Overcoming Tradition And Modernity:

Overcoming Tradition And Modernity Robert Deemer Lee, 1997 This text examines the efforts of four Muslim writers and thinkers of the 20th century Muhammad Iqbal Sayyid Qutb Ali Shariati and Mohammed Arkounto to overcome the apparent dichotomy of tradition and modernity in fashioning a new political and cultural truth Robert D Lee illuminates the European influenced work of these thinkers to demonstrate both the appeal of authenticity as a rallying cry and the difficulty of building a new politics on such an idea Authenticity has begun to rival development as a key to understanding the political aspirations of the Islamic world Almost everywhere modernity has laid waste to tradition those habits and practices deemed to be timeless and true Imperialism carried European notions of progress into Muslim dominated parts of the globe and subsequently Muslims themselves espoused Western practices techniques and philosophies Regimes calling themselves liberal socialist and Arab nationalist all embraced modernity as their principal objective Most of these regimes failed to create the promised better lives their citizens desired Moreover ordinary Muslims felt despair as modernity ripped apart families exposed youngsters to the materialism and hedonism of Western entertainments heightened social expectations and undermined religious belief Even though tradition has proved itself incapable of staving off modernity the promises and premises of modern development literature have been called into question All four thinkers discussed believe such an authentic understanding can serve as the foundation for a new politics Lee reveals however that each of these writers version of authenticity suffers shortcomings and falters in its efforts to move from the particularity of culture onto a grander scale of political organization appropriate for the modern world Provided by publisher The Time of Turāth Harald Viersen, 2024-12-02 Recent Arab intellectual debates are often described as revolving around Arab Islamic cultural heritage tur th and the role that it ought to play in modern society This debate is standardly characterized as a confrontation between traditionalists and modernists the former idolizing an authentic heritage the latter blaming traditionalism for Arab society s inability to modernize This study argues that this standard narrative has become overly dominant making it impossible for different perspectives to be either voiced or heard It calls for a critical review of how we think about contemporary Arab thought through an analysis of the progressive linear temporal structure underlying the authenticity modernity dichotomy Looking in detail at three Arab intellectuals of the last fifty years Zak Naj b Ma m d Adonis and Abd al Ra m n h the study shows how this temporal structure underlies their thinking but also how their efforts to break away from it build on a critique of its temporal basis This analysis in turn enables an overhaul of the authenticity modernity paradigm which not only leads to a richer critical engagement with contemporary Arab thought but also brings out its moral dimensions Tradition through Modernity Pertti J. Anttonen, 2005-02-06 In their study of social practices deemed traditional scholars tend to use the concept and idea of tradition as an element of meaning in the practices under investigation But just whose meaning is it Is it a meaning generated by those who study tradition or those whose traditions are being studied In both cases particular criteria for traditionality are employed whether these are explicated or not Individuals and groups will no doubt continue to uphold their traditional practices or refer to their practices as traditional While they are in no way obliged to explicate in analytical terms their criteria for traditionality the same cannot be said for those who make the study of traditions their profession In scholarly analysis traditions need to be explained instead of used as explanations for apparent repetitions and replications or symbolic linking in social practice values history and heritage politics This book takes a closer look at tradition and folklore in order to conceptualize them within discourses on modernity and modernism The first section discusses modern and traditional as modern concepts and the study of folklore as a modern trajectory The underlying tenet here is that non modernity cannot be represented without modern mediation which therefore makes the representations of non modernity epistemologically modern The second section focuses on the nation state of Finland and the nationalistic use of folk traditions in the discursive production of Finnish modernity and its Others The insights are applicable worldwide in discussions on cultural representation

