Who are we What are we How do we fit into the world Or into the universe These and other questions pertaining to ourselves and our environment are as compelling to us today as they were to our primitive ancestors Throughout our history we have developed paradigms of thought that have attempted to answer these questions each conceptual framework being particularly relevant to its age We are in the twentieth century witnessing a complete reorganization of our thinking We are now with the aid of technology able to bring together both ancient and new patterns of thought and to observe the emergence of a kaleidoscopic world view that is uniting the once dissonant theories of philosophy religion and science This book sketches an historical picture of three world views that have shaped our ideas about ourselves These conceptual formats that have so influenced us are not mutually exclusive and are present in all of us simultaneously although to varying degrees depending upon our individual biases

Music of Hindu Trinidad Helen Myers, 1998 Like many other small towns in Trinidad Felicity is populated almost entirely by East Indians In their Caribbean exile the residents of Felicity have created and recreated the music of their Hindu ancestors Music of Hindu Trinidad is a fascinating account of the history and cultural significance of Hindu music that explores its symbolic aesthetic and psychological aspects while asking the larger question of how this music has contributed to the formation of identity in the midst of their great diaspora Myers details the musical repertory of Felicity which is based largely on north Indian genres including the traditional Bhojpur folk songs and drumming styles brought by the first indentured laborers in 1845 In her engaging exploration of the fate of Indian classical music and new popular styles such as Hindi calypso soca and chutney she even finds herself at the ancestral home of Trinidadian V S Naipaul in India Copiously illustrated and accompanied by a compact disk Music of Hindu Trinidad is a model ethnographic study
