Pablo Casals Cellist For Freedom:

Pablo Casals Aylesa Forsee,1965 The 20th Century A-GI Frank N. Magill,2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography The Cello Suites Eric Siblin,2009-03-22 One autumn evening shortly after ending a ten year stint as a pop music columnist for the Montreal Gazette Eric Siblin attended a concert at Toronto's Royal Conservatory of Music There something unlikely happened he fell in love with a piece of classical music Bach's cello suites Part biography part music history and part literary mystery The Cello Suites weaves together three dramatic stories The first features Johann Sebastian Bach and the missing manuscript of his suites from the eighteenth century the second is that of Pablo Casals and his incredible discovery of the manuscript in Spain in the early twentieth century and the third is Eric Siblin's own infatuation with the suites in the twenty first century This love affair leads Siblin to the back streets of Barcelona a Belgian mansion and a bombed out German palace to interviews with cellists Mischa Maisky Anner Bylsma and Pieter Wispelwey to archives festivals conferences and cemeteries and even to cello lessons all in pursuit of answers to the mysteries that continue to haunt this piece of music more than 250 years after its composer's death The Cello Suites is an incomparable beautifully written true life journey of passion imagination and discovery fuelled by the transcendent power of a musical masterpiece Cello Kate Kennedy,2024-12-03 A cello has no language yet it possesses a vocabulary wide enough to tell bear witness and make connections across time and continents which is brought to life in this brilliant new book In this luminous narrative Kate Kennedy a writer and cellist herself weaves together the story of four cellists who suffered various forms of persecution injury and misfortune The stories are those of the forgotten Jewish cellist Pal Hermann who is likely to have been murdered by the Nazis in Lithuania during the Holocaust Lise Cristiani another forgotten performer who is considered to be the first female professional cello soloist and who embarked on an epic concert tour of Siberia in the 1850s taking with her a Stradivarius cello that can be seen to this day in a museum in Cremona in northern Italy Anita Lasker Wallfisch who played in the orchestra at Auschwitz and survived spells in both that camp and in Bergen Belsen and Amedeo Baldovino of the Trieste piano trio whose Mara Stradivarius was lost in a shipwreck in the River Plate between Buenos Aires and Uruguay but later recovered from the water and repaired Interwoven with these remarkable and often moving stories are a series of detours that offer a foil to these remarkable lives Cello examine the themes explored in the narratives from different perspectives drawing together historical research personal experience and interviews and encounters with contemporary cellists in this unique book that will resonate long after the final page Pablo Casals David Goodnough,1997 David Goodnough traces the life of the great musician and humanitarian who from his modest roots in Spain went on to become one of the towering figures of the contemporary world Using his outstanding musical talents to fight the forces of political injustice Casals won recognition not only as a cellist and composer but as a crusader for the causes of world peace and freedom The Work of Ismar David Helen Brandshaft,David Pankow,2005 Ismar David made his career over a broad spectrum of applied art His work is exciting not merely because of its technical excellence but because it resonates with clarity and color of a distinct and distinctive artistic voice The Work of Ismar David collects for the first time the designer s lifework It follows his artistic development from his training in Berlin through his career in Jerusalem and New York In 1954 David Hebrew indelibly changed the faces of modern Hebrew typography Among David s most important book projects are Les Pens es 1971 The Psalms 1973 Our Calligraphic Heritage 1979 and The Hebrew Letter Calligraphic Variations 1990 His designs for architecture integrate space and ornament and create public areas graced with decorative detail rarely seen in contemporary settings A bibliography of known book work is included Reinventing Bach Paul Elie,2012-09-18 The story of a revolution in music and technology told through a century of recordings of the music of Johann Sebastian Bach In Reinventing Bach his remarkable second book Paul Elie tells the electrifying story of how musicians of genius have made Bach s music new in our time at once restoring Bach as a universally revered composer and revolutionizing the ways that music figures into our lives As a musician in eighteenth century Germany Bach was on the technological frontier restoring organs inventing instruments and perfecting the tuning system still in use today Two centuries later pioneering musicians began to take advantage of breakthroughs in audio recording to make Bach s music the sound of modern transcendence The sainted organist Albert Schweitzer played to a mobile recording unit set up at London s Church of All Hallows in order to spread Bach s organ works to the world beyond the churches Pablo Casals recording at Abbey Road Studios made Bach s cello suites existentialism for the living room Leopold Stokowski and Walt Disney with Fantasia made Bach the sound of children s playtime and Hollywood grandeur alike Glenn Gould s Goldberg Variations opened and closed the LP era and made Bach the byword for postwar cool and Yo Yo Ma has brought Bach into the digital present where computers and smartphones put the sound of Bach all around us In this book we see these musicians and dozens of others searching experimenting and collaborating with one another in the service of Bach who emerges as the very image of the spiritualized technically savvy artist Reinventing Bach is a gorgeously written story of music invention and human passion and a story with special relevance in our time for it shows that great things can happen when high art meets new technology Instrumental Virtuosi ,1989-04-24 With this volume Cowden has completed his project of three bibliographies about performers The current work on instrumentalists is divided into several parts The main section is an alphabetized list of individual artists with their birth and death dates and related bibliographic citations There is also an index and four appendixes that provide handy cross references to all sections and there are two