Shipp, 2005-11-01 In this stimulating analysis Shipp provides the reader with an introduction and critique of literary rhetorical analysis as well as an in depth treatment of the triple account of Paul's Damascus Road experience in Acts Luke used the repetition of the Damascus narrative as a literary device identifying Pauline disobedience and resistance and the transformation of these characteristics With the first Damascus narrative Luke provided the reader with a paradigmatic image of resistance transformed Luke used the Damascus narratives and these themes to bracket the Paulusbild fashioning the trial narrative into an extended period of transformation of Pauline resistance Beginning in 19:21 Paul resisted the leading of the Holy Spirit and his appointed location of witness He was an intentionally forceful actor resisting God God bound this intentionally forceful actor in chains In this opening scene of the Paulusbild Luke included the second Damascus narrative 21:33-22:24a The themes emphasized in the narrative were those of Saul intentionally resisting gospel expansion and God's subsequent overcoming of Saul Saul was physically restored through Ananias but not fully transformed He is not yet an empowered and intentionally forceful witness At the end of the Paulusbild as Paul is headed to Rome Luke included the final Damascus narrative 25:23-26:32 Paul was headed to Rome but not in the freedom intended by God He remained in chains because of his own actions Thus his character was one of tension The Damascus narrative that Luke included demonstrates Saul's intentionally forceful resistance to the gospel However the vacating of power and overcoming of Saul is suppressed and the theme of the transformation of resistance to empowered witness is emphasized Nonetheless the character of Saul in the speech does not match the character of Paul in the narrative Tension remains but the projected direction of transformation is evident Paul is headed to Rome The vision of grace has effected a transformation in Saul but not yet in Paul If the trajectory of transformation continues then Paul should once again be an intentionally forceful empowered witness for the gospel when he arrives in Rome from Chapter 5      The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1968, volume 1 Witness Lee, The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1968 volume 1 contains messages given by Brother Witness Lee from January through early August 1968 Brother Lee remained in Los Angeles until the end of January after which he visited Dallas Texas Birmingham Alabama and Orlando and Miami Florida on his way to Sao Paulo Brazil He returned to Los Angeles in late February There is no record of his speaking in the cities outside Los Angeles In the middle of March Brother Lee traveled to the eastern part of the United States visiting Lubbock Texas Greensboro and High Point North Carolina Birmingham Alabama New York City and Buffalo New York Toronto Canada Minneapolis Minnesota Mansfield and Cleveland Ohio Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Indianapolis Indiana before returning to Los Angeles in the middle of May During this same trip he might also have visited Boston Massachusetts Montreal and Ottawa Canada and Louisville Kentucky The only

Overcoming Barriers to Evangelization in Japan David J. Lu, 2019-09-04. With the advent of the Reiwa era and 2020 Tokyo Olympics the world's attention is riveted on Japan's grand tradition. Yet these same traditions are the ones that are hindering our efforts for evangelization. A college student knows he will be disowned by his family if baptized and a Christian wife cannot receive baptism because of her Buddhist husband's strong opposition. How can we combat against these? There are two approaches:

1. We can condemn Japanese practices as total darkness and preach against them.
2. We can follow Paul's teaching and deem the Japanese people as worshipping an unknown god (Acts 17:22-31) and try to emphasize common grace at each turn. This book follows the second approach but provides judiciously placed caution signs. It will tell you how to engage in conversation with non-Christians while providing an insider's view of Japan's rich cultural heritage. Its main purpose is to obtain conversion among the die-hard Buddhists, Shintoists and traditionalists. When that is done God's kingdom will be enriched in a manner similar to the time when Saul of Tarsus became Paul the apostle Men in the Church Steven B. Borst,1998 Photojournalism: Beyond the Lens Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-11
