Search For Our Beginning:

In the Beginning: Hijacking of the Religion of God Sami M. El-Soudani, 2009-01-05 Preface It was shortly after I had graduated from the University of Cambridge in 1980 with a PhD Degree specializing in fracture mechanics and failure analysis of materials and structures that I discovered the dire need for this book This undertaking began to take shape in the early 1980s with the Middle East aflame devastated by what some viewed as a holy war and with millennialists prophesying the end of days by the year 2000 C E After publishing and co authoring 87 scientific and industrial reports and technical papers many of which were in national and international magazines on the subject of failure analysis of metals and fracture mechanics of aircraft structures I came to realize that consequences of failures of the human spirit are far more devastating than failures of metals and aircraft structures But now at the outset of the 21st century the world is still experiencing turmoil and devastation by wars spreading like wildfire with Jews Christians and Moslems at each other s throats in seemingly never ending battles and ugly strife Some call it war on terror others speak of wars of clashing cultures crusades jihad etc etc etc One cant help but wonder how this saga of 99% misery and 1% heroism will ever come to an end Only the gullible would attempt to explain the ongoing world conflict among People of the Book Jews Christians and Moslems based on the course of events during the past few years or even the past few decades This is where this book comes in with a rigorous rationalized and hopefully convincing critical assessment of a never before explored most innate aspect of the human nature and that is its obsession with hijacking of the religion of God For better understanding of the root cause of the ongoing conflict among People of the Book who are supposed to be worshipping the same God we need to take a step back take a deep breath and reflect rationally while ignoring all rhetoric and emotional bias in researching the past three thousand years of religious history And this is exactly what I did in writing this three volume book More specifically this book is addressing the religion of God to whom every human being from among the so called People of the Book today turns in prayer Whether soldiers or civilians when they are caught in the midst of the ongoing grisly and devastating wars some would pray to Yahweh others call upon Jesus Christ while Moslem brethren whisper the name of Allah upon taking their last breath Who is that God And why is He so shrouded with mystery Is He truly One and the Same God for all these people Or are we suffering from some self delusions and possibly hallucinations that may be the senseless products of our ancient religious fabrications and mythmaking Going back in time three thousand years brings us to one very special night when God was said to have come down in person onto Mount Sinai to have a close encounter with human beings through direct speech This three volume book examines the course of religious events from that magic and apocalyptic moment onwards till this day It took me twenty years of research to show that men who practiced hijacking long before they had wings have been quite active over the past three thousand years engaging in the lucrative business of hijacking the religion of God All three religious persuasions Judaism Christianity and Islam suffered the dire consequences of miserably failing to heed the words of our Merciful and

Patient God No irony intended here in calling it a business and indeed a lucrative one because it brings the hijackers power enormous wealth and often glory all of which in the sight of God translate respectively into arrogance greed and most certainly infamy In developing the extensive critical review of religion presented herein detailing the respective histories of the selected three religious persuasions Jud

The Beginning and the End of 'Religion' Nicholas Lash,1996-06-28 The common view that religion is something quite separate from politics art science law and economics is one that is peculiar to modern Western culture In this book Professor Lash argues that we should begin to question seriously that viewpoint the modern world is ending and we are now in a position to discover new forms of ancient wisdom which have been obscured from view These essays explore this idea in a number of directions examining the dialogue between theology and science the secularity of Western culture and questions of Christian hope Part One examines the dialogue between Christianity and Hinduism while Part Two considers the relations between theology and science the secularity of Western culture and questions of Christian hope or eschatology

In the Beginning Were Stories, Not Texts C S Song,2012-08-30 According to Song the Christian faith is deeply rooted in storytelling stories are the most basic mode of human communication and in the same idea the Christian Bible is fundamentally a story Though Song regrets the fact that Christians and above all Christian theologians so often fail to express their faith in term of stories Christian theology is most often expressed in terms of concepts ideas and systems Following the conviction that this is the most appropriate way to express our faith the proposal of this book is to speak of Christian faith and theology through stories rather than systems and texts

Before the Beginning, During the Middle, After the End Lucian Krukowski,2014-08-14 The divisions that mark my subject are three The first is that point where the world begins where it appears from out of the mystery of non being The second lies somewhere between its progeny and its future the times between beginnings and ends where we the beneficiaries of our being here come together to sing a celebration of the wonder that it happened at all and then intone the fear of its ending The third division is a speculation on ends our own and the ending of the world I use these divisions to locate a something that comes from nothing onto a historical tradition that imposes a value on the progression of that something and so requires a judgment on all that has passed I first discuss these through religious attempts to invest life and history with purpose for they form the major explanatory traditions of Western culture and are a thematic source of much of its greatest art I continue with an art critical approach where themes of process and purpose are located in artworks through their stylistic histories and ambitions I indicate how present art when open to reconstitute such themes could change the nature of today's efforts to give art polemical purposes and so provide new reasons for its making I conclude with some stories unevenly biographical partly fictional which I offer as parables for the developed themes and their transformations This last aim is to elucidate a view of art as providing specific symbols for a cosmology of beginning living and ending Kierkegaard as
