Los rituales del caos Carlos Monsiváis, 2000 Los rituales del caos de Carlos Monsiváis Mary Alice Mora, 2000 Los Rituales del caos de Carlos Monsiváis Carmen Isabel Maracara Martínez, 2000 El arte de la ironía Mabel Moraña, Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado, 2007

Colección de ensayos escritos por destacados académicos de América Latina los EE UU y Europa en la obra de Carlos Monsiváis uno de los más importantes escritores e intelectuales públicos del siglo 20 Mexicano conocido sobre todo por su crónica urbana

Carlos Monsiváis Linda Egan, 2001-09 One of Mexico's foremost social and political chroniclers and its most celebrated cultural critic Carlos Monsiváis has read the pulse of his country over the past half century The author of five collections of literary journalism pieces called crónicas he is perhaps best known for his analytic and often satirical descriptions of Mexico City's popular culture This comprehensive study of Monsiváis's crónicas is the first book to offer an analysis of these works and to place Monsiváis's work within a theoretical framework that recognizes the importance of his vision of Mexican culture Linda Egan examines his ideology in relation to theoretical postures in Latin America the United States and Europe to cast Monsiváis as both a heterodox pioneer and a mainstream spokesman She then explores the poetics of the contemporary chronicle in Mexico reviewing the genre's history and its relation to other narrative forms Finally she focuses on the canonical status of Monsiváis's work devoting a chapter to each of his five principal collections Egan argues that the five books that are the focus of her study tell a story of ever renewing suspense we cannot know the end until Monsiváis is through constructing his literary project Despite this she observes his work between 1970 and 1995 documents important discoveries in his search for causes effects and deconstructions of historical obstacles to Mexico's passage into modernity While anthropologists and historians continue to introduce new paradigms for the study of Mexico's cultural space Egan's book provides a reflexive twist by examining the work of one of the thinkers who first inspired such a critical movement More than an appraisal of Monsiváis it offers a valuable discussion of theoretical issues surrounding the study of the chronicle as it is currently practiced in Mexico It balances theory and criticism to lend new insight into the ties between Mexican society social conscience and literature

The Everyday Atlantic Tania Gentic, 2013-12-01 Rethinks the concepts of nation imperialism and globalization by examining the everyday writing of the newspaper chronicle and blog in Spain and Latin America In The Everyday Atlantic Tania Gentic offers a new understanding of the ways in which individuals and communities perceive themselves in the twentieth century Atlantic world She grounds her study in first time comparative readings of daily newspaper texts written in Spanish Portuguese and Catalan Known as crónicas these everyday literary writings are a precursor to the blog and reveal the ephemerality of identity as it is represented and received daily Throughout the text Gentic offers fresh readings of well known and lesser known chroniclers cronistas including Eugeni d'Ors Catalonia Germán Arciniegas Colombia Clarice Lispector Brazil Carlos Monsiváis Mexico and Brazilian blogger Ricardo Noblat While previous approaches to the Atlantic have focused on geographical crossings by subjects Gentic highlights the everyday moments of reading and thought in which discourses of nation postcolonialism and globalization come into conflict Critics have often evaluated in isolation how ideology ethics affect and the body inform identity however Gentric skillfully combines these approaches to demonstrate how the chronicle exposes everyday representations of self and community

Subterranean Space in Contemporary Mexico City Literature Liesbeth François, 2021-05-05 This book studies the role of subterranean spaces in literary works about Mexico City It analyzes how underground spaces such as the subway the sewage system tunnels crypts and the subsoil itself relate to the whole of the city in a body of works published after 1985 the year of the deadliest earthquake in the capital s history The texts belong to the most important genres in urban literature the novel the short story and the cr nica and demonstrate the crucial role played by the underground in contemporary imaginings of the megalopolis as it condenses and confronts the tensions that run through them This central idea is developed through four analytical chapters focusing on the political ecological historical and aesthetic dimension of subterranean imaginaries

Life in the Megalopolis Lucia Sa, 2014-06-11 The modern metropolis has been called the symbol of our times and life in it epitomizes for many modernity itself But what to make of inherited ideas of modernity when faced with life in Mexico City and S o Paulo two of the largest metropolises in the world Is their fractured reality their brutal social contrasts and the ever escalating violence faced by their citizens just an intensification of what Engels described in the first in depth analysis of an industrial metropolis nineteenth century Manchester Or have post industrial and neo globalized economies given rise to new forms of urban existence in the so called developing world Life in the Megalopolis Mexico City and S o Paulo investigates how such questions are explored in cultural productions from these two Latin American megalopolises the focus being on literature film popular music and visual arts This book combines close readings of works with a constant reference to theoretical anthropological and social studies of these two cities and builds on received definitions of the concept megalopolis Life in the Megalopolis is the first book to combine urban studies theories particularly Lefebvre Harvey and de Certeau with Benjaminian cultural analyses and theoretical discussions with close readings of recent cultural works in various media It is also the first book to compare Mexico City and S o Paulo

Latin American Documentary Narratives Liliana Ch ávez Díaz, 2021-11-04 Winner of the Victor Villase or Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Award English from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards What defines the boundary between fact and fabrication fiction and nonfiction literature and journalism Latin American Documentary Narratives unpacks the precarious testimonial relationship between author and subject where the literary journalist rather than the subject being interviewed can become the hero of a narrative in its recording and retelling Latin American Documentary Narratives covers a variety of nonfiction genres from the 1950s to the 2000s that address topics such as social protests dictatorships natural disasters crime and migration in Latin America This book analyzes and includes an appendix of interviews with authors who have not previously been critically read together from the early and emblematic works of Gabriel Garc a M rquez and Elena Poniatowska to more recent authors like Leila Guerriero and Juan Villoro who are currently reshaping media and audiences in Latin America In a world overwhelmed by data production and marked by violent acts against those considered others Liliana Ch vez D az argues that storytelling plays an essential role in communication among individuals classes and cultures

