Problems in Modern Latin American History James A. Wood, 2013-11-07 Now in its fourth edition this leading reader has been updated to tighten the focus of each chapter on a major interpretive problem This edition includes an entirely new chapter Historical Memory which allows readers to revisit the era of the Cold War from a contemporary perspective and the chapters on nationalism and globalization have been thoroughly revised The book continues to offer a rich variety of materials that can be tailored to the needs of individual instructors By focusing each chapter on a single interpretive problem the book painlessly engages students in document analysis and introduces them to historiography With its innovative combination of primary and secondary sources and editorial analysis this text is designed specifically to stimulate critical thinking in a wide range of courses on Latin American history since independence Major Problems in American History:

Since 1865 Elizabeth Cobbs Hoffman, Jon Gjerde, 2006 Designed to encourage critical thinking about history this book introduces students to both primary sources and analytical essays on important topics in US history It contains primary documents secondary sources chapter introductions separate introductions to documents and essays in every chapter bibliographies and documentation of sources The History of U.S. Higher Education - Methods for Understanding the Past Marybeth Gasman, 2013-10-14 The first volume in the Core Concepts of Higher Education series The History of U S Higher Education Methods for Understanding the Past is a unique research methods textbook that provides students with an understanding of the processes that historians use when conducting their own research Written primarily for graduate students in higher education programs this book explores critical methodological issues in the history of American higher education including race class gender and sexuality Chapters include Reflective Exercises that combine theory and practice Research Method Tips Further Reading Suggestions Leading historians and those at the forefront of new research explain how historical literature is discovered and written and provide readers with the methodological approaches to conduct historical higher education research of their own Source Problems in United States History Andrew Cunningham

McLaughlin, William Edward Dodd, Marcus Wilson Jernegan, Arthur Pearson Scott, 1918 Go to the Sources Chara Haeussler Bohan, 2004 Lucy Maynard Salmon was a pioneer educator with a progressive spirit Having earned a bachelor s and master s degree from the University of Michigan in 1876 and 1883 Salmon continued her studies under Bryn Mawr professor and future U S President Woodrow Wilson Thereafter Salmon began her forty year Vassar College career and earned a reputation as a nationally prominent historian suffrage advocate author and teacher She helped found the American

Association of University Women the American Association of University Professors and the Middle States Council for the Social Studies She was the only woman to serve on the American Historical Association's Committee of Seven and the first woman to be elected to its Executive Council An advocate of the new social history Salmon's teaching methods were novel at the time and continue to be relevant today Indeed Salmon advised students to go to the sources Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book's first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book The Supreme Court Peter Charles Hoffer, William James Hoffer, N. E. H. Hull, 2007 For more than two centuries the U S Supreme Court has provided a battleground for nearly every controversial issue in our nation's history This veteran team of talented historians produces the most readable astute and up to date single volume history of this venerated institution
