Why We Need Love and Relationship Anthony Ekanem, 2016-08-03 Man and woman were created to be physically attracted to each other irrespective of their looks stature colour or other qualities that differentiate one person from another What causes attraction between the opposite sex is built in man and woman from creation This is why couples fall in love with each other and later get married just as it was intended by God the Creator However many couples fall in love marry and assume that the job is completed They believe that everything else will work out automatically This is far from the truth A successful relationship does not come by chance It has to be worked for in love by the couples concerned The cure for all the ills and wrongs the cares the sorrow and the crimes of humanity all lies in one word love It is the divine vitality that everywhere produces and restores life To each and every one of us it gives the power of working miracles if we will When love fails relationships fall into ruins and impossible frustrations deluge those involved and those around them Such emotional pressure may result in juvenile delinquency adult crime alcoholism and various forms of drug addiction You need to love your spouse It is love that spins the universe and when we fail to use love properly all of life suffers The truth is that we all need love in huge quantities Love is the single most important force contributing to our total well being With love in your relationship you can forge ahead through life s most bitter moments and also withstand insults and cruelty A word of caution is necessary here Do not expect unconditional love from your spouse all the time This is humanly impossible You must recognize that your spouse demands a certain standard of behaviour from you before he or she will be able to love you more

To Love and Let Go Rachel Brathen,2019-09-17 Rachel beautifully illustrates that loving fiercely and grieving deeply are often two halves of the same whole Her story will break you down and lift you up Glennon Doyle author of the 1 New York Times bestseller Love Warrior and founder of Together Rising While on her way to teach a yoga retreat in March 2014 Rachel Brathen collapses at an airport brought to her knees by excruciating stomach pains She is rushed to the hospital on the tiny island of Bonaire and hours later forced to undergo surgery When she wakes up from anesthesia her boyfriend is weeping at her bedside While Rachel was struck down with seemingly mysterious pain her best friend Andrea sustained fatal injuries as a result of a car accident Rachel and Andrea had a magical friendship Though they looked nothing alike one girl tall blond and Swedish the other short brunette and Colombian everyone called them gemelas twins Over the three years following Andrea s death at what might appear from the outside to be the happiest time with her engagement to the man she loves and a blossoming career that takes her all over the world Rachel faces a series of trials that have the potential to define her life Unresolved grief and trauma from her childhood make the weight of her sadness unbearable At each turn she is confronted again and again with a choice Will she lose it all succumb to grief and grasp for control that s beyond her reach Or can she move through the loss and let go When Rachel and her husband conceive a child pregnancy becomes a time to heal and an opportunity to be reborn herself As she recounts this transformative period Rachel shares her hard won wisdom about life and death love and fear what it means to be a mother and a daughter and how to become someone who walks through the fire of adversity with the never ending practice of loving hard and letting go

Intimate Violence David Greven, 2017-02-13 Intimate Violence explores the consistent cold war in Hitchcock s films between his heterosexual heroines and his queer characters usually though not always male Decentering the authority of the male hero Hitchcock s films allow his female and queer characters to vie for narrative power often in conflict with one another These conflicts eerily echo the tense standoff between feminism and queer theory From a reparative psychoanalytic perspective David Greven merges queer and feminist approaches to Hitchcock Using the theories of Melanie Klein Greven argues that Hitchcock s work thematizes a constant battle between desires to injure and to repair the loved object Greven develops a theory of sexual hegemony The feminine versus the queer conflict as he calls it in Hitchcock films illuminates the shared but rivalrous struggles for autonomy and visibility on the part of female and queer subjects The heroine is vulnerable to misogyny but she often gains an access to agency that the queer subject longs for mistaking her partial autonomy for social power Hitchcock's queer personae however wield a seductive power over his heterosexual subjects having access to illusion and masquerade that the knowledge seeking heroine must destroy Freud's theory of paranoia understood as a tool for the dissection of cultural homophobia illuminates the feminine versus the queer conflict the female subject position and the consistent forms of homoerotic antagonism in the Hitchcock film Through close readings of such key Hitchcock works as North by Northwest Psycho Strangers on a Train Spellbound Rope Marnie and The Birds Greven explores the ongoing conflicts between the heroine and queer subjects and the simultaneous allure and horror of same sex relationships in the director's films
