Presence And Prophecy:

Presence and Prophecy Simon Barrow, 2002 Presence and Prophecy is an extensive resource for everyone involved in theological education to help rethink its challenges. Students and teachers in theological colleges, seminaries, courses and schemes will find it useful, but it is also relevant to those involved with Christian basics courses, local church study groups and other informal educational events. This Study Guide will help many different groups tackle the different issues raised in Presence and Prophecy. It lays out some ways of engaging with the ideas in the book, linking the themes and joining in an important conversation about how the Churches in mission can really make a difference in people's lives. Whilst this Study Guide contains a summary of the material in the main book, it will be difficult to use to full effect without a copy of the full report Presence and Prophecy.

Presence and Prophecy, 2002 How does theological education equip people to face the challenges of mission and ministry in a changing world? How does Christian presence in society make a difference and how can the Churches speak prophetically of God's purposes today? This book suggests how theological education can provide essential opportunities to find encouraging and helpful answers to these questions. It explores the kind of world we live in and asks what kind of teaching and learning experiences help Christians to become people with hearts for mission. It takes a fresh look at elements of the theological curriculum and suggests a new vision and hope for all the Churches. It is also accompanied by a study guide.

Realms of the Prophetic Naim Collins, 2019-06-18 Speak forth Heaven's secrets. Since the beginning of time, God's desire has been to share Heavenly secrets with His friends. These hidden truths are freely given to every believer as they operate in the gift of prophecy. The prophetic anointing allows you to hear God's voice, speak forth His words and release His power into the world.

Christian Prophecy Niels Christian Hvidt, 2007-04-19 Throughout the Hebrew Bible, God guides and saves His people through the words of His prophets. When the prophets are silenced, the people easily lose their way. What happened after the incarnation, death and resurrection of Christ? Did God fall silent? The dominant position in Christian theology is that prophecy did indeed cease at some point in the past, if not with the Old Testament prophets, then with John the Baptist, with Jesus, with the last apostle, or with the closure of the canon of the New Testament. Nevertheless, throughout the history of Christianity, there have always been acclaimed saints and mystics, most of them women, who displayed prophetic traits. In recent years, the charismatic revival in both Protestant and Catholic circles has once again raised the question of the place and function of prophecy in Christianity. Scholarly theological attitudes toward Christian prophecy range from modest recognition to contempt. Mainstream systematic theology, both Protestant and Catholic, has mostly marginalized or ignored the gift of prophecy. In this book, however, Niels Christian Hvidt argues that prophecy has persisted in Christianity as an inherent and continuous feature in the life of the church. Prophecy never died, he argues, but rather proved its dynamism by mutating to meet new historical conditions. He presents a comprehensive history of prophecy from ancient Israel to the present and closely examines the development of the theological discourse that surrounds it.

Throughout though there is always an awareness of the critical discernment required when evaluating the charism of prophecy The debate about prophecy Hvidt shows leads to some profound insights about the very nature of Christianity and the church For example some have argued that Christianity is a perfect state and that all that is required for salvation is acceptance of its doctrines Others have emphasized how God continues to intervene and guide his people onto the right path as the full implementation of God s salvation in Christ is still far away This is the position that Hvidt forcefully and persuasively defends and develops in this ambitious and important work

The Practice of Prophecy Li Ming Dennis Lum,2018-03-26 The charisma of prophecy is found throughout the history of the global Pentecostal movement Within the movement prophecy is seen as the communication of an inspired spontaneous revelation bringing edification to the faith community Despite its prevalence academic research has mostly focused on the biblical theological aspect neglecting the actual contemporary practice This book addresses this gap with a study on the practice of prophecy within the Assemblies of God of Singapore The book investigates the nature purpose and significance of the phenomenon It also identifies theological variables that are correlated with its practice and explicates these relationships The investigation employs the empirical theological method of Johannes van der Ven utilizing both a qualitative and a quantitative study The results provide a rich description of the actual reception delivery and judging of prophecy Significant findings include relationships between prophecy and courage love personality types prayer types and evangelism

Reclaiming Prophecy Darin Slack,2015-05-16 Is there a way to experience prophetic ministry in a God honoring way without all the mess and confusion Prophetic ministry is the Holy Spirit's gift to the Church Yet this gift has been abused confused and misused making it difficult for today's Church leaders to embrace With biblically sound delivery Darin Slack offers a compelling perspective based on his thirty years of experience in prophetic ministry He challenges indifference and complacency while discouraging doctrinal disorder in the administration of the gift Slack provides a powerful and much needed balance that will allow Church leaders to see the great potential for blessing in the prophetic while reducing the risk Through Scripture Slack offers leaders from all doctrinal backgrounds a faith building process for realizing prophecy that leads to Church edification 1 Cor 14 3 This book is a must have for every pastor or Church leader who desires to scripturally understand and implement prophetic ministry
