My Mother Me:

Mother Me Zara H. Phillips, 2011 The adopted daughter of loving parents Zara Phillips nonetheless felt out of place in her family and a misfit in the world around her Although cherished by a well meaning mother and father she grew up feeling deeply insecure and alone consumed by a void she found impossible to fill Isolation led to alienation yet her talent brought her to the center of the thriving London rock n roll scene of the 1980s Her downward spiral fueled by its lifestyle Zara became lost in drugs alcohol and destructive relationships An intense search for the truth of her birth led to an awakening and successful recovery Yet it was her experience of becoming a mother that revealed what being an adopted person really meant to her For the first time she gained deep understanding and compassion for both her birth mother and her adoptive mother and was able to start the healing process The tale of Zara s search for her birth mother and her path to health is riveting as are the stories of many people sharing her past Zara s activism for adoptee rights springs from a very personal passion Mother Me is a brave and compelling memoir that illuminates the lifelong impact of adoption on every member of the adoption triad adoptee birth mother and adoptive mother as well as the families of each Me, My Mother, My Life Ayomide Adeniola, 2012 Me My Mother My life is a poetic journey through the trials of a young woman who longed to break free of the burden of an oppressive family legacy Beautifully narrated the author unblinkingly examines her life experiences telling her story in a way that only one who has deeply experienced life love and God could portray Born in London to Nigerian parents Ayomide spent her childhood and young adulthood in the country of her parent s origin where life for this young British girl was to be grabbed by both hands with spirit good humour and great resolve When she returned to England her faith in God led her on an odyssey to heal the generational issues with which she had long been faced Beyond its value as a beautifully constructed and gripping memoir this book leads the readers into their own private journey of reflection on their personal relationships containing the wisdom of emotional and spiritual healing as well as personal growth Not for the faint hearted Me My Mother My Life will deepen your understanding of life love and the value of forgiveness A well written personal tale of a woman s trials of the spirit and her passage to healing Kirkus Adeniola writes well and is a sensitive observer the trajectory of her life from her student days in Nigeria to her professional life in England is genuinely interesting Her writing is informed by her Christian faith but not in a way that puts off more secular readers BlueInk Culture clash meets generation gap in this memoir by Ayomide Adeniola Adeniola s memoir remains compelling because of the strong family bond that comes through no matter how contentious the conversation With Me My Mother My Life Adeniola uncovers the basic truth of many family arguments we wouldn t fight so much if we didn t care so deeply ForeWord Clarion What My Mother Gave Me Elizabeth Benedict, 2013-04-02 New York Times Bestseller A winning collection of essays by daughters including Elinor Lipman Margo Jefferson Jean Hanff Korelitz Lisa See and more Kirkus Reviews Each of these thirty one beautifully crafted essays Publishers Weekly is a story about a mother s gift to a daughter one that touched her taught her something or symbolized a unique bond Whether a gift was meant to keep a daughter warm instruct her in the ways of womanhood encourage her talents or just remind her of a mother's love each story gets to the heart of a relationship Rita Dove recalls the box of polish that inspired her to paint her nails in the stripes and polka dots she wears to this day Lisa See writes about the gift of writing from her mother Carolyn See Cecilia Muñoz remembers the work her mother gave her and a lifetime of family meals Judith Hillman Paterson revisits the year of sobriety her mother bequeathed to her when Paterson was nine the year before her mother died of alcoholism Abigail Pogrebin describes her middle aged bat mitzvah for which her mother provided flowers after a lifetime of guilt for skipping her daughter's religious education Margo Jefferson writes about her mother's gold dress from the posh department store where they could finally shop as black women Collectively the pieces have a force that feels as elemental as the tides outpourings of lightness and darkness love and rage joy and grief From literary prize winners bestselling authors and other celebrated women they are as varied and unexpected and eloquent and moving as mother love itself Cathleen Schine New York Times bestselling author of The Grammarians When I Am 21 Louis Mazzullo, 2014-08-21 When I Am 21 is an attempt to capture the spirit of the students with whom I worked in residential placement The student papers are filled with hope and despair sadness and happiness poignancy honesty and deep longing My hope is that this book will contribute to efforts towards working with these students to provide them with what they need a top quality education that offers academic pursuits and especially for the majority of students vocational training and interpersonal skills as essential parts of the curriculum It is impossible to look at these student wishes and not be impressed by the desire to work Work is the basis of community It involves the giving and taking essential to human transactions the fulfillment of wants and needs the reciprocity