POCKET

WINE GUIDE

2003

"For an omnibus guide to wine, the competition in the portable reference category comes down to Clarke and Hugh Johnson. Clarke wins on style and ease of use."

Cross-Cultural Consumption David Howes,2002-11-01 Goods are imbued with meanings and uses by their producers When they are exported they can act as a means of communication or domination However there is no guarantee that the intentions of the producer will be recognized much less respected by the consumer from another culture Cross Cultural Consumption is a fascinating guide to the cultural implications of the globalization of a consumer society The chapters address topics ranging from the clothing of colonial subjects in South Africa and the rise of the hypermarket in Argentina to the presentation of culture in international tourist hotels Through their examination of cultural imperialism and cultural appropriation of the representation of otherness and identity Howes and his contributors show how the increasingly global flow of goods and images challenges the very idea of the cultural border and creates new spaces for cultural invention Marian Bredin Concordia University Constance Classen Jean Comaroff University of Chicago Mary Crain University of Barcelona Carol Handrickson Marlboro Colleg
