From the City, From the Plough Alexander Baron, Alan Jeffreys, 2019-05-09 January 1944 the south coast of England The Fifth Battalion Wessex Regiment wait patiently and nervously for the order to embark There is boredom and fear comedy and pathos as the men all drawn from different walk of life await their order to move With an economy of language that belies its emotional impact From the City From the Plough is a vivid and moving account of the fate of these men as they embark for Normandy and advance into France where the battalion suffers devastating casualties Calendar of Letters from the Mayor and Corporation of the City of London City of London (England). Corporation, 1885 Love Letter to Ramah Tim Amsden, 2024-09-01 In 1998 Tim and Lucia Amsden left their familiar lives in Kansas City and moved to the Ramah Valley in northwestern New Mexico Love Letter to Ramah recounts their two decades of experiences there nestled among an eclectic and diverse community of loving earth rooted people It is also an evocation of the rich human and natural history permeating the area and the importance central to the traditional beliefs of Indigenous people of living in concert with the living earth They built their house a few miles outside the tiny town of Ramah an area where Mormons farm old Spanish missions hunker above the bones of ancient peoples and Native cultures abound Beside the town runs New Mexico Highway 53 a two lane road that meanders southwest from Grants to the Arizona border tracing an ancient trade and exploration route that has existed for more than a thousand years Much of New Mexico carries a strong sense of place and that s especially true in the Ramah area where the rich cultural tapestry the geology and natural history and the sky and brilliant night stars all give the land a deep and abiding energy Many traditional Native American belief systems recognize the spiritual life of all things in the land of the Pueblos and the Navajo it s easy to believe Living in that place and within that community gave Tim and Lucia a profound and visceral understanding of our need to move the fragile blue marble of our earth back into balance Just as important it enhanced their awareness that we must shift ourselves into acknowledgment of and respect for our global community It also gave them a firm belief that those things are indeed possible The Sporting Library of Mr. William Brewster of New York City ,1921
