ROMANCING THE CATHEDRAL

Gothic Architecture in
Fin-de-Siècle French Culture

ELIZABETH EMERY

Romancing the Cathedral explores the late-nineteenth-century French passion for Gothic architecture, particularly the cathedral. Though maligned in the seven-teenth and eighteenth centuries and vandalized during the French Revolution, by World War I the cathedral was considered "the genius of the French nation," a privileged and patriotic work of art that surpassed such other national artworks as Wagner's operas and the Parthenon. However, the moment at which the Gothic style finally reached near-universal acclaim in France also coincided with one of the most anti-clerical periods of French history, the years surrounding the separation of church and state.

Taking this contradiction as a starting point, Elizabeth Emery explores how the cathedral's popularity stemmed from its semantic richness as well as its glorification in the works of such writers and artists as Emile Zola, J.-K. Huysmans, Marcel Proust, Paul Claudel, Claude Monet, Auguste Rodin, and others. Using their works as a springboard, Emery examines the ways in which they responded and contributed to prevailing discourses about the cathedral. Interdisciplinary in nature, Romancing the Cathedral will appeal to those interested in Gothic art and architecture, European cultural studies, medievalism, and French literature.

"Emery successfully straddles both an academic and a more broad-based audience with an interest in French literature, history, or medievalism. Her style is accessible and the product of insightful, complex scholarship. Fin-de-siècle medievalism is a sadly understudied field. While scholars have taken on some of the themes that Emery charts in regard to individual authors and artists, none look comprehensively at the very prominent image of the cathedral in fin-de-siècle French culture."

—Laura Morowitz, coeditor of *Artistic Brotherhoods
in the Nineteenth Century*

Elizabeth Emery is Assistant Professor in the Department of French, German, and Russian at Montclair State University.

Romancing the Cathedral Elizabeth Emery, 2001-09-20 Through an analysis of political art historical and literary discourse this book considers French fascination with the Gothic cathedral Romancing the Cathedral Elizabeth Emery, 2001-09-27 Through an analysis of political art historical and literary discourse this book considers French fascination with the Gothic cathedral The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity. Jan M.

Ziolkowski, 2018-07-24 This ambitious and vivid study in six volumes explores the journey of a single electrifying story from its first incarnation in a medieval French poem through its prolific rebirth in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Juggler of Notre Dame tells how an entertainer abandons the world to join a monastery but is suspected of blasphemy after dancing his devotion before a statue of the Madonna in the crypt he is saved when the statue delighted by his skill miraculously comes to life Jan Ziolkowski tracks the poem from its medieval roots to its rediscovery in late nineteenth century Paris before its translation into English in Britain and the United States The visual influence of the tale on Gothic revivalism and vice versa in America is carefully documented with lavish and inventive illustrations and Ziolkowski concludes with an examination of the explosion of interest in The Juggler of Notre Dame in the twentieth century and its place in mass culture today Volume 2 Medieval Meets Medievalism deals with the influence of the tale in nineteenth and early twentieth century Europe and America and the development of literary medievalism at this time The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity is a rich case study for the reception of the Middle Ages in modernity Spanning centuries and continents the medieval period is understood through the lens of its post modern reception in Europe and America Profound connections between the verbal and the visual are illustrated by a rich trove of images including book illustrations stained glass postage stamps architecture and Christmas cards Presented with great clarity and simplicity Ziolkowski's work is accessible to the general reader while its many new discoveries will be valuable to academics in such fields and disciplines as medieval studies medievalism philology literary history art history folklore performance studies and reception studies

Financing Cathedral Building in the Middle Ages Wim Vroom, 2025-10-01 This first comprehensive overview of the process of commissioning and financing the construction of cathedrals in the Middle Ages reveals a financing system almost as monumental as the cathedrals themselves Here we follow the historian on a fascinating examination of construction accounts and other sources extant but never so minutely explored bringing the bishop and the chapter to account as it were The book is divided into two parts The first gives a broad overview of the resources on which medieval commissioners could draw including contributions from the bishop chapter sovereign city and above all the faithful of the diocese in which the cathedral was erected The second part is a case study of the financing of construction at Utrecht Cathedral whose archives are among the best preserved in Europe followed by a brief discussion of the financing of several other cathedral building projects throughout Europe and of the church of St Peter's in Rome Monument, Moment, and Memory Ronald R.

Bernier,2007 By the end of the nineteenth century a mode of painting captured instantaneity had come to be seen as an appropriate and characteristically Impressionist means of depicting its subject when that subject was understood to be our variable perception in nature In May of 1895 however capriciously it seemed to some to the facade of a Gothic cathedral Struck by the curious choice a medieval monument as subject matter critics used to about instantaneity continued to lay emphasis on a theme of temporality and this was addressed in two but related ways First there was the matter of perception the temporality that is involved in engaging visually with near impenetrable surfaces of individual canvases The Dream Émile Zola,2018-09-20 Is it wrong to love whatever is beautiful and rich I love it precisely because it is beautiful because it is rich because I think it brings joy to my heart On Christmas day in the flurry of a snow storm the Huberts discover a ragged nine year old girl sheltering under the neighbouring cathedral porch Childless and pious the couple take in and raise Angelique as their own The girl is intensely passionate and given to rage and disobedience as well as love and religious fervour Inspired by The Golden Legend Angelique creates a dream world all of her own peopled with spirits As part of her dream vision she becomes convinced she will marry a rich and handsome young prince Her wish seemingly comes true when she falls in love with a lord s son The sixteenth novel in the Rougon Macquart series The Dream marks a departure by Zola from the conventions of realism Here Zola explores the persistence of mysticism but also blends elements of fairy tale with the naturalist techniques for which he had become known This edition contains a wide ranging introduction placing Zola s changing concerns in the context of his wider work and illuminates key themes in the novel such as architecture heraldry and the lives of the saints Medievalism David Matthews,2015 An accessibly written survey of the origins and growth of the discipline of medievalism studies The field known as medievalism studies concerns the life of the Middle Ages after the Middle Ages Originating some thirty years ago it examines reinventions and reworkings of the medieval from the Reformation to postmodernity from Bale and Leland to HBO s Game of Thrones But what exactly is it An offshoot of medieval studies A version of reception studies Or a new form of cultural studies Can such a diverse field claim coherence Should it be housed in departments of English or History or should it always be interdisciplinary In responding to such questions the author traces the history of medievalism from its earliest appearances in the sixteenth century to the present day across a range of examples drawn from the spheres of literature art architecture music and more He identifies two major modes the grotesque and the romantic and focuses on key phases of the development of medievalism in Europe the Reformation the late eighteenth century and above all the period between 1815 and 1850 which he argues represents the zenith of medievalist cultural production He also contends that the 1840s were medievalism s one moment of canonicity in several European cultures at once After that medievalism became a minority form rarely marked with cultural prestige though always pervasive and influential Medievalism a Critical History scrutinises several key categories space time and selfhood and traces the impact of medievalism on each It will be the essential guide to a complex and still evolving field of inquiry David
