Howard Letter, to Mr. Petaja, 1935 July 23*, 1935 Typed letter signed responding to a letter in which Emil Petaja presumably asked for Howard's opinion on his recently published poem Witches Bercuese sic and made an inquiry about authorship of the verses Howard uses for his chapter headings Howard apologizes for his delay in responding which he explains was due mainly to travels He praises Petaja's poem and anticipates reading Antique a short story of his soon to be published Robert E. Howard Leon Nielsen, 2007 Robert E Howard is among a select group of now revered writers who published primarily in pulp magazines His suicide at the age of 30 cut short his productive career during which he created memorable characters like Conan of Cimmeria for such magazines as Weird Tales and Action Stories. Pulps continued publishing Howard material posthumously and his first hardcover book appeared in 1937 a year after his death. That book A Gent from Bear Creek is considered the holy grail of Howard collectors; only seven original copies are known to exist. With the dust jacket the book's value is estimated at 30,000. This guide is an invaluable resource for Howard collectors with information for every known published work. Initial chapters provide a biography, discuss Howard's literary legacy, and give basic tips about book collecting, grading, buying, and selling. The main body of the work is a bibliography of Howard's published works from 1925 through 2004. Each entry includes a description and known details including publisher, date, print run, and estimated value. A thorough index locates the publication of every Howard story or poem.
