Over The Bar A Personal Relationship With The Gaa:

Over the Bar Breandán Ó hEithir, 1984 The GAA and Revolution in Ireland 1913-1923 Gearoid Ó Tuathaigh, 2015-10-01 The decade between the labour conflict the Lockout of 1913 and the end of the Civil War in 1923 was one of seismic upheaval How the GAA a major sporting and national body both influenced and was influenced by this upheaval is a rich and multifaceted story Leading writers in the field of modern Irish history and the history of sport explore the impact on ordinary life of major events They examine the effect of the First World War the 1916 Rising and its aftermath the emergence of nationalist Sinn Féin and its triumph over the Irish Parliamentary Party as well as the War of Independence 1919-21 and the bitter Civil War 1922-23 This is an original and engrossing perspective through the lens of a sporting organisation Contributors Eoghan Corry Mike Cronin Paul Darby Pádraic Duffy Diarmaid Ferriter Dónal McAnallen James McConnel Richard McElligott Cormac Moore Seán Moran Ross O'Carroll Gearoid Ó Tuathaigh Mark Reynolds Paul Rouse

The Little Book of GAA Facts Eddie Ryan, 2014-09-01 Did you know that in 1924 Mick Gill created history by winning two All Ireland Senior Hurling medals in the same year and for different counties Jack Lynch is the only player in GAA history to have won six successive All Ireland medals five in hurling The 2013 All Ireland Hurling Final was the first to be played under flood lights exactly 100 years after Croke Park was first purchased Do you know the name of every inter county ground in Ireland Who was full forward on the team of the Millennium Who was the 1 000th All Star Award winner In The Little Book of GAA Facts Eddie Ryan has gathered together a treasure trove of knowledge about a nation's passion The book charts the history of Gaelic games blending amazing stories and unique facts records and outstanding achievements Sport in Modern Irish Life Paul Rouse, 2023-05-03 Sport wraps itself around the emotions like bindweed The meaning of sport lies in how it makes a person feel sport which leaves you feeling nothing has no relevance So begins Sport in Modern Irish Life where leading sports historian and bestselling author Paul Rouse grapples with the concept of every individual person's relationship with sport being unique to him or herself but also intimately connected with the universal most sport is a shared experience even if not shared in precisely the same way and many other topics aside Throughout this superb collection of articles and essays Paul explores in his inimitable and always engaging style the undeniable fact that for large sections of society there is no greater pastime than the pursuit and discussion of sport in all its guises Whether it's describing an annual sports day the harrowing events of Hillsborough the intersection of sport and Irish history or the sporting idols who have left an impression upon the author no stone is left unturned in this essential addition to understanding the pivotal role of sport in life in Ireland and further afield As well as the essays and stories published here for the first time others have evolved from articles written for the Irish Examiner and pieces recorded for RTÉ's Sunday Miscellany They are the culmination of sporting experience as a player manager supporter consumer journalist and historian They are an attempt to record in the round at least some of the sheer variety of experiences available in sport And they are a reminder too that the wheel does not ever stop turning Ireland: The Autobiography John Bowman, 2016-09-15 Ireland in its own words a dazzling compendium Over the past hundred years Ireland has undergone profound political social and cultural changes But one thing that has not changed is the Irish genius for observation and storytelling invective and self scrutiny Ireland The Autobiography draws upon this genius to create a portrait of a century of Irish life through the words of the people who lived it Broadcaster and historian John Bowman has mined archives diaries and memoirs to create a remarkably varied and delightfully readable mosaic of voices and perspectives Ireland The Autobiography is a brilliantly selected wide ranging and engrossing take on the last century of Irish life It gives us a portrait of Ireland unlike anything we ve read before Absorbing and illuminating John Bowman has selected a range of accounts of Irish life that do justice to what happened what it felt like and the personal and societal experiences alongside the official version Diarmaid Ferriter Irish Times A treasure Irish Examiner A whistle stop tour of the seismic seminal and explosive events which shaped the nation as we know it Irish Independent Entertaining and informative Sunday Business Post A remarkably varied and delightfully readable mosaic of voices and perspectives Women s Way A thoughtful and eclectic collection Irish Mail on Sunday Seán MacBride, A Life Elizabeth Keane, 2007-10-16 An exceptional man an extraordinary career a life of Seán MacBride Ireland s most distinguished statesman Sean MacBride 1904 1988 was at different times the Chief of Staff of the IRA a top criminal lawyer leader of Clann na Poblachta Irish Foreign Minister UN Commissioner and a founding member of Amnesty International He is the only person to have won both the Nobel Peace Prize 1974 and the Lenin Peace Prize 1977 Seán MacBride A Life by accomplished historian Elizabeth Keane is the first complete biography of this multifaceted complex