

TASK 1 | 3 minutes | Pairs or groups of three

Ask at least one individual question to each student and one question for students to discuss together.

INDIVIDUAL QUESTIONS:

- Would you travel to another country because of a sporting event? Why (not)?
- What was the best trip you have ever taken? What was special about it?
- Do you prefer to travel by car or by plane? Why?
- Which sports from other countries do you consider interesting? Why?

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION:

- People say big sports events are good for the host country because they attract lots of tourists. What do you think?
- On a trip, is it better to see as many places as you can or to stay longer in the same place?

TASK 2 | 3 minutes | Pairs or groups of three

Give each student a minute to describe and compare the two pictures. Then ask them to answer a question about their partners' pictures. For groups of three, use one set from Type B.

STUDENT A

Teacher: (Student A), I am going to show you two pictures in which people are doing sports. I would like you to compare them and say what it takes to do these activities.

Give Student A one minute and then ask this question to Student B.

Teacher: (Student B), which of these sports would you prefer to do? Why?

STUDENT B

Teacher: (Student B), I am going to show you two pictures in which people are enjoying their vacations. I would like you to compare them and say why you think these people have decided to spend their vacations like this.

Give Student B one minute and then ask this question to Student A.

Teacher: (Student A), how do you prefer to spend your vacation?

TASK 3 | 4 minutes | Pairs or groups of three

Ask students to discuss a question together for about two minutes. Then give them another minute to come to a conclusion about their discussion.

Teacher: Here are some reasons why people are attracted to mysteries. Talk to each other about what makes them so attractive.

After two minutes

Teacher: Thank you. Now you have a minute to decide which reason best explains why people enjoy mysteries so much.
