Robber Bride Canadian 1st Edition:

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1929 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1901 Contemporary Canadian Women's Fiction C. Howells,2003-08-22 This book charts the significant changes in contemporary Canada's literary profile since the mid 1990s within a context of the new national rhetoric of multiculturalism By looking closely at a representative range of fictions in English by women from a variety of ethnocultural backgrounds Howells examines the complexities embedded within Canadian identity What does Refiguring Identities mean for these writers given their individual agendas and the multiple affiliation of any woman's identity construction All these writers are engaged in rewriting history across generation and Howells argues that woman's fiction negotiates new possibilities for cultural change introducing more heterogeneous narratives of identity in multi cultural Canada The Settlers in Canada ... New Edition, with Illustrations by Gilbert and Dalziel Frederick Marryat,1869

Writing with Intent Margaret Atwood,2009-04-21 From one of the world's most passionately engaged and acclaimed literary citizens comes Writing with Intent the largest collection to date of Margaret Atwood's nonfiction ranging from 1983 to 2005 Composed of autobiographical essays cultural commentary book reviews and introductory pieces to great works of literature this is the award winning author's first book length nonfiction publication in twenty years Arranged chronologically these writings display the development of Atwood's worldview as the world around her changes Included are the Booker Prize winning author's reviews of books by John Updike Italo Calvino Toni Morrison and others as well as essays in which she remembers herself reading Virginia Woolf's To the Lighthouse at age nineteen and discusses the influence of George Orwell's 1984 on the writing of The Handmaid's Tale Atwood's New York Times Book Review piece that helped make Orhan Pamuk's Snow a bestseller can be found here as well as a look back on a family trip to Afghanistan just before the Soviet invasion and her Letter to America written after September 11 2001 The insightful and memorable pieces in this book serve as a testament to Atwood's career reminding readers why she is one of the most esteemed writers of our time The Prestige of Violence Sally Bachner,2011 In The Prestige of Violence Sally Bachner argues that starting in the 1960s American fiction laid claim to the status of serious literature by placing violence at the heart of its mission and then insisting that this violence could not be represented Bachner demonstrates how many of the most influential novels of this period are united by the dramatic opposition they draw between a debased and untrustworthy conventional language on the one hand and a violence that appears to be prelinguistic and unquestionable on the other Genocide terrorism war torture slavery rape and murder are major themes yet the writers insist that such events are unspeakable Bachner takes issue with the claim made within trauma studies that history is the site of violent trauma inaccessible to ordinary representation Instead she argues both trauma studies and the fiction to which it responds institutionalize an inability to address violence Examining such works as Vladimir Nabokov's Pale Fire Thomas Pynchon's The Crying of Lot 49 Norman Mailer's Armies of the Night Margaret Atwood's

Surfacing and Philip Roth's The Plot Against America Bachner locates the postwar prestige of violence in the disjunction between the privileged security of wealthier Americans and the violence perpetrated by the United States abroad The literary investment in unspeakable and often immaterial violence emerges in Bachner's readings as a complex and ideologically varied literary solution to the political geography of violence in our time