and internationally renowned Irish politician From revolutionary terrorist to conservative constitutional politician to liberal elder statesman and international humanitarian Seán MacBride uncovers the political and personal story of one of twentieth century Ireland s most controversial figures Seán MacBride begins with MacBride s birth in Paris in 1904 With icons of the nationalist movement in Ireland for parents MacBride s future as a politician was fated his father John MacBride was a Boer War hero executed for his role in the Easter Rising of 1916 his mother Maud Gonne was an outspoken revolutionary and the lost love and muse of Ireland s most famous poet W B Yeats Seán MacBride then looks at MacBride s membership of the IRA which he joined as teenager He fought in both the Irish War of Independence and the Irish Civil War Seán MacBride charts his rapid rise through the ranks looking at how he became the Director of Intelligence and later Chief of Staff of the IRA before relinquishing his position and becoming a top criminal barrister MacBride entered Dáil Éireann for the first time in 1947 as the leader of Clann na Poblachta and formed the first coalition government in Irish history in 1948 Appointed Minister for External Affairs Foreign Minister Seán MacBride considers MacBride s tenure in office which included overseeing the acceptance of the European Convention on Human Rights the rejection of NATO and Ireland s exit from the Commonwealth His refusal to support fellow Clann na Poblachta TD Noel Browne s Mother and Child Scheme in the face of the opposition of the Catholic bishops led to the collapse of the coalition MacBride lost his seat in the 1957 election retired officially from Irish party politics and entered the third phase of his life international statesman and human rights activist Se n MacBride looks at the pivotal role MacBride played in European and international politics and human rights over the course of his later years including founding Amnesty International opposing apartheid in South Africa and agitating against nuclear armament Few Irish politicians have had such an impact domestically and internationally From MacBride s violent IRA beginnings to his later advocacy of peace in politics Se n MacBride A Life captures the twists and turns of a fascinating career A figure of national and international importance one of the most distinguished Irish people of the twentieth century he has found a biographer of authority and assurance in Elizabeth Keane whose survey of his life and times is astute insightful and convincing Praise for Elizabeth Keane A singular voice in Irish history The Sunday Business Post Se n MacBride A Life Table of Contents Preface Man of Destiny A Sort of Homecoming From Chief of Staff to Chief Counsel Fighting Your Battles The Harp Without the Crown Rattling the Sabre Coming out of the Cave Catholic First Irishman Second A Statesman of International Status Never Lost His Fenian FateConclusion Iceland - Ireland ,2022-02-07 Iceland and Ireland two North Atlantic islands on the periphery of Europe share a long history that reaches back to the ninth century Direct contact between the islands has ebbed and flowed like their shared Atlantic tides over the subsequent millennium with long blanks and periods of apparently very little exchange transit or contact These relational and regularly ruptured histories discontinuities and disposessions are discussed here less to cover again the well trodden ground of our national traditions Rather this volume productively illuminates how a variety of memory modes expressed in trans cultural productions and globalized genre forms such as museums cultures crime novels the lyric poem the medieval codex or historical fiction operate in multi directional ways as fluid transnational agents of change in and between the two islands At the same time there is an alertness to the ways in which physical political and linguistic isolation and exposure have also made these islands places of forgetting No Foreign Game James Quinn,2023-08-03 From its earliest days association football was seen not just as a contest between individuals and teams but also between nations and peoples The Irish national team was among the first in the world to participate in international competition in the early 1880s but not everyone accepted it as a truly national entity Sport in Ireland was disputed ground in a manner that was not the case elsewhere even the term football itself was a contested one But soccer followers generally found no contradiction between their sporting and national loyalties and the game found an important niche in Irish life supported by many leading nationalists from James Connolly to John Hume This book provides a unique window into the history of Ireland and Britain with keen insights into the making of national regional sectarian class and gender identities that crystallised around Irish soccer Taking the story from the 1870s up to the present it examines the domestic as well the international game in Ireland North and South and sets both in a richly detailed historical and cultural context It also examines the experience of Irish communities in England and Scotland and the ways in which the game affected their relationship with their host societies Carefully weaving together political social cultural and sporting history No Foreign Game tells a story not just of division and conflict but also one of solidarity and celebration and in doing so it breaks new ground in the history of Irish sport

