Press Cuttings:

Measuring Your Media Profile Dermot H. McKeone, 1995 Dermot McKeone's book shows how with the aid of today's powerful technology the impact an organization makes in the media can be monitored and evaluated against the competition if necessary Using examples and case studies of high profile companies he describes the various methods available for analysing media coverage both printed and broadcast and discusses the costs and benefits involved He explains how to identify target audiences and choose appropriate messages demonstrating how media coverage translates into corporate image in the marketplace Analysing and evaluating media coverage argues Mr McKeone should be part of a systematic corporate communications programme and it is this strategic perspective that makes his book so valuable Catalogue of history Sport, Literature, Society Alexis Tadié, J.A. Mangan, Supriya Chaudhuri, 2016-04-08 Sport studies and sports history have witnessed a recent substantial increase in publications However the relationship between literature and sport has been little explored Sport Literature Society looks at a wide variety of case studies ranging from Japan to England from India to Australia and covers sports as diverse as cycling football wrestling and boxing It concentrates on historical perspectives The contributors are all academics of international reputation and include historians of sport and literary scholars Literature may shape our perceptions and reactions to sport as much as sport may inform our reading As mimetic practice as aesthetic object as imaginative release sport is analogous to literature and the other arts at the same time it can become the subject of literary visual or musical elaborations Literature often conceptualises the place and role of sport in culture and society Indeed sport inhabits literature in ways that have not been adequately studied Sport studies have investigated the relationships between sport and society education gender nation and class To look again at these relationships through the prism of literature enables us to change our focus and to assess the centrality of sport in culture

This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport Tom Murphy's Theatre of Everyday Space Moonyoung Hong, 2025-05-08 By the time of his death in 2018 Tom Murphy was widely recognised as one of Ireland's most important modern playwrights Ireland's experience of rapid modernisation emigration and globalisation is vividly captured in his plays challenging generic notions of space place and the nation In particular his drama reconfigures Irish theatre's uneasy relationship with globalisation with the peasant kitchen the pub and the bog having traditionally been exported as the quintessential Irish spaces Focusing on one of Murphy's central innovations his experimentation with theatre and everyday space the book considers the significance of Murphy's work in modern drama more broadly The idea of home has preoccupied modern playwrights since the naturalist dramas of Henrik Ibsen and Anton Chekhov leading theatre scholars to focus on the everyday space of the home to the exclusion of other everyday spaces Murphy's works by contrast offer a new politics of the interior engaging with a diverse range of other spaces such as dancehalls grocery shops pubs hotels offices churches gasworks and airports His drama presents a global sense of the local an emotional map of the shifting geographies of everyday life By applying new theoretical perspectives and showcasing new archival materials inaccessible to previous scholars the book revisits Murphy as an international playwright a cartographer of our modern day global village

Churchill's Legacy Alan Watson, 2016-06-16 Churchill's Legacy describes how Churchill wielded his influence in post war politics to enable the restoration of Europe through two key speeches in 1946 Having first helped bring victory to the Allies in 1945 Churchill went on to preserve the freedom of the world by gaining the support of the United States in the restoration of Europe In Fulton Missouri Churchill alerted America to the reality of Uncle Joe a tyrant determined to dominate Europe at any cost Churchill called for an Anglo American alliance based on their shared values and the deterrent of America's possession of the atomic bomb Churchill also urged the Americans to recognise the debt they owed Britain for opposing Hitler in 1940 In doing so he contributed to the US thinking behind the need for the Marshall Plan In Zurich Churchill boldly proposed a partnership between France and Germany a United States of Europe The hatred stirred up by the war had to be replaced by partnership for Europe to recover its economic vitality and regain its moral stature Together the Anglo American Alliance and a United States of Europe led by France and Germany would have the power to smite the crocodile of Soviet ambition To understand what Churchill intended with these two speeches requires perspective The daring of his imagination and the scale of his architecture for a new Western Alliance was extraordinary At the time not many recognized the symmetry of what was proposed At Churchill's funeral in 1965 commentators bemoaned the end of an era In truth Churchill was the catalyst of a new era one built upon effective defence economic revival and European unity His speeches have been added to UNESCO'S International Memory of the World Register
