Economic Evaluation in Education Henry M. Levin,Patrick J. McEwan,Clive Belfield,A. Brooks Bowden,Robert Shand,2017-06-15 The past decade has seen increased attention to cost effectiveness and benefit cost analysis in education as administrators are being asked to accomplish more with the same or even fewer resources philanthropists are keen to calculate their return on investment in social programs and the general public is increasingly scrutinizing how resources are allocated to schools and colleges This text titled Cost Effectiveness Analysis in its previous editions is the only full length book to provide readers with the step by step methods they need to plan and implement a benefit cost analysis in education The authors examine a range of issues including how to identify measure and distribute costs how to measure effectiveness utility and benefits and how to incorporate cost evaluations into the decision making process The updates to the Third Edition reflect the considerable methodological development in the evaluation literature and the greater empiricism practiced by education researchers to help readers learn to apply more advanced methods to their own analyses SAGE congratulates author Henry M Levin winner of the 2017 AERA Distinguished Contributions to Research in Education Award

Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies,2015 Women and Children as Victims and Offenders: Background, Prevention, Reintegration Helmut Kury,Ślawomir Redo,Evelyn Shea,2016-06-01 This work compiles experiences and lessons learned in meeting the unique needs of women and children regarding crime prevention and criminal justice in particular the treatment and social reintegration of offenders and serves as a cross disciplinary work for academic and policy making analyses and follow up in developing and developed countries Furthermore it argues for a more humane and effective approach to countering delinquency and crime among future generations In a world where development positively depends on the rule of law and the related investment security two global trends may chart the course of development urbanization and education Urbanization will globalize the concepts of justice and fairness education will be dominated by the urban mindset and digital service economy just as a culture of lawfulness will This work looks at crime prevention education as an investment in the sustainable quality of life of succeeding generations and at those who pursue such crime prevention as the providers of much needed skills in the educational portfolio Adopting a reformist approach this work collects articles with findings and recommendations that may be relevant to domestic and international policymaking including the United Nations Studies and their educational value for the welfare of coming generations The books address the relevant United Nations ideas by combining them with academic approaches Guided by the Editors respective fields of expertise and in full recognition of academic freedom and organized scepticism it includes contributions by lawyers criminologists sociologists and other eminent experts seeking to bridge the gap between academic and policy perspectives as appropriate against the international background including the United Nations developments The first volume opens with a foreword by Marta Santos Pais the United Nations Special Representative of the Secretary General on Violence against Children and a general introduction by the editors Part I provides an overview of United Nations principles for crime prevention and the treatment of women and children Part II concentrates on education and the social learning of children and adolescents The importance of quality education is stressed as is its impact on the behaviour of children of all ages It also includes a discussion of the factors that still hinder access to good schooling in many parts of the world Part III presents international research findings on children juveniles and women both as victims and offenders Statistics show overwhelmingly that these groups are more often victims than offenders

Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies, Language, and Education Marc Marschark, Patricia Elizabeth Spencer, 2005 This title is a major professional reference work in the field of deafness research It covers all important aspects of deaf studies language social psychological issues neuropsychology culture technology and education

Diverse Families, Desirable Schools Mira Debs, 2021-03-09 In Diverse Families Desirable Schools Mira Debs offers a richly detailed study of public Montessori schools which make up the largest group of progressive schools in the public sector As public Montessori schools expand rapidly as alternatives to traditional public schools the story of these schools Debs points out is a microcosm of the broader conflicts around public school choice Drawing on historical research interviews with public Montessori educators and ethnographic case studies Debs explores the forces that pull intentionally diverse progressive schools toward elitism At the heart of Debs's book is a thoughtful analysis of the notion of fit between parents and schools an idea that is central to school choice which is often marketed as an opportunity for parents to find the perfect fit for their kids

By exploring parents varied motivations in choosing these schools and observing how families experience or fail to experience a good fit after having chosen a particular school Debs makes an original contribution to the literature on school choice and sheds light on the dilemmas entailed in maintaining diversity in progressive charter and magnet schools