British Voices from the Irish War of Independence 1918-1921 William Sheehan, 2005 Ireland's War of Independence generated a wealth of published material but very little from a British perspective Yet many British servicemen left accounts of their time in Ireland from 1918 to 1921 They describe military operations the IRA the Irish the actions of their own forces morale and relationships with local communities It will surprise Irish readers to learn many felt they were winning the war but victory was taken from them by British politicians agreeing to a truce and the treaty Likewise RAF operations will be news to most as will the fact that so much of the army's time was spent enjoying sporting endeavors Others were outspoken in their dislike of war and the campaign Secret contacts between the British and the IRA and the use and abuse of intelligence are described There is Brigadier Vinden's strange tale of a drinking session with Michael Collins and humour in the sending of Gaelic speaking Highlanders into a public house to eavesdrop in the belief that Sinn Féiners always spoke Irish to each other The author has gone deep into British military archives to unearth these never published accounts Supplemented with unpublished photographs from the Imperial War Museum and the Irish National Library these accounts not just from famous soldiers like Field Marshal Montgomery and General Percival form a landmark oral history told through the personal experiences of men from across the ranks

The Gaelic Athletic Association, 1884-2009 Mike Cronin, William Murphy, Paul Rouse, 2009 This book which in May 2010 won the North American Society for Sports History NASSH award for the best edited volume published in 2009 brings together some of the leading writers in the area of Irish history to assess the importance of the Gaelic Athletic Association GAA in Irish society since its founding in 1884 and it is the first key book to center on the GAA and Irish history While there has been much written about the GAA the bulk of work has concentrated on the sporting aspects of the Association the great games and famous players rather than the role that the GAA has played in wider Irish history The chapters cover a large chronological span dating back to the origins of hurling through the foundation of the GAA its role in the political life of the nation and ending with an assessment of some of the main issues facing the GAA into the twenty first century Importantly the book also offers original and insightful work on areas including the class make up of the GAA the centrality of Amateurism in the Association the role of the Irish language and the ways in which films have featured Gaelic games

100 Great GAA Moments John Scally, 2018-10-16 In its long and rich history the GAA has provided many great moments This book is a celebration of one hundred of the best of them the Thunder and Lightning Final the Polo

Grounds Final Seamus Darby's goal in 1982 the epic clashes between Dublin and Meath in 1991 Leitrim's Connacht title in 1994 Clare ending 81 years in the wilderness Wexford becoming home to the Riverdance of Sport and the GAA opening up Croke Park to other sports These moments and many more are featured in these pages Based on exclusive interviews as seen through the eyes of the key personalities who shaped them it goes behind the scenes and offers unique eyewitness accounts of the dramas on and off the pitch that captivated enthralled and occasionally infuriated the nation New light is shed on old controversies fresh insights into the players and personalities that linger long in the memory are provided and the epic contests that turned the national games into the national soap opera are recounted by the men and women who were there in the heat of the battles With all 32 counties included 100 GREAT GAA MOMENTS is a treasure trove of the incredible people and events that have made the games what they are today The Limerick Compendium Jim Kemmy,1997 Semiotics Semiotic Society of America. Meeting,1985 Radical Sisters Anne M. Valk,2024-03-18 Radical Sisters offers a fresh exploration of the ways that 1960s political movements shaped local grassroots feminism in Washington D C Rejecting notions of a universal sisterhood Anne M Valk argues that activists periodically worked to bridge differences for the sake of alleviating women's plight even while maintaining distinct political bases While most historiography on the subject tends to portray the feminist movement as deeply divided over issues of race Valk presents a more nuanced account showing feminists of various backgrounds both coming together to promote a notion of sisterhood and being deeply divided along the lines of class race and sexuality St. Jarlath's College, Tuam John Cunningham,1999 Books Ireland ,2005 Voices from Croke Park Sean Potts,2011-04-01 Voices from Croke Park charts the journeys of 12 true greats of the Gaelic games each of whom has helped shape the rich history of football and hurling These are men who pursued glory in Ireland's greatest sporting arena players whose passion and vision were embodied in their performances in their county's jersey The footballers featured are Bernard Flynn Meath Mikey Sheehy Kerry Ciarán Whelan Dublin Anthony Molloy Donegal Peter Canavan Tyrone Liam McHale Mayo and Cork footballer and hurler Jimmy Barry Murphy From hurling Eamonn O'Donoghue Cork Tony Keady Galway DJ Carey Kilkenny Gerard McGrattan Down and Michael Duignan Offaly are interviewed This collection is a celebration of their achievements in the GAA with their stories brought vividly to life by Ireland's leading sportswriters Ireland of the Welcomes ,1985
