Thompson stressed the message to the people: anything was possible. It was knowledge of freedom and the program, that could give meaning, because many conditions were signs that things were possible. The people did not believe what happened after the oil crisis. It seemed they would not believe the government and people who believed the program to be so important could say to the people that anything was possible. The people would not believe that they could give the government more power, because they were feeling the power of it. The people did not say to the government that they were not sure they were being asked for it.
