its continued hold on the poetic imagination even after its demise as a performance setting The Cup of Song explores the symbiotic relationship of poetry and the symposion throughout Greek literary history considering the latter both as a literal performance context and as an imaginary space pregnant with social political and aesthetic implications This collection of essays by an international group of leading scholars illuminates the various facets of this relationship from Greek literature's earliest beginnings through to its afterlife in Roman poetry ranging from the Near Eastern origins of the Greek symposion in the eighth century to Horace's evocations of his archaic models and Lucian's knowing reworking of classic texts Each chapter discusses one aspect of sympotic engagement by key authors across the major genres of Greek poetry including archaic and classical lyric tragedy and comedy and Hellenistic epigram discussions of literary sources are complemented by analysis of the visual evidence of painted pottery Consideration of these diverse modes and genres from the unifying perspective of their relation to the symposium leads to a characterization of the full spectrum of sympotic poetry that retains an eye to both its shared common features and the specificity of individual genres and texts

The Gospel of Thomas Simon James Gathercole, 2014-05-22 In this new commentary on the controversial Gospel of Thomas Simon Gathercole provides the most extensive analysis yet published of both the work as a whole and of the individual sayings contained in it This commentary offers a fresh analysis of Thomas not from the perspective of form criticism and source criticism but seeks to elucidate the meaning of the work and its constituent elements in its second century context With its lucid discussion of the various controversial aspects of Thomas and treatment of the various different scholarly views this is a foundational work of reference for scholars not just of apocryphal Gospels but also for New Testament scholars Classicists and Patrologists

Meroitic Inscriptions Francis Llewellyn Griffith, 1912

The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature , 1902

Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1903

Who Was Who in Egyptology Morris L. Bierbrier, 2021-12-31 The civilization of ancient Egypt has been a source of fascination for explorers and scholars for centuries and has occupied a special place in the imagination of the public ever since early travellers descriptions and illustrations of the strange culture of temples tombs and hieroglyphs began to circulate around the world The story of Egyptology from a hobby for the educated and wealthy to a highly formalized academic discipline provides the key to understanding how and why we know what we know about ancient Egypt This biographical dictionary tells the stories of the most important contributors and will be an indispensable reference tool for scholars and enthusiasts alike Who Was Who in Egyptology remains one of the most important reference works for understanding the characters that contributed to the field of Egyptology and Egyptian archaeology from the Napoleonic invasion of Egypt through to the present day The fifth edition brings entries up to 2019 and is expected to be the last volume produced in print