lists of books about performers Cowden's selected virtuosi include players of the basic woodwinds and brasses strings organ percussion piano and less common instruments such as harmonica and Jew's harp A useful addition to almost any library Choice With Instrumental Virtuosi Robert Cowden has completed his comprehensive three volume bibliography of musical performers A compilation of resources drawn from dictionaries encyclopedias periodicals and published materials by and about individual musicians it is unequalled by any other work in scope and coverage In addition to classical instrumentalists artists in the pop and commercial tradition such as Louis Armstrong Duke Ellington and Stephane Grappelli are included The first two sections of the book list some 300 works on various types of virtuosi including brass players keyboard artists and string and woodwind players These publications have been personally examined and annotated by Cowden The final section contains alphabetical entries for more than 1 200 artists In addition to biographical data the entries list references to sources cited earlier in the volume autobiographies and biographies publications by the performers related works and compilations of memorabilia scores and reviews Cross referencing an author index and indexing to other musical references are supplied With its two companion volumes Concert and Opera Singers and Concert and Opera Conductors Instrumental Virtuosi is likely to become the standard reference in its field An appropriate acquisition for any music library or music reference shelf

Guilhermina Suggia: Cellist Anita Mercier, 2017-07-05 Born in 1885 in Porto Portugal to a middle class musical family Guilhermina Suggia began playing cello at the age of five A child prodigy she was already a seasoned performer when she won a scholarship to study with Julius Klengel in Leipzig at the age of sixteen Suggia lived in Paris with fellow cellist Pablo Casals for several years before World War I in a professional and personal partnership that was as stormy as it was unconventional When they separated Suggia moved to London where she built a spectacularly successful solo career Suggia's virtuosity and musicianship along with the magnificent style and stage presence famously captured in Augustus John's portrait made her one of the most sought after concert artists of her day In 1927 she married Dr Jos asimiro Carteado Mena and settled down to a comfortable life divided between Portugal and England Throughout the 1930s Suggia remained one of the most respected musicians in Europe She partnered on stage with many famous instrumentalists and conductors and completed numerous BBC broadcasts The war years kept her at home in Portugal where she focused on teaching but she returned to England directly after the war and resumed performing When Suggia died in 1950 her will provided for the establishment of several scholarship funds for young cellists including England's prestigious Suggia Gift Mercier's study of Suggia's letters and other writings reveal an intelligent warm and generous character an artist who was enormously dedicated knowledgeable and self disciplined Suggia was one of the first women to make a career of playing the cello at a time when prejudice against women playing this traditionally masculine instrument was still strong A role model for many other musicians she was herself a fearless pioneer Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Latinos have made important contributions to American society and this biographical dictionary is devoted to celebrating those contributions. All 127 men and women profiled in this work have immigrated to or been born in the United States and have made major contributions to American life and culture. Cuban Americans, Puerto Ricans, Mexican Americans, and others of Spanish, South American, Central American, and Caribbean heritage: more than one third of them women represent 35 fields of endeavor and all 50 states. From historical figures to the newest sports champion, figure skater Rudy Galindo, this work provides profiles of both prominent and important but less familiar people who have made significant contributions in their fields. Many of those profiled can be found in no other biographical source. A selection of photos complements the text. All biographies have been written by experts in their ethnic fields. Those profiled range widely from distinguished scientists to sports stars, from actors to activists, from businesswomen to political personalities, from literary luminaries to labor organizers. All are potential role models for young men and women, and many have overcome extreme odds to succeed. These colorfully written substantive biographies detail their subjects' goals, struggles, and commitments to success and to their ethnic communities. Among the 127 people profiled are Nobel Prize winning scientist Luis Alvarez, Treasurer of the United States, Romana Acosta Bañuelos, actor, composer, activist, Rubén Blades, classical dancer, Fernando Bujones, baseball player, José Canseco, U.S. Secretary of Education, Lauro Cavazos, Jr., writer, Sandra Cisneros, fashion designer, Oscar de la Renta, U.S. Congressman, Lincoln D. Diaz Balart, teacher, Jaime Escalante, composer, singer, Gloria Estefan, tennis players, Gigi Fernandez and Mary Joe Fernandez, playwright, Mara Fornés, U.S. Men's 1996 Figure Skating Champion, Rudy Galindo, physician, political activist, Hector García, Coca-Cola CEO, Roberto Goizueta, labor leader, Dolores Huerta, U.S. Ambassador, María Lucí Jaramillo, artist, Marisol, civil rights activist, Vilma Socorro Martínez, businessman, politician, Jorge Mas Canosa, federal judge, Harold Medina, graphic artist, Nicholas Mohr, U.S. Surgeon General, Antonia Novello, astronaut, Ellen Ochoa, Nobel Prize winning biochemist, Severo Ochoa, TV personality, Geraldo Rivera, U.S. Congresswoman, Ileana Ros-Lehtinen, educational psychologist, George I. Sánchez, newspaper editor, Roberto Suárez, women's rights activist, businesswoman, María Elena Toranzo, New York State Supreme Court Judge, Edwin Torres, mystic, Teresa Urrea, film producer, director, Luis Valdez. For ease of use, the heading of each profile identifies ethnic group, field of endeavor, birthdate, and where appropriate, death date. Each profile concludes with a suggested reading list of books and periodical articles about the subject. An ethnic index, field of endeavor index, and a general index make research easy. This much needed reference work is essential for school and public libraries.
