Phenomenology And Deconstruction Vol 4 Solitude:

Phenomenology and Deconstruction, Volume Four Robert Denoon Cumming, 1991 Cumming also shows that conversion is not merely a personal predisposition of Sartre's further manifest in his later conversions to Heidegger and to a version of Marxism Conversion is also philosophical preoccupation illustrated by the conversion to the imaginary whereby Sartre explains how he himself as well as Genet and Flaubert became writers Finally Cumming details how Husserl's phenomenological method contributed both to the shaping of Sartre's style as a literary writer and to his theory of style

Phenomenology or Deconstruction? Christopher Watkin, 2009-03-03 Phenomenology or Deconstruction challenges traditional understandings of the relationship between phenomenology and deconstruction through new readings of the work of Maurice Merleau-Ponty Paul Ricur and Jean-Luc Nancy A constant dialogue with Jacques Derrida's engagement with phenomenological themes provides the impetus to establishing a new understanding of being and presence that exposes significant blindspots inherent in traditional readings of both phenomenology and deconstruction In reproducing neither a stock phenomenological reaction to deconstruction nor the routine deconstructive reading of phenomenology Christopher Watkin provides a fresh assessment of the possibilities for the future of phenomenology along with a new reading of the deconstructive legacy Through detailed studies of the philosophy of Merleau-Ponty Ricur and Nancy he shows how a phenomenological tradition much wider and richer than Husserlian or Heideggerian thought alone can take account of Derrida's critique of ontology and yet still hold a commitment to the ontological This new reading of being and presence fundamentally re-draws our understanding of the relation of deconstruction and phenomenology and provides the first sustained discussion of the possibilities and problems for any future deconstructive phenomenology Heidegger and the Human Ingo Farin, Jeff Malpas, 2022-10-01 The human being stands at the center of the humanities and social sciences In an age that some have dubbed the Anthropocene this book addresses Heidegger's conception of the human being and its role in the world Contributors discuss how Heidegger envisages and interprets the human being and what we can learn from his thought Pluralistic in outlook this volume covers a broad range of divergent views on Heidegger and his complex conception of the human A short introductory chapter orients the reader to the significance of the question of the human in Heidegger's works its topicality and its relevance for interpreting Heidegger's oeuvre Chapters are divided into three thematic groups anthropology and philosophy human being otherness and world and life identity and finitude This organization facilitates discussions of the systematic interconnection between Heidegger's philosophy and his critical thoughts on anthropology and humanism as well as his relation to contemporary philosophers and their views on the subject Various problems in Heidegger's concept of the human are addressed and moral dimensions and practical imperatives implicit in Heidegger explored in discussions about intersectionality and oppression the frailty of the human and the embeddedness of the human being in nature society and history Phenomenology and Deconstruction, Volume Three Robert Denoon Cumming, 1991

Cumming also shows that conversion is not merely a personal predisposition of Sartre's further manifest in his later conversions to Heidegger and to a version of Marxism Conversion is also philosophical preoccupation illustrated by the conversion to the imaginary whereby Sartre explains how he himself as well as Genet and Flaubert became writers Finally Cumming details how Husserl's phenomenological method contributed both to the shaping of Sartre's style as a literary writer and to his theory of style

Transversal Rationality and Intercultural Texts Hwa Yol Jung, 2011-07-26 Winner of the 2012 Edward Goodwin Ballard Prize sponsored by the Center for Advanced Research in Phenomenology Transversality is the keyword that permeates the spirit of these thirteen essays spanning almost half a century from 1965 to 2009 The essays are exploratory and experimental in nature and are meant to be a transversal linkage between phenomenology and East Asian philosophy Transversality is the concept that dispels all ethnocentrisms including Eurocentrism In the globalizing world of multiculturalism Eurocentric universalism falls far short of being universal but simply parochial at the expense of the non Western world Transversality is intercultural interspecific interdisciplinary and intersensorial Transversal Rationality and Intercultural Texts means to transform the very way of philosophizing itself by infusing or hybridizing multiple traditions in the history of the world Like no other scholar Jung bridges the gap between Asian and Western cultures What is traditionally called comparative philosophy is not just a neglected branch of philosophy it is poised to radically transform the very conception of philosophy itself

International Philosophical Quarterly ,2002      The Review of Metaphysics ,2001

Phenomenological Inquiry ,2004      The Influence of Mikhail Bakhtin on the Formation and Development of the Yale School of Deconstruction Julio Peiró Sempere, 2014-05-02 This book explores the origins of American literary deconstruction in the light of the work of Russian philosopher Mikhail M Bakhtin To do so the author offers a comparative reading of Bakhtin's work and that of the literary critics who formed the so called Yale School of Deconstruction namely Paul de Man J Hillis Miller Harold Bloom and Geoffrey Hartman By resorting to Bakhtin's challenging understanding of the dialogical nature of the world and his reworking of the notion of temporality in the literary work of art the readings offered in this book provide the reader with a new point of departure for one of the most influential movements in twentieth century literary theory literary deconstruction