of rights and responsibilities and the culmination hopefully of an educational process that allows students to identify their interests and skills and to choose a job suitably commensurate with such page 49 I find most noteworthy those wishes that refer to personal virtues be brave will listen to still pray and those that refer to a world outside of and bigger than ourselves a world without violence peace on earth help younger children to read everyone will stop killing animals will help the needy page 146 Peer relations are generally the greatest single indicator both of social emotional health and happiness sadness for individuals throughout society Peer relations is the arena wherein questions of autonomy maturity morality virtue and interpersonal satisfaction come together Love interests encompass the spiritual the emotional and the physical page 197

The Ferrying of Dr David Livingstone from Zambia to East Africa Chengo Mulala, 2020 While this book is primarily not concerned with British imperialism or colonial history it has been written to contribute to the study and understanding of the root cause of what led to political and liberation consciousness among Africans from the 1890s 1950s In this book an African girl outlines the effects of colonialism from colonial scenarios she witnessed and stories told to her by her charismatic charming cunning hero and Victorian grandfather named Ngosa Kabaso Shompolo Mlutula who was recruited by Dr David Livingstone's entourage to help ferry the explorer's embalmed body from

Chitambo Village in Serenje district of present day Zambia where he died in May 1873 to Bagamoyo in Tanganyika present day Tanzania on the East Coast of Africa for shipment to United Kingdom on the Indian Ocean via Suez Canal and the Mediterranean Sea The author states that her grandfather was a young teenager with a relentless enduring spirit for survival It is as a result of this strong mentality in him that made him accept to undertake a six months journey of 1 500 miles on foot with other pallbearers to ensure that Dr Livingstone s body should be taken to sleep among his people She also points out that her grandfather did not meet the British explorer per say as he was already dead at the time he got recruited to undertake the great epic journey across the crocodile infested swamps and rivers while fending off dangerous animals in the thick forests of Africa to Tanganyika It is in her belief that her grandfather and Dr Livingstone may have met in spirit as porters carried Dr Livingstone s remains on their bare shoulders day and night probably whispering to him and asking for guidance whilst in despair for directions to Tanganyika Their belief in their beloved great doctor missionary and explorer whose corpse they were carrying was total and unquestionable hence in times of total danger frustration and despair his African porters called out his African petty name of Bwana Munali Big Hunter and asked his spirit to protect them until they arrived at Unyanyembe and later Bagamoyo on the Indian Ocean East Coast of Africa in October 1873 Of the three senior porters Susi Chuma and Jacob Wainwright and 79 other porters only Wainwright who was most literate was accorded the chance to escort Dr Livingstone s coffin to United Kingdom and witnessed Livingstone s funeral at Westminster Abbey on 18th April 1874 It is reported that Chuma and Susi whom Livingstone rescued from a slave trader and worked for him longest were later sent for by James Young in 1874 to visit the United Kingdom three months after the funeral mainly to assist with compiling Livingstone s last part of his expedition The remaining 79 porters who endeavored the Great Epic Journey including Mlutula were paid off and summarily dismissed by the Acting Consul at Zanzibar Captain W F Prideaux who discriminated against female porters and were not paid their final wages A warship HMS Vulture collected the corpse from Bagamoyo for delivery at Zanzibar from where the body was repacked and shipped to Aden on the first mail ship and thereafter got transferred to the P O Liner Malwa still watched over by Wainwright and from Alexandria also accompanied by Livingstone s son Tom They arrived at Southampton on 15th April 1874 The dismissed 79 unsung heroes then embarked on a disastrous torturous return journey back home without medical facilities nor equipment for navigation as they were taken away from them at Unyanyembe by Lieutenant Verney Lovett Cameron which were not returned as he continued across Africa leaving the corpse at Bagamoyo In his own words Mlutula said Most porters died on their return trek from starvation natural fatigue malaria diarrhea snake crocodile bites and occasional attacks from wild animals and villagers who mistook them for Arab slave traders However wandering through unknown territories resulted in fortune and fame to Mlutula who for example accidentally wandered off into Mulala kingdom where he met and married the chief s granddaughter Lucie Mulala Chief Mulala could not give consent to Mlutula s first proposal to his granddaughter because he considered him as a commoner a wandering traveler and foreigner known in the local dialect as abena fyalo and a man of no fixed aboard Unperturbed Mulutula returned after securing documents introducing him as a descendant of Chiefs and a son of a respected village headman Armed with those documents presents and accompanied by a number of elders as per his tribe s tradition when seeking a woman in marriage Mulutula headed back to Mulala Kingdom to officially ask for Lucie Mulala s hand in marriage traditional marriage proposal As a way to welcome Mulutula and his entourage into his royal family Chief Mulala gave his new son in law massive pieces of land It is out of his courage desire to prosper and fighting spirit that Mulutula later established Katobole village which resonates to the author s mind unspeakable memories of bravery love and true understanding of how Dr Livingstone s death resulted in a marriage that outlived the test of time bringing forth off springs who among them is the author of this book Thanks to Livingstone s Great Epic journey in our area for without his death in our country my grandfather would have never met and married grandma Princess Lucie Mulala oooooOOOOOoooo

