Dialogues with Degas Kathryn Brown, 2023-12-14
Dialogues with Degas demonstrates the ongoing relevance of Edgar Degas to 20th and 21st century ideas and art practices The first in depth examination of this major artist s impact on contemporary art this book explores how contemporary practitioners have used Degas s creativity as a springboard to engage imaginatively and critically with themes of colonialism gender race and class Individual chapters are devoted to dialogues between Degas s art and works produced by Frank Auerbach Cecily Brown Xinyi Cheng Ryan Gander Maggi Hambling Damien Hirst Howard Hodgkin Chantal Joffe Leon Kossoff R B Kitaj Juan Mu oz Paula Rego Jenny Saville Yinka Shonibare Cy Twombly and Rebecca Warren Through close analyses of selected paintings drawings prints and sculptures Kathryn Brown explores how Degas s technical and compositional experiments have been extended or challenged in innovative ways By experimenting with the materials and methods of existing works contemporary artists generate visual palimpsests that make new demands of the viewer and prompt a reconsideration of ideas that have informed histories of 19th century French art The book overturns familiar conceptions of influence by eschewing a genealogical approach and prioritizing instead the analysis of non linear encounters between artworks This encourages a new conception of the agency of visual artefacts and of the conversations they are capable of entertaining with each other While this study sheds new light on Degas s art and that of his interlocutors it also has methodological significance for the writing of art history
Saul Steinberg's Literary Journeys Jessica R. Feldman, 2021-02-16
Saul Steinberg s inimitable drawings paintings and assemblages enriched the New Yorker gallery and museum shows and his own books for more than half a century Although the literary qualities of Steinberg s work have often been noted in passing critics and art historians have yet to fathom the specific ways in which Steinberg meant drawing not merely to resemble writing but to be itself a type of literary writing Jessica R Feldman s Saul Steinberg s Literary Journeys the first book length critical study of Steinberg s art and its relation to literature explores his complex literary roots particularly his affinities with modernist aesthetics and iconography The Steinberg who emerges is an artist of far greater depth than has been previously recognized Feldman begins her study with a consideration of Steinberg as a reader and writer including a survey of his personal library She explores the practice of modernist parody as the strongest affinity between Steinberg and the two authors he repeatedly claimed as his teachers Vladimir Nabokov and James Joyce Studying Steinberg s art in tandem with readings of selected works by Nabokov and Joyce Feldman explores fascinating bonds between Steinberg and these writers from their tastes for parody and popular culture to their status as mythmakers migr s and perpetual wanderers Further Feldman relates Steinberg s uniquely literary art to a host of other authors including Rimbaud Baudelaire Flaubert Gogol Tolstoy and Defoe Generously illustrated with the artist s work and drawing on invaluable archival material from the Saul Steinberg Foundation this innovative fusion of literary history and art history allows us to see anew Steinberg's art narrative are considered in context These are taken from the early fourteenth century Duccio and Giotto to the twentieth and twenty first centuries Max Beckmann and the contemporary Icon writer Constantina Wood A sense of the loss experienced by the western church under the sanctions of the Protestant Reformation against visual imagery is conveyed This leads to a suggestion that a reassertion of the role of the aesthetics of Christian worship might be a unifying factor for a generation jaded by the pedantry that divides the Christian Church

Dialogue and Difference Peter Brooker, Peter Humm, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 Modes and categories inherited from the past no longer seem to fit the reality experienced by a new generation New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change to stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study This selection of essays is an attempt to open up some of the as yet unsurveyed territory of English Studies and to introduce a new more positive tone and greater range of voices to discussions of the future of the subject

Intermedial Dialogues Marion Schmid, 2019-05-23 Casting fresh light on one of the most important movements in film history Intermedial Dialogues The French New Wave and the Other Arts is the first comprehensive study of the New Wave's relationship with the older arts Traversing the fields of literature theatre painting architecture and photography and drawing on Andre Bazin alongside recent theories of intermediality it investigates the impure intermedial aesthetics of New Wave cinema Filmmakers under discussion include critics turned directors Francois Truffaut Eric Rohmer Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol members of the Left Bank Group Alain Resnais Agnes Varda and Chris Marker but also lesser known directors notably the secret child of the New Wave Guy Gilles This wide ranging book offers an original reading of the complex often ambivalent ways in which the New Wave engages the other arts in both its discursive construction and filmic practice

Key Features A wide ranging study which explores the complex often ambiguous ways in which the New Wave engages with the other arts in both its discursive construction and cinematic practice Affords a new prism for understanding New Wave filmmaking and its legacy through comprehensive analysis of the ways in which the New Wave aesthetic was shaped through intermedial dialogue and medium rivalry Reassesses one of the most acclaimed movements in film history drawing on cutting edge theory in the prominent field of intermediality studies Offers an inclusive heterogeneous view of the New Wave through inclusion of lesser known directors such as Guy Gilles Jean Daniel Pollet and Jacques Demy alongside renowned Nouvelle Vague filmmakers

International Relations and Heritage Rodrigo Christofolletti, Maria Leonor Botelho, 2021-08-30 Patchwork in times of plurality encompasses the multitude of actions as a revealing symbol of ethos actors organisms and manifestations of preservation and dialogue frontiers This plural metaphor almost like a patchwork aggregates and yet segregates conforms but disfigures and boosts the meanings which represent this new field that international relations have been recently crossing Just like the mirror metaphor that reflects everything to all and sometimes intervenes in distortions the patchwork analogy allowed the book to take responsibility for the disclosure of preservation actions on a global scale The book has a pioneering role insofar since it is the only publication with such characteristics concerns and coverage The work studies the interconnection between cultural properties and international relations by understanding them as a mosaic before the bridges that intertwine people and borders The main goal of this work is to illustrate in what way intergovernmental relations have been privileging heritage and culture as acting fields for its broader needs Therefore the book addresses topics related to the international agenda focusing on its less debated themes Two examples of these undervalued matters are the link between actors preservationist actions and the universe of world cultural heritage The book also pursues a critical dialogue between interdisciplinary fields that narrow heritage frontiers in search to contribute with a spectrum of academic perspectives and international study cases To serve distinct economic social or political purposes institutionalized heritage embodied by different values becomes instrumentalized in a top down direction In a development frame when we perceive culture as indispensable to human life the past is transformed into exchange currency Through the creation of alternative fields of action usually in a bottom up logic the present builds new heritage connections Digital heritage's preservation dissemination and appreciation have been representing these same nets
