Christianity in the Modern World Afe Adogame, Elizabeth Olson, 2016-05-23 What is the state of Christianity today and what might it look like in the future In the West the story for a long time has revolved around decline and the loss of monopoly status but how are these shifts changing the practice of Christianity or individual belief Similarly the rapid growth of Christianities in the Global South has been well reported but the continuing complex intersections of mission Christianity with indigenous religions are less well known Large scale flows of people across increasingly fluid borders mean that not only does immigration sometimes significantly boost Christian numbers in a given country but that different forms of Christianity shift traditional religious landscapes How will emerging trends such as reverse mission from the Global South affect Christianities in areas more used to sending rather than receiving missions As the majority of believers shifts from the West to the Global South how will issues such as homosexuality be played out theologically politically and individually Will new virtual churches manage to create viable long term communities How does new festival Christianity function in the religious life of an individual The divergent and oftentimes contradictory state of Christianity in the modern world fuels questions about its place and future in the world in politics education and healthcare This book brings together cutting edge research on the most recent changes and trends in Christianity worldwide Contributors drawn from the USA UK and Europe Africa and East Asia offer an invaluable breadth of coverage expertise and disciplinary perspective at the intersections between sociology of religion theology politics education and human geography The New William Faulkner Studies Sarah Gleeson-White, Pardis Dabashi, 2022-07-07 William Faulkner remains one of the most important writers of the twentieth century and Faulkner Studies offers up seemingly endless ways to engage anew questions and problems that continue to occupy literary studies into the twenty first century and beyond the compass of Faulkner himself His corpus has proved particularly accommodating of a range of perspectives and methodologies that include Black studies visual culture studies world literatures modernist studies print culture studies gender and sexuality studies sound studies the energy humanities and much else The fifteen essays collected in The New William Faulkner Studies charts these developments in Faulkner scholarship over the course of this new century and offers prospects for further interrogation of his oeuvre Our African Unconscious Edward Bruce Bynum, 2021-09-07 Examines the Oldawan the Ancient Soul of Africa and its correlation with what modern psychologists have defined as the collective unconscious Draws on archaeology DNA research history and depth psychology to reveal how the biological and spiritual roots of religion and science came out of Africa Explores the reflections of our African unconscious in the present confrontation in the Americas in the work of the Founding Fathers and in modern psychospirituality The fossil record confirms that humanity originated in Africa Yet somehow we have overlooked that Africa is also at the root of all that makes us human our spirituality civilization arts sciences philosophy and our conscious and unconscious minds In this extensive look at the unfolding of human history and culture Edward Bruce Bynum reveals how our collective unconscious is African Drawing on archaeology DNA research depth psychology and the biological and spiritual roots of religion and science he demonstrates how all modern human beings regardless of ethnic or racial categorizations share a common deeper identity both psychically and genetically a primordial African unconscious Exploring the beginning of early religions and mysticism in Africa the author looks at the Egyptian Nubian role in the rise of civilization the emergence of Kemetic Egypt and the Oldawan the Ancient Soul and its correlation with what modern psychologists have defined as the collective unconscious Revealing the spiritual and psychological ramifications of our shared African ancestry the author examines its reflections in the present confrontation in the Americas in the work of the Founding Fathers and in modern Black spirituality which arose from African diaspora religion and philosophy By recognizing our shared African unconscious the matrix that forms the deepest luminous core of human identity we learn that the differences between one
