Ritual Masks Henry Pernet, 2006-03-01 Ritual masking is an important institution in many traditional societies and has attracted much attention from Western scholars In Ritual Masks Pernet provides a thorough survey of masks and masking traditions in Africa Oceania and the Americas based on a close analysis of the literature in several languages Pernet's approach provides him with an opportunity to examine issues of importance to the history of religion and anthropology These include the influence of theory on the interpretation of prehistoric documents androcentrism in anthropology and the history of religions and Western scholarship's recurrent problems in interpreting preliterate or traditional societies Ritual, Play, and Belief in Evolution and Early Human Societies Colin Renfrew, Iain Morley, Michael Boyd, 2018 This book presents unique new insights into the development of human ritual and society through our heritage of play and performance African Masks and Emotions Z. S. Strother, 2025-12-23 In this groundbreaking book Z S Strother inspired by dialogues with African masquerade patrons and performers disputes assumptions that masks universally hide reveal or transform In Western European languages the word mask exerts a powerful presence as a figure of speech To masquerade is to pretend to be someone or something one is not By extension unmasking is a heroic metaphor for exposing a hidden truth In this volume art historian Z S Strother counters that narrative using African case studies to offer an alternative vision of masquerading She explores the aesthetic emotions aroused by masks or more precisely by dances of masks joy wonder awe fear and the release of laughing out loud She also investigates the uncanny a sensation of delicious shiveriness triggered when familiar spaces and individuals become strange and changeable Inspired by Strother's studies in DR Congo African Masks and Emotions takes a comparative perspective and moves emotion from the periphery to the center of analysis Mask Makers and Their Craft Deborah Bell, 2014-01-10 Profiling 30 mask makers from around the world this book explores the motivations and challenges of contemporary artists working to bring the traditional methods and conventions of mask making to an evolving global theatre There are 181 photographs including two sections of color plates which illustrate how the mythic iconography of masks is used in the modern fields of dance mime theatre and storytelling Topics include the ways in which mask artists and performers maintain a sense of universality despite varying local customs the legacies of Italian mask makers Amleto and Donato Sartori and of the California based Dell Arte International School of Physical Theatre and the ways in which traditional approaches in mask artistry continue to influence commercial mask performance ventures in film on Broadway and in touring companies Elgar Encyclopedia of Political Anthropology Arpad Szakolczai, Paul O'Connor, 2025-09-10 This Encyclopedia explores the anthropological underpinnings of politics Featuring biographical entries that reconstruct the life works of key theorists from across the globe alongside topical entries on a range of issues in political anthropology it poses the question what does it mean to be human in contemporary times Masks T. roughly from four to fourteen years By the time they become full fledged adolescents they may have had up to ten years experience with various art forms masking music costuming dancing and performance Aesthetic learning is vital to their maturation The contributors to this volume argue that the idea that learning the aesthetics of a culture only occurs after maturity is false as is the idea that children wearing masks is only play and is not to be taken seriously Playful Performers is a study of children s masquerades in Africa The contributors describe specific cases of young children s masking in the areas of west central and southern Africa which also happen to be the major areas of adult masquerading The volume reveals the considerable creativity and ingenuity that children exhibit in preparing costumes masks and musical instruments and in playing music dancing singing and acting The book includes over 50 pages of black and white photographs which illustrate and elaborate upon the authors main points The editors describe general categories of children s masquerades In each of the three masking categories children s relationships to their parents and other adults differ from a close relationship to some independence to almost complete independence No other major work has covered this aspect of African children at this age level The book offers a challenging perspective on young children seeing them as active agents in their own culture rather than passive recipients of culture as taught by parents and other elders It will be interesting reading for anthropologists art historians educators and African studies specialists alike

Symbolic Objects in Contentious Politics Benjamin Abrams, Peter Robert Gardner, 2023-04-04 When we observe protest marches striking workers on picket lines and insurgent movements in the world today a litany of objects routinely fill our field of vision Some such objects are ubiquitous the world over like flags banners and placards Others are situationally unique Who could have anticipated the historical importance of a flower placed in the barrel of a gun a flaming torch a sea of umbrellas a motorist s yellow vest a feather headdress an AK 47 or a knitted pink hat This book explores the stuff at the heart of protests revolutions civil wars and other contentious political events with particular focus on those objects that have or acquire symbolic importance In the context of contentious politics disruptive political episodes where people try to change societies without going through institutions certain objects can divide and unite social groups tell stories make declarations spark controversy and even trigger violent upheavals This book draws together scholars from a variety of fields to discuss symbolic objects in contentious politics their meanings uses functions and social responses In bringing these phenomena together this book offers a serious distinctive and cohesive theoretical contribution that draws upon diverse scholarly work in order to form the building blocks for future inquiry in the field The aim is not merely to close the gap in the literature but to create space in the field for further and more fruitful inquiry

The Veil Jennifer Heath, 2008-07-02 Veiling is a globally polarizing issue a locus for the struggle between Islam and the West and between contemporary and traditional interpretations of Islam This book examines the vastly misunderstood and multi layered world of the veil It explores and analyzes the cultures politics and histories of veiling

Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek, Harrie M. Leyten, 2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender power and identity
