Pabing Though An Existential Journey Acrob Americas Outback:

Passing Through Richard Menzies, 2005-01-04 Richard Menzies has logged a quarter of a million miles on his vintage Volkswagon bus in pursuit of pictures and unusual stories His favorite destination is Nevada which encloses more open public land than any other state in the lower forty eight Nevada s backcountry is sparsely populated yet surprisingly rich in diversity he writes Her social fabric is a colorful tapestry of cultures and ethnicities fringed by eccentrics who simply defy categorization Think of the Silver State as a haven for those irregular souls who could never be content with a nine to five job or a three bedroom split level in suburbia Passing Through is a compilation of the most memorable misfits Menzies has encountered in the course of his peripatetic wanderings across the American Outback The Dream of the Great American Novel Lawrence Buell, 2014-02-10 Magisterial make s you suddenly see new things in familiar books brilliant analyses of a dozen or so front runners in the Great American Novel sweepstakes Michael Dirda Virginia Quarterly Review The idea of the great American novel continues to thrive almost as vigorously as in its nineteenth century heyday defying more than 150 years of attempts to dismiss it as amateurish or obsolete In this landmark book the first in many years to take in the whole sweep of national fiction Lawrence Buell reanimates this supposedly antiquated idea demonstrating that its history is a key to the dynamics of national literature and national identity itself The dream of the G A N as Henry James nicknamed it crystallized soon after the Civil War In fresh in depth readings of selected contenders from the 1850s onward in conversation with hundreds of other novels Buell delineates four scripts for G A N candidates and their themes illustrated by such titles as The Scarlet Letter The Great Gatsby Invisible Man Uncle Tom s Cabin Beloved Moby Dick and Gravity s Rainbow works dwelling on topics from self invention to the promise and pitfalls of democracy The canvas of the great American novel is in constant motion reflecting revolutions in fictional fashion the changing face of authorship and the inseparability of high culture from popular As Buell reveals the elusive G A N showcases the myth of the United States as a nation perpetually under construction Engaging and provocative ultimately affirms the importance of literature to a nation s sense of itself Sarah Graham Times Literary Supplement Rich in critical insight Buell wonders if the GAN isn t stirring again in surprising new developments in science fiction An impressively ambitious literary survey Booklist starred review

Teaching Tourism Edelman, Johan, Joppe, Marion, Flaherty, Joan, 2022-02-22 Tourism as an activity is increasingly being criticised for its exploitative and extractive industrial approaches to business Yet it has the power to transform and to regenerate societies cultures and the environment The desire to explore the world around us is deeply embedded in many people s psyche but it comes at a cost to the environment and often to the residents of the visited communities Much of tourism education has been closely linked to preparing students for future professional practice but the challenges and opportunities linked to its consumption require that its future leaders must exhibit very different values and understandings to tackle ever more complex and wicked problems from which tourism cannot dissociate itself This compilation of values based learning experiences can be adapted to suit the needs and disposition of individual instructors and aims not only to engage students in the subject matter but also deepen their understanding of its complexity and interconnectivity and help them become global citizens that lead lives of consequence

Tracks Robyn Davidson, 2014 I experienced that sinking feeling you get when you know you have conned yourself into doing something difficult and there's no going back So begins Robyn Davidson's perilous journey across 1 700 miles of hostile Australian desert to the sea with only four camels and a dog for company Enduring sweltering heat fending off poisonous snakes and lecherous men chasing her camels when they get skittish and nursing them when they are injured Davidson emerges as an extraordinarily courageous heroine driven by a love of Australia's landscape an empathy for its indigenous people and a willingness to cast away the trappings of her former identity Tracks is the compelling candid story of her odyssey of discovery and transformation Back cover
