The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non-fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non-fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world

While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women s studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada s past

This Woman in Particular Stephanie Kirkwood Walker, 2010-01-27 What happens when an individual becomes the subject of many and divergent portraits Biography says Stephanie Kirkwood Walker is a deceptive genre Positioned between fact and fiction and elusive in its purposes biography displays an individual life an existence patterned by conventions that have also shaped the reader s experience In This Woman in Particular Walker explores versions of Emily Carr s life that have appeared over the last half century Walker contends that the biographical image of Emily Carr that emerges from an accumulation of biographies films plays and poetry as well as her own autobiographical writing establishes an elaborated cultural artefact an image that is bound by its very nature to remain forever incomplete and always elusive She demonstrates how changes in Carr s biographical image parallel the maturing of Canadian biographical writing reflecting attitudes toward women artists and the shifting balance between religion secular attitudes and contemporary spirituality And she concludes that biography plays a crucial role in all our lives in initiating and sustaining debate on vital personal and collective concerns

Sanctioned Ignorance Paul Martin, 2013-11-15 There is no such thing as the ivory tower Rather there sit side by side numerous windowless towers of knowledge each seeming to have only a small entrance and no discernable exit Paul Martin Multilingual multicultural and vast Canada enjoys a rich diversity of literatures So why does Canadian Literature as it has been taught fail to encompass a common geography history and government yet reveal the diverse experiences of its immigrants long term residents and original peoples Martin s research interviews with 95 professors in 27 universities maps the institutional chasms in communication and the nature of their persistence His own example of venturing out from his tower to dialogue with colleagues shows a way toward cultivating a conception of the literatures of Canada that is expansive and inclusive Canadianists professors of English French Postcolonial and Comparative Literatures and leaders in education will profit from Martin s frank investigations