Cruelty and Utopia Jean-François Lejeune, Centre international pour la ville, l'architecture et le paysage, 2005-02-03 This landmark collection of illustrated essays explores the vastly underappreciated history of America's other cities the great metropolises found south of our borders in Central and South America Buenos Aires So Paulo Mexico City Caracas Havana Santiago Rio Tijuana and Quito are just some of the subjects of this diverse collection How have desires to create modern societies shaped these cities leading to both architectural masterworks by the likes of Luis Barragán Juan O'Gorman Leó Costa Roberto Burle Marx Carlos Raúl Villanueva and Lina Bo Bardi and the most shocking favelas How have they grappled with concepts of national identity their colonial history and the continued demands of a globalized economy Lavishly illustrated Cruelty and Utopia features the work of such leading scholars as Carlos Fuentes Edward Burian Lauro Cavalcanti Fernando Oyarzún Roberto Segre and Eduardo Subirats along with artwork ranging from colonial paintings to stills from Chantal Akerman's film From the Other Side Also included is a revised translation of Spanish King Philip II's influential planning treatise of 1573 the Laws of the Indies which did so much to define the form of the Latin American city

City Fictions Amanda Holmes, 2007 Using concepts from urban and cultural studies City Fictions examines the representation of the city in the works of five important late twentieth century Spanish American authors Octavio Paz Julio Cortázar Christina Peri Rossi Diamela Eltit and Carlos Monsiváis While each of these authors is influenced at least partially by a specific Spanish American city be it Mexico City Buenos Aires Montevideo or Santiago the element that brings them together is the way in which the city is fictionalized in their work they all equate both language and the body with urban space In these metaphors language breaks down and the body disintegrates creating a disturbing picture of violent decline The poetry of Paz associates the urban surroundings with dissolving sentences and desensitized fingertips for Cortázar characters walking through cities are seen as both creating and unraveling written texts

Photopoetics at Tlatelolco Samuel Steinberg, 2016-01-15 In the months leading up to the 1968 Olympic games in Mexico City students took to the streets calling for greater democratization and decrying crackdowns on political resistance by the ruling PRI party

During a mass meeting held at the Plaza of the Three Cultures in the Tlatelolco neighborhood paramilitary forces opened fire on the gathering. The death toll from the massacre remains a contested number ranging from an official count in the dozens to estimates in the hundreds by journalists and scholars. Rereading the legacy of this tragedy through diverse artistic political interventions across the decades. Photopoetics at Tlatelolco explores the state's dual repression both the massacre's crushing effects on the movement and the manipulation of cultural discourse and political thought in the aftermath. Examining artifacts ranging from documentary photography and testimony to poetry essays chronicles cinema literary texts video and performance. Samuel Steinberg considers the broad photographic and photopoetic nature of modern witnessing as well as the specific elements of light gunfire flares camera flashes that ultimately defined the massacre. Steinberg also demonstrates the ways in which the labels of massacre and sacrifice inform contemporary perceptions of the state's blatant and violent repression of unrest. With implications for similar processes throughout the rest of Latin America from the 1960s to the present day. Photopoetics at Tlatelolco provides a powerful new model for understanding the intersection of political history and cultural memory.

Crisis apocalipsis y utopías Rodrigo Cánovas, Roberto Hozven, 2000 Poéticas del fracaso Yvette Sánchez, Roland Spiller, 2009-03-18 En medio del crack de la bolsa de valores editamos este libro que enfoca la poeticidad del fracaso al que desde siempre la literatura le ha ofrecido asilo sacando a luz sus camufladas calidades edificantes y poniendo patas arriba su brutal y siempre humillante esencia neutralizándola estéticamente. Mientras que la relación íntima entre el fracaso y la literatura ha sido productiva y constituyente tanto en el aspecto textual como en sus implicaciones autobiográficas, estéticas y discursivas la crítica no le ha prestado la debida atención. ¿Ficita que los 17 autores de este tomo se han propuesto compensar?

Crónicas de la identidad Cecilia Lanza Lobo, 2004 Pa(i)sajes urbanos Varios Autores, 2018-10-15 Los textos reunidos en Pa(i)sajes urbanos reflexionan sobre la imbricación paisaje-pasaje partiendo de la centralidad de la ciudad como espacio capitalizador de la vida social en América Latina y el Caribe y llaman la atención sobre un proceso que en última instancia resulta sumamente heterotemporal y asimétrico tanto en términos regionales como nacionales. La convergencia y la superposición de modelos de desarrollo urbano y social diversos precoloniales coloniales modernos posmodernos y poscoloniales las formas de inscripción de una memoria y un porvenir las relaciones más o menos profundas con los esquemas y paradigmas socioestéticos exponen la mayor o menor intensidad de los flujos migratorios internos y externos los grados y formas diversos de mestizaje e hibridez. Estos son algunos de los focos de los que se apropian estos ensayos generando ellos mismos paisajes y pasajes de las ciudades latinoamericanas entrecruzamientos que hacen del orden de los ensayos un juego de infinitas posibilidades.
