Botsotso 17: Fiction, Poetry, Art Work, Essays, Reviews Kolski Horwitz,ka Ngwenya,2016-12-29 The Botsotso literary journal started in 1996 as a monthly 4 page insert in the New Nation an independent anti apartheid South African weekly and reached over 80 000 people at a time largely politisized black workers and youth with a selection of poems short stories and short essays that reflected the deep changes taking place in the country at that time Since the closure of the New Nation in 1999 the journal has evolved into a stand alone compilation featuring the same mix of genres and with the addition of photo essays and reviews The Botsotso editorial policy remains committed to creating a mix of voices which highlight the diverse spectrum of South African identities and languages particularly those that are dedicated to radical expression and examinations of South Africa s complex society Botsotso 17 reflects the depth and creative range of the South African cultural and emotional environment as well as the broader social currents in which they were spawned and that the coexisting phenomena of love and violence alienation and precious comings together mingle to create a unique if familiar panorama as streams of words reveal the inner meanings of so many different lives

Mother Teresa: The Irish Connection John Scally,2016-05-10 Mother Teresa of Calcutta was a twentieth century icon a living example of the power of love She is now on the fast track to sainthood This book marks the 100th anniversary of her birth on August 26th 1910 Irish people feel a special affinity with this tiny Albanian nun but it is often forgotten that the order she chose to join was an Irish one the Loreto Sisters and she spent time as a novice in Dublin Her ties with Ireland remained strong She returned many times was given the Freedom of Dublin City in 1993 and at the height of The Troubles in 1971 sent a group of Sisters armed just with bedrolls and a violin to Belfast to help in whatever little way they could John Scally has drawn together the strands of these connections speaking to many well known Irish people about their encounters with Mother Teresa and her abiding influence on their lives However the heart of this extraordinary book is the author s never before published interview with Mother Teresa in which she revealed her love for Ireland and her wishes for peace on this island

LOVER OF PREVIOUS BIRTH shyam rathore,2014-05 This is a unique emotional romantic love story of an orphan boy and three girls One is his classmate and another is his fianc e the third is his lover of previous birth This is a story about how they pass student life with friends An orphan boy adopted by rich Indian culture family His fianc wait for him but he loves his lover A poor student becomes a great singer and finally he meet Jaya khan who is lover of previous birth You can learn from this book the following How we should live this life under morality Without aim life is useless Internal joy is better than physical enjoyment which god has granted Behave with others as we would like others to do with us Successful life totally depend on only good thought Meditation is medicine of all disease A poor life is better than a luxurious life if we don t have good honour good thought and good manner How we can have an attitude that would impress everyone This story is of an orphan boy who honestly pays his duty for his family and beloved He does a lot of effort in student life He searches for a job and starts his life His lover belongs to other religion family even she recognized her love in this birth But his classmate Lalita comes in between their love     The End of the House of Alard Sheila Kaye-Smith,2022-02-25 The Catholic University of America Press is pleased to present the second volume in our Catholic Women Writers series which will attempt to bring new attention to prose work of Catholic women writers from the 19th and 20th centuries Sheila Kaye Smith was a best selling author who had published over 50 books in her lifetime few of which remain in print since her death in 1956 The End of the House of Alard 1922 documents the choices made by the final generation of the aristocratic Alard family and the ways in which they both willingly and reluctantly bring the long line of their ancestral blood to a complete and sudden end For some of them the end of the Alard line is as painful to enact as it is for others to witness for others it is welcomed as a necessary modernization or a true realignment toward religious integrity and universal human truth Some of the family s children yearn for individual liberty others have it forced upon them But none of them can find it under the burden of the Alard name and its crumbling estate The End of the House of Alard is a novel about the human need for purpose for a truth by which to live and for which to die It is a novel about faith and idolatry love and death freedom and bondage nature and grace Put another way it is about how human beings cannot escape the great challenge of salvation of breaking free from false man made gods in order to unite instead with the divine love of Christ The novel s characters span a breadth of options on this spectrum and their various outlooks on life continue to reflect those available to us today
