Developing the Rivers of East and West Africa Heather J. Hoag, 2013-09-12 How did rivers contribute to the economic and political development of modern Africa How did African and European notions of nature's value and meaning differ And how have these evaluations of Africa's rivers changed between 1850 and the present day Drawing upon examples from across the African continent Developing the Rivers of East and West Africa explores the role African waterways played in the continent's economic social and political development and provides the first historical study of the key themes in African river history Rivers acted as more than important transportation byways their waters were central to both colonial and postcolonial economic development efforts This book synthesizes the available research on African rivers with new evidence to offer students of African and environmental history a narrative of how people have used and engaged the continent's water resources It analyzes key themes in Africa's modern history European exploration establishment of colonial rule economic development green politics and each case study provides a lens through which to view social economic and ecological change in Africa

River Planet Martin Gibling, 2021-08-01 A comprehensive introduction to the epic geological history of the world's rivers from the first drop of rain on the Earth to the modern environmental crisis

A review of major river basins and large lakes relevant to inland fisheries Ainsworth, R., Cowx, I.G., Funge-Smith, S.J., 2021-01-21 This review presents summary information on 45 river and great lake basins of the world which support inland fisheries The information presented is drawn from published information in peer reviewed journals as well as grey literature Each basin summary is presented in a common format covering the description of the fishery estimates of catch and numbers of people engaged in the fishery important biodiversity features and threats to the fishery An analysis of the replacement costs of inland fish of the basin is also presented This is expressed in terms of the water land and greenhouse gas footprint that would arise if the inland fish that are currently produced had to be replaced with other forms of food such as aquaculture fish livestock or field crops

Water in the Middle East Karl David Hambright, F. J. Ragep, J. Ginat, 2006-01-01 Scarcity of water is a problem in many areas around the world In this sense the Middle East which suffers from frequent droughts and a shortage of potable water is not unique However when political disagreements among states combine with issues of fair and equitable access to common water resources the problems associated with water scarcity seem intractable In this sense the Middle East and particularly the Jordan River Valley is indeed unique This enlightening book brings together the insights of scholars from Israel Palestine Jordan and the United States who employ a broad range of perspectives and disciplines engineering agronomy biology economics history geography and political science to examine the significance of water in Middle East conflicts These contributors do not offer facile remedies Rather they show that any solution must be achieved within a political and social framework of peace enlightened economic policies and technical measures that take due account of environmental conditions This volume is the result of the conference Water in the Jordan Valley sponsored by the Center for Peace Studies a division of the International Programs Center at the University of Oklahoma River Culture UNESCO, UNESCO Office in Beijing, 2023-01-05 Principles of International Environmental Law Philippe Sands, Jacqueline Peel, 2012-05-03 The third edition of this classic textbook offers comprehensive and critical commentary on international environmental law It fully covers the key topics of the course and is clearly structured to include the history and framework in which international environmental law exists key areas of regulation and implementation links to other areas of law and future developments It has been updated to incorporate all the latest developments in treaty and case law Extensive feedback on previous editions results in a restructuring of material including a new part focused on linkage to other areas of international law including human rights international trade and foreign investment There is also a new chapter on future developments charting the directions in which the subject is moving Specialist authors writing on oceans seas and fisheries and biodiversity add to the expertise of the two principal authors for an authoritative overview of the subject Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2013 Official Catalogue of the Great Exhibition of the Works of Industry of All Nations, 1851 Robert Ellis (F.
