Press In The Arab Middle East A History:

The Press in the Arab Middle East Ami Ayalon, 1995-03-23 Newspapers and the practice of journalism began in the Middle East in the nineteenth century and evolved during a period of accelerated sociopolitical and cultural change Inspired by a foreign model the Arab press developed in its own way in terms of its political and social roles cultural function and the public image of those who engaged in it Ami Ayalon draws on a broad array of primary sources a century of Arabic newspapers biographies and memoirs of Arab journalists and politicians and archival material as well as a large body of published studies to portray the remarkable vitality of Arab journalism He explores the press as a Middle Eastern institution during its formative century before World War II and the circumstances that shaped its growth tracing its impact in turn on local historical developments After treating the major phases in chronological sequence he looks closely at more specific aspects the relations between press and state newspapers and their audience the press and traditional cultural norms economic aspects of the trade and journalism as a new profession in Arab society Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington, 2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps

The Contested Origins of the 1865 Arabic Bible David D. Grafton, 2015-11-09 This study examines the history of an Arabic Bible translation of American missionaries in late Ottoman Syria Comparing the history of this project as recorded by the American missionaries with private correspondence and the manuscripts of the translation The Contested Origins of the 1865 Arabic Bible provides new evidence for the Bible s compilation including the seminal role of Syrian Christians and Muslims This research also places the project within the wider social political framework of a transforming Ottoman Empire where the rise of a literate class in Beirut served as a catalyst for the Arabic literary renaissance Nah a and within the international field of New Testament textual studies Who's Who in the Arab World 2007-2008 Publithec Publications, 2011-12-22 Who s Who in the Arab World 2007 2008 compiles information on the most notable individuals in the Arab world Additionally the title provides insight into the historical background and the present of this influential and often volatile region Part I sets out precise biographical details on some 6 000 eminent individuals who influence every sphere of public life in politics culture and society Part II surveys the 19 Arab Countries providing detailed information on the geography history constitution economy and culture of the individual countries Part III provides information on the historical background of the Arab world Indexes by country and profession supplement the biographical section A select bibliography of secondary literature on the Middle East is also included Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt,

Jr.,2023-07-25 Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6 000 years. Often invaded, conquered and occupied by foreign armies, Egypt has never lost its identity. The Egyptians of today, although they have changed their language once and their religion twice, descend mainly from the Egyptians who built the Giza Pyramids and the Temple of Karnak, who served Alexander the Great and his heirs, who submitted to Augustus Caesar and raised much of the grain that fed the Roman Empire, who started Christian monasticism and the veneration of the Virgin Mary, and who advanced and sustained Muslim learning in what is now the world's oldest functioning university. It was and is one of the most important countries in the world. Historical Dictionary of Egypt, Fifth Edition, contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 600 cross-referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt. Modernity in Islamic Tradition Florian

Zemmin,2018-07-23 What does it mean to be modern? This study regards the concept of society as foundational to modern self-understanding. Identifying Arabic conceptualizations of society in the journal al-Manar, the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism, the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition. The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts. A Companion to Global Historical Thought Prasenjit

Duara,Viren Murthy,Andrew Sartori,2014-03-17 A COMPANION TO GLOBAL HISTORICAL THOUGHT A Companion to Global Historical Thought provides an overview of the development of historical thinking from the earliest times to the present, directly addressing issues of historiography in a globalized context. Questions concerning the global dissemination of historical writing and the relationship between historiography and other ways of representing the past have become important not only in the academic study of history but also in public arenas in many countries. With contributions from leading international scholars, the book considers the problem of the global in the multiplicity of traditions of narrating the past in the global dissemination of modern historical writing and of the global as a concept animating historical imaginations. It explores the different intellectual approaches that have shaped the discipline of history and the challenges posed by modernity and globalization while illustrating the shifts in thinking about time and the emergence of historical thought. Complementing A Companion to Western Historical Thought, this book places non-Western perspectives on historiography at the center of discussion, helping scholars and students alike make sense of the discipline at the start of the twenty-first century.

Historical Dictionary of Arab and Islamic Organizations Sarah Tenney,2020-10-28 The Historical Dictionary of Arab and Islamic Organizations focuses on international and regional organizations primarily in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region. With more than 300 cross-referenced entries, this volume includes both major and minor organizations. While the emphasis is on intergovernmental institutions, it also covers non-governmental organizations, key countries, movements and prominent figures in the Arab and Islamic world Like other dictionaries of this type it includes an introductory essay chronology of major events and a select bibliography for further reading It provides a solid starting point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the subject Arab Liberal Thought after 1967 Meir Hatina, Christoph Schumann, 2016-04-29 This volume aims at confronting the image of the Middle East as a region that is fraught with totalitarian ideologies authoritarianism and conflict It gives voice and space to other more liberal and adaptive narratives and discourses that endorse the right to dissent question the status quo and offer alternative visions for society

Cinema in the Arab World Ifdal Elsaket, Daniël Biltereyst, Philippe Meers, 2023-01-26 Cinema in the Arab world has been the subject of varied and rigorous studies but most have focused on films as text providing in depth analyses of plot style ideologies or examination of the biographies of prominent directors or actors This innovative new volume shifts the focus on Arab cinema off screen to examine the histories politics and conditions of distribution exhibition and cinema going in the Arab world Through broadening the frame of study beyond the screen the book widens understanding of the cinema not merely as a collection of films as texts but as a site of cultural and political contestation in the Arab world Divided into two sections and guided by interdisciplinary considerations the contributors examine historical and contemporary issues of Arab cinema in terms of the experience of movie going and filmmaking They examine the networks of distribution and exhibition as well as the contested and multiple meanings that the cinema embodied through diverse historical periods and geographical locations Part I focuses on new histories of Arab cinema in terms of film production distribution exhibition and audience s experiences of cinema going Part II deals with more recent issues within scholarship on Arab cinema such as issues of politics economics ideologies as well as issues related to Arab movies international circulation and screenings at festivals Together the chapters enrich our understanding of the cinema in the Arab world showing how deeply embedded it is within its social political and economic contexts