Alone in the Classroom Elizabeth Hay,2012-08-30 In a small prairie school in 1929 Connie Flood helps a backward student Michael Graves learn how to read Observing them and darkening their lives is the principal Parley Burns whose strange behaviour culminates in an attack so disturbing its repercussions continue to the present day Connie s niece Anne tells the story Impelled by curiosity about her dynamic adventurous aunt and her more conventional mother she revisits Connie s past and her mother s broken childhood In the process she unravels the enigma of Parley Burns and the mysterious and unrelated deaths of two young girls People of the Bear Mother T. D. Austin,2012-08 The most powerful shaman of the People of the Bear Mother invites a young woman to take her soul s great adventure by painting a new piece of animal art on the walls in the deepest chambers of the awesome Great Cave The time has come for Little Bear to make the life altering choice to overcome her fear of the terrifying old shaman and in doing so unalterably change all the lives her soul will subsequently experience even as her lion eye reappears in each lifetime to identify her avatar But before she may embark on her hero s journey she must be initiated as hunter and then as Seer through trials ordeals and the revelations of her people s mythology expressed in the art of the Cave The tale builds to an unexpected climax as one soul experiences many lifetimes in a hunting culture where being born female or male homosexual or heterosexual young or old are equally valid ways of being human Inspired by the work of Joseph Campbell and the artwork of France s 35 000 yearold Chauvet Cave the novel takes a fresh look at and is a new take on the life ways and religion of our earliest ancestors through Little Bear s encounters with shamans hunters avatars and painted caves This story reveals that the spiritual messages hidden within this magnificent incredibly ancient art are the same metaphysical beliefs of the New Age and the same universal human truths at the heart of every world religion and mystical philosophy 2011 Book Competition Finalist Awards USA Best Book Awards for New Age Fiction IBA for Chick Lit Women s Fiction IBA for Gay Lesbian Fiction You Are Not Your Mother Karen C.L. No Choice Fadwa Kassis Naser,1999 No woman or man has a choice about when and where to be born In early childhood however most American girls make many choices that help to shape their lives American women and men therefore may read with compassionate wonder about Fadwa Kassis Naser who had 1 No choice concerning childhood responsibilities for a younger sister due to her mothers fragile health 2 No choice regarding when age 15 or whom a man more than twice her age she would marry 3 No choice as to when to bear children 4 No choice about living quarters for a growing family 5 No choice regarding others with whom those quarters must be shared 6 No choice in such mundane activities as shopping or such rarer events as vacations 7 No choice regarding which church to attend 8 No choice of obtaining parenting advice from her mother whose illness required long separations and ended in a premature death 9 No choice concerning entertaining guests nor packing for moves to new locations 10 No choice over her sons rejection for an educational opportunity to which he was entitled 11 No choice when dismissed from a job that she was handling well 12 No choice to return from Kuwait to her Palestinian homeland due to political conflict Intermingled with these situations she had sole responsibility for choices about 1 Believing in the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior at age 10 2 Relying upon her heavenly Father for strength and wisdom in almost every circumstance of life 3 Guiding her childrens education including getting them to and from school and financially covering their tuition costs in private schools 4 Expanding her own formal schooling and practical nursing skills surmount ing financial and transportation difficulties Although you may ache for Fadwa as you read this account of her life you will also rejoice at examples of Gods showing Himself strong on the behalf of one whose heart is devoted to Him She recognized His provision of empty boxes for a grape harvest when she was age 14 and His supplying funds for a sons education through the selfless sharing of a daughter and His enabling Fadwa to visit relatives in Germany in spite of her having no visa and

Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy Robin Zape-tah-hol-ah Minthorn,Christine A. Nelson,Heather J. Shotton,2022-08-19 Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy highlights the experiences and narratives emerging from Indigenous mothers in the academy who are negotiating their roles in multiple contexts The essays in this volume contribute to the broader higher education literature and the literature on Indigenous representation in the academy filling a longtime gap that has excluded Indigenous women scholar voices This book covers diverse topics such as the journey to motherhood lessons through motherhood acknowledging ancestors and grandparents in one s mothering how historical trauma and violence plague the past and balancing mothering through the healing process More specific to Indigenous motherhood in the academy is how culture and place impacts mothering specifically if Indigenous mothers are not in their traditional homelands as they raise their children how academia impacts mothering how mothering impacts scholarship and how to negotiate loss and other complexities between motherhood and one s role in the academy Glimpses of Oneida Life Karin Michelson,Norma Kennedy,Mercy Doxtator,2016-01-01 Glimpses of Oneida Life is a remarkable compilation of modern stories of community life at the Oneida Nation of the Thames Settlement and the surrounding area With topics ranging from work experiences and Oneida customs to pranks humorous encounters and ghost stories these fifty two unscripted narrations and conversations in Oneida represent a rare collection of first hand Iroquoian reflections on aspects of daily life and culture not found in print elsewhere Each text is presented in Oneida with both an interlinear word by word translation and a more colloquial translation in English The book also contains a grammatical sketch of the Oneida language by Karin Michelson co author of the Oneida English English Oneida Dictionary that describes how words are structured and combined into larger linguistic structures thus allowing Glimpses to be used as a teaching text as well The engrossing tales in Glimpses of Oneida Life will be a valuable resource for linguists and language learners a useful source for those studying the history and culture of Iroquois people in the twentieth century and an entertaining read for anyone interested in everyday First Nations life in southern Ontario Shelter Charlotte Ann,2020-03-23 Shelter is a true story about the experiences and changes of a woman who as a child was abandoned by both parents Through her poetry and prose it tells how later in life working to help homeless animals helps bring to surface her own hidden pain from long ago It reveals how the denials of our heart appear to shield us from hurt but in reality rob us of our full potential to find love and joy first from within then spreading out into our own lives and those around us Blackgirl on Mars Lesley-Ann Brown,2023-02-14 Blackgirl on Mars is a radical memoir that chronicles author educator and activist Lesley Ann Brown s two years worth of travel searching for home As she travels across the US during the Black Lives Matter protests and Covid 19 pandemic and then to Trinidad and Tobago to attend the funeral of her grandmother Brown tells her own life story as well as writing about race gender sexuality and education and ideas of home family and healing Both a radical political manifesto and a moving memoir about finding your place in the world Blackgirl on Mars is about what it means to be a Black and Indigenous woman in Europe and the Americas in the twenty first century The Eagle Magazine ,1925 The Friend ,1879 Hope Will Find You Naomi Levy,2010 In this moving personal work Levy tells of the painful circumstances she endured with her young daughter s illness how they grew together and ultimately how much Levy learned from her daughter s example Shattering Glass Ceilings: Christine Low,2022-03-20 The Reverend Christine Chris Low has spoken on many occasions about the testimony of her healing from multiple sclerosis and has frequently been asked to put it in writing Now she sets out to tell her story with the hope of encouraging others to step out in faith and trust to God s enabling to fulfill their God given potential Shattering Glass Ceilings presents a story of the frustrations and restrictions of gender shaped glass ceilings and how Chris saw those ceilings come crashing down one by one By God s grace she was healed of multiple sclerosis and enabled to follow his call to ordination The road was far from easy but through God s Holy Spirit and the support of many good people it became possible Along the way she learned many lessons most of all coming to trust to God s empowering and to refuse to allow the prejudices of others to determine who she was and what she could become Inspirational and biblically based this personal narrative tells one woman s story of healing and empowerment as God s grace and hand in her life made possible many great things Being Both Susan Katz Miller,2013-10-22 A book on the growing number of interfaith families raising children in two religions Susan Katz Miller grew up with a Jewish father and Christian mother and was raised Jewish Now in an interfaith marriage herself she is a leader in the growing movement of families electing to raise children in both religions rather than in one religion or the other or without religion Miller draws on original surveys and interviews with parents students teachers and clergy as well as on her own journey in chronicling this grassroots movement Being Both is a book for couples and families considering this pathway and for the clergy and extended family who want to support them Miller offers inspiration and reassurance for parents exploring the unique benefits and challenges of dual faith education and she rebuts many of the common myths about raising children with two faiths Being Both heralds a new America of inevitable racial ethnic and religious intermarriage and asks couples who choose both religions to celebrate this decision