The Journal of Philosophy ,2002      Phenomenology and Existentialism in the Twentieth Century Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2009-09-30 Phenomenology and existentialism transformed understanding and experience of the Twentieth Century to their core They had strikingly different inspirations and yet the two waves of thought became merged as both movements flourished The present collection of research devoted to these movements and their unfolding interaction is now especially revealing The studies in this first volume to be followed by two succeeding ones range from the predecessors of existentialism Kierkegaard Jean Wahl Nietzsche to the work of its adherents Shestov Berdyaev Unamuno Blondel Blumenberg Heidegger and Mamardashvili Dufrenne and Merleau Ponty to existentialism's congruence with Christianity or with atheism Among the leading Husserlian insights are treated essence and experience the place of questioning ethics and intentionality temporality and passivity and the life world The following book will uncover the perennial concerns guiding the wondrous interplay of these two inspirational sources International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001 The Book Review Digest, 2003 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Solitude, Silence and Loneliness Julian Stern, Christopher A. Sink, Wong Ping Ho, Malgorzata Walejko, 2021-11-18 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Solitude Silence and Loneliness is the first major account integrating research on solitude silence and loneliness from across academic disciplines and across the lifespan The editors explore how being alone in its different forms positive and negative as solitude silence and loneliness is learned and developed and how it is experienced in childhood and youth adulthood and old age Philosophical psychological historical cultural and religious issues are addressed by distinguished scholars from Europe North and Latin America and Asia

Eco-Deconstruction Philippe Lynes, David Wood, 2018-03-27 Eco Deconstruction marks a new approach to the degradation of the natural environment including habitat loss species extinction and climate change While the work of French philosopher Jacques Derrida 1930 2004 with its relentless interrogation of the anthropocentric metaphysics of presence has already proven highly influential in posthumanism and animal studies the present volume drawing on published and unpublished work by Derrida and others builds on these insights to address the most pressing environmental issues of our time The volume brings together fifteen prominent scholars from a wide variety of related fields including eco phenomenology eco hermeneutics new materialism posthumanism animal studies vegetal philosophy science and technology studies environmental humanities eco criticism earth art and aesthetics and analytic environmental ethics Overall eco deconstruction offers an account of differential relationality explored in a non totalizable ecological context that addresses our times in both an ontological and a normative register The book is divided into four sections Diagnosing the Present suggests that our times are marked by a facile flattened out understanding of time and thus in need of deconstructive dispositions Ecologies mobilizes the spectral ontology of deconstruction to argue for an originary environmentality the constitutive ecological embeddedness of mortal life Nuclear and Other Biodegradabilities examines remains including such by products and disintegrations of human culture as nuclear waste environmental destruction and species extinctions Environmental Ethics seeks to uncover a demand for justice including human responsibility for suffering beings that emerges precisely as a response to original differentiation and the mortality and unmasterable alterity it installs in living beings As such the book will resonate with readers not only of philosophy but across the humanities and the social and natural sciences

Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2001-08 Historical Traces and Future Pathways of Poststructuralism Gavin Rae, Emma Ingala, 2020-11-11 This volume brings together an international array of scholars to reconsider the meaning and place of poststructuralism historically and demonstrate some of the ways in which it continues to be relevant especially for debates in aesthetics ethics and politics The book's chapters focus on the works of Butler Deleuze Derrida Foucault Irigaray Kristeva Lacan and Lyotard in combination with those of Agamben Luhman Nancy and Nietzsche and examine issues including biopolitics culture embodiment epistemology history music temporality political resistance psychoanalysis revolt and the visual arts The contributors use poststructuralism as a hermeneutical strategy that rejects the traditional affirmation of unity totality transparency and representation to instead focus on the foundational importance of open ended becoming difference the unknowable and expression This approach allows for a more expansive definition of poststructuralism and helps demonstrate how it has contributed to debates across philosophy and other disciplines Historical Traces and Future Pathways of Poststructuralism will be of particular interest to researchers in philosophy politics political theory critical theory aesthetics feminist theory cultural studies intellectual history psychoanalysis and sociology

Psychoanalysis for Intersectional Humanity Ricardo Espinoza Lolas, 2023-09-29 Psychoanalysis for Intersectional Humanity considers both the vast realm of sexual diversities emerging under capitalism and outlines what a psychoanalytic clinic that considers these diversities should be like Ricardo Espinoza Lolas explores these themes hand in hand with the Marquis de Sade exploring the monstrous side of our existence not as a negative aspect of humanity but as a part of us that strives for a freer and more inclusive life Espinoza Lolas explores aspects of psychoanalysis feminism critical theory philosophy history politics and the arts in considering how human determination can be torn from ego and neurosis The book concludes with a disarticulation of the categories of neurosis psychosis and perversion of psychoanalysis and the suggestion of a new clinic and a new politics Psychoanalysis for Intersectional Humanity will be of great interest to psychoanalysts in practice and in training Lacanian clinicians and scholars of psychoanalytic studies philosophy and critical theory