Muslims in Modern Turkey Sena Karasipahi, 2008-12-18 Modern Turkey is the site of a powerful Islamic revival with a strong intellectual elite dedicated to the overthrow of secular modernism Why have modern Muslim intellectuals turned against the ideals of Kemalism on which the modern Turkish nation state is founded What does this reveal about the future of Turkey And how are Islamic intellectuals in Turkey affected by developments in the Middle East Muslims in Modern Turkey is the first book to analyse this phenomenon tracing the evolution of Muslim intellectual thought from the 1980s to the present day It focuses on six leading Muslim thinkers Ali Bula Rasim zden ren smet zel lhan Kutluer Ersin Nazif G rdo an and Abdurrahman Dilipak who belong to a single school and share a novel understanding of Islam They act as public intellectuals who aim to reform and enlighten society by educating them and raising their awareness of Islamic values arguing not for the compatibility of Islam and European values but the fundamental superiority of Islam over secular democracy Sena Karasipahi places the Turkish experience in its broader international context and shows how Turkish Islamic intellectuals are affected by the earlier Muslim intellectuals and revivalists in the Arab world and in Turkey This important study makes connections with the Islamic revival process throughout the contemporary Middle East as well as with comparable movements in Turkey s own past making this a crucial contribution to an understanding of contemporary Islamic political thinking

The Islamic World and the West Kai Hafez, Mary Ann Kenny, 2000-01-01 The anthology is an introduction to political cultures in the Islamic world and into relations between the West and Islam It details its analysis in country studies on Algeria Iran Egypt Morocco Turkey Bosnia Israel Palestine Iraq Central Asia and Pakistan

Rethinking the Masters of Comparative Law Annelise Riles, 2001-10-08 Comparative Law is experiencing something of a renaissance as legal scholars and practitioners traditionally outside the discipline find it newly relevant in projects such as constitution and code drafting the harmonization of laws court decisions or as a tool for understanding the globalization of legal institutions On the other hand comparativists within the discipline find themselves asking questions about the identity of comparative law what it is that makes comparative law unique as a discipline what is the way forward This book designed with courses in comparative law as well as scholarly projects in mind brings a new generation of comparativists together to reflect on the character of their discipline It aims to incite curiosity and debate about contemporary issues within comparative law by bringing the discipline into conversation with debates in anthropology literary and cultural studies and critical theory The book addresses questions such as what is the disciplinary identity of comparative law how should we understand its relationship to colonialism modernism the Cold War and other wider events that have shaped its history what is its relationship to other projects of comparison in the arts social sciences and humanities and how has comparative law contributed at different times and in different parts of the world to projects of legal reform Each of the essays frames its intervention around a close reading of the life and work of one formative character in the history of the discipline Taken as a whole the book offers a fresh and sophisticated picture of the discipline and its future

Beyond Primitivism Jacob K. Olupona, 2004-02-24 What role do indigenous religions play in today's world Beyond Primitivism is a complete appraisal of indigenous religions faiths integrally connected to the cultures in which they originate as distinct from global religions of conversion as practised across America Africa Asia and the Pacific today At a time when local traditions across the world are colliding with global culture it explores the future of indigenous faiths as they encounter modernity and globalization Beyond Primitivism argues that indigenous religions are not irrelevant in modern society but are dynamic progressive forces of continuing vitality and influence Including essays on Haitian vodou Korean shamanism and the Sri Lankan Wild Man the contributors reveal the relevance of native religions to millions of believers worldwide challenging the perception that indigenous faiths are vanishing from the face of the globe

Islam's Predicament with Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 Islam's Predicament with Modernity presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at the issue of modernity from an Islamic point of view the author examines the role of culture and religion in Muslim society under conditions of globalisation and analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights He engages a number of significant studies on political Islam and draws on detailed case studies rejecting the approaches of both Orientalists and apologists and calling instead for a genuine Islamic pluralism that accepts the equality of others. Situating modernity as a Western product at the crux of his argument, he argues that a separation of religion and politics is required, which presents a challenge to the Islamic worldview. This critical analysis of value conflicts, tensions, and change in the Islamic world will be of interest to scholars and advanced students of international relations, social theory, political science, religion, Islamic studies, and Middle Eastern studies.

The Taming of Fate S. Macamo, 2017-07-05 This book is about how extreme situations appearing to have a destructive potential can actually be used to produce meaningful individual and social lives. It is about the taming of fate. This notion means and accounts for the ability of individuals and communities to rebuild their lives against all odds. The book is based on case studies that draw from theoretical insights derived from the sociology of disasters. It addresses some limitations of the sociology of risk, chief among which is the rejection of the relevance of the notion of risk to the study of technologically non-advanced societies. The book argues that this rejection has deprived the study of the human condition of an important analytical asset. The book claims that risk is a property of social action which can best be understood through the analytical scrutiny of its role in the historical constitution of social relations.

Islamism and Islam Bassam Tibi, 2012-05-22 Despite the intense media focus on Muslims and their religion since the tragedy of 9/11, few Western scholars or policymakers today have a clear idea of the distinctions between Islam and the politically based fundamentalist movement known as Islamism. In this important and illuminating book, Bassam Tibi, a senior scholar of Islamic politics, provides a corrective to this dangerous gap in our understanding. He explores the true nature of contemporary Islamism and the essential ways in which it differs from the religious faith of Islam. Drawing on research in twenty Islamic countries over three decades, Tibi describes Islamism as a political ideology based on a reinvented version of Islamic law. In separate chapters devoted to the major features of Islamism, he discusses the Islamist vision of state order, the centrality of antisemitism in Islamist ideology, Islamism's incompatibility with democracy, the reinvention of jihadism as terrorism, the invented tradition of shari'a law as constitutional order, and the Islamists' confusion of the concepts of authenticity and cultural purity. Tibi's concluding chapter applies elements of Hannah Arendt's theory to identify Islamism as a totalitarian ideology.

Contemporary Thought in the Muslim World Carool Kersten, 2019-06-17 This book presents an intellectual history of today's Muslim world, surveying contemporary Muslim thinking in its various manifestations, addressing a variety of themes that impact on the lives of present-day Muslims. Focusing on the period from roughly the late 1960s to the first decade of the twenty-first century, the book is global in its approach and offers an overview of different strands of thought and trends in the development of new ideas, distinguishing between traditional, reactionary, and progressive approaches. It presents a variety of themes and issues, including the continuing relevance of the legacy of traditional Islamic learning, as well as the use of reason, the centrality of the Qur'an, the spiritual concerns of contemporary Muslims, political thought regarding secularity, statehood, and governance, legal and ethical debates related current issues like human rights gender equality and religious plurality as well as globalization ecology and the environment bioethics and life sciences An alternative account of Islam and the Muslim world today counterbalancing narratives that emphasise politics and confrontations with the West this book is an essential resource for students and scholars of Islam The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 6, Muslims and Modernity: Culture and Society since 1800 Robert W. Hefner, 2010-11-04 Unparalleled in its range of topics and geographical scope the sixth and final volume of The New Cambridge History of Islam provides a comprehensive overview of Muslim culture and society since 1800 Robert Hefner's thought provoking account of the political and intellectual transformation of the Muslim world introduces the volume which proceeds with twenty five essays by luminaries in their fields through a broad range of topics These include developments in society and population religious thought and Islamic law Muslim views of modern politics and economics education and the arts cinema and new media The essays which highlight the diversity and richness of Islamic civilization engage with regions outside the Middle East as well as within Islam's historic heartland Narratives are clear and absorbing and will fascinate all those curious about the momentous changes that have taken place among the world's 1.4 billion Muslims in the last two centuries Islam in Global Modernity Dietrich Jung, 2023-01-01 This book combines sociological theorising with studies on the Middle East and Islam The diversity of modernities that can be observed in our world is linked to the claim of living in a global modernity in a world society The book underpins this claim with numerous excursions into Islamic history It criticises the view that modernisation can be equated with westernisation and considers different projects of specifically Islamic modernities as integral parts of world society From this perspective the study contributes to the provincialisation of European history in contemporary social scientific thought Contrary to the theories of postcolonialism associated with the call for the provincialisation of Europe however this book adheres to essential traditions of classical sociology It thus aims to make a contribution to the social theoretical discussion on modernity which is empirically underpinned with the help of data from the history of the Middle East and Islam The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content African City Textualities Ranka Primorac, 2013-09-13 The stereotype of Africa as a predominantly natural space ignores the existence of vibrant and cosmopolitan urban environments on the continent Far from merely embodying backwardness and lack African cities are sites of complex and diverse cultural productions which participate in modernity and its dynamics of global flows and exchanges This volume merges the concerns of urban literary and cultural studies by focusing on the flows and exchanges of texts and textual elements By analysing how texts such as popular and canonical fiction popular music self help pamphlets graffiti films journalistic writing rumours and urban legends engage with the problems of citizenship self organisation and survival the collection shows that despite all the problems of Africa its cities continue to engender forward looking creativity and hope The texts collected here belong to several different genres themselves and they are authored by both distinguished and younger scholars based in and outside of Africa The volume explores the textualities emerging from the cities of Senegal Nigeria Ghana Uganda Kenya Zambia Zimbabwe and South Africa Above all it calls for an end to disabling hierarchical categorisations of both texts and cities This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing

Rethinking China's Provinces John Fitzgerald, 2003-09-02 This is the third volume in a series examining the political importance of China's provinces under reform The present book provides a survey of provinces as echelons of the Peoples Republic of China It seeks to locate the province as an administrative level in the Chinese state through an examination of history economic social and political developments of these units By situating the province history this volume identifies new developments in the territorial administration of the Peoples Republic over the reform era It also charts the consequent emergence of the city as an intermediate unit situated between the province and the country and providing challenges to the hierarchy of the bureaucratic state This book includes detailed analyses of Chongqing Henan Guangdong Anhui Yunnan and Heilongjiang It contains extensively researched empirical data collected from these provinces and user friendly maps of these regions

The Sonic Episteme Robin James, 2019-12-02 In The Sonic Episteme Robin James examines how twenty first century conceptions of sound as acoustic resonance shape notions of the social world personhood and materiality in ways that support white supremacist capitalist patriarchy Drawing on fields ranging from philosophy and sound studies to black feminist studies and musicology James shows how what she calls the sonic episteme a set of sound based rules that qualitatively structure social practices in much the same way that neoliberalism uses statistics employs a politics of exception to maintain hegemonic neoliberal and biopolitical projects Where James sees the normcore averageness of Taylor Swift and Spandau Ballet as contributing to the sonic episteme's marginalization of nonnormative conceptions of gender race and personhood the black feminist political ontologies she identifies in Beyonc's and Rihanna's music challenge such marginalization In using sound to theorize political ontology subjectivity and power James argues for the further articulation of sonic practices that avoid contributing to the systemic relations of domination that biopolitical neoliberalism creates and polices

Modernity and Its Other Robert W. Sayre, 2017-12 In Modernity and Its Other Robert Woods Sayre examines eighteenth century North America through discussion of texts drawn from the period He focuses on this unique historical moment when early capitalist civilization modernity in colonial societies especially the British interacted closely with Indigenous communities the Other before the balance of power shifted definitively toward the colonizers Sayre considers a variety of French perspectives as a counterpoint to the Anglo American lens including J Hector St John de Crvecoeur and Philip Freneau as well as both Anglo American and French or French Canadian travelers in Indian territory including William Bartram Jonathan Carver John Lawson Alexander Mackenzie Baron de Lahontan Pierre Charlevoix and Jean Baptiste Trudeau Modernity and Its Other is an important addition to any North American historian's bookshelf for it brings together the social history of the European colonies and the ethnohistory of the American Indian peoples who interacted with the colonizers Mirror of Modernity Stephen Vlastos,1998-05 This collection of essays challenges the notion that Japan's present cultural identity is the simple legacy of its pre modern and insular past Scholars examine age old Japanese cultural practices and show these to be largely creations of the modern era Women and States Ann E. Towns,2010-06-03 This book examines momentous changes over the last century which have advanced women's status around the globe Covering Up Luther Rustin E. Brian,2013-03-13 Karl Barth's Christology provides a key to out narrating the Deus absconditus which as Rustin Brian contends is in fact the god of modernity Included in this is the rejection of the logical and philosophical systems that allow for the modern understanding of God as the Deus absconditus namely dialectics and nominalism This rejection is illustrated interestingly enough in Barth's decision to literally cover up with a rug Martin Luther's works in his personal library Surely this was more than a decorative touch The reading of Barth's works that results from this starting point challenges much of contemporary Barth scholarship and urges readers to reconsider Barth Through careful examination of a large body of Barth's writings particularly in regard to the issues of the knowledge or knowability of God as well as Christology Brian argues that contemporary Barth scholarship should be done in careful conversation with the finest examples of both Protestant and especially Roman Catholic theology Barth's paradoxical Christology thus becomes the foundation for a dogmatic ecumenicism Barth's Christology then just might be able to open up possibilities for discussion and even convergence within a church that is anything but one
