

Welcome to Oxford Reading Tree Fireflies!

On this card there are some ideas for helping your child to read the book brought home today.

Don't feel you have to use all the ideas. Find a comfortable place together, even if it's only for five minutes. Keep the session short. Reading should be fun, so give lots of praise!

Big and Little

Stage 1+

What is this book about?

This book tells us about and compares animals that are big and animals that are little. Each page has the repeated phrase: "This ... is big." or "This ... is little." The images on each page are there to help your child work out any animal words that may be unfamiliar to them. Each page has captions underneath. The size words are in big or little writing.

Talk together

- Look at the front cover. Encourage your child to tell you what they can see (e.g. a giraffe, a parrot, the title, the author, Oxford Reading Tree, shadows).
- Discuss the writing in the title. Look at the word "big" and encourage your child to explain why the author chose to use these colours.
- Talk with your child about what animals they know that are big and what animals they know that are little.

Read the book

- Let your child hold the book and turn the pages over themselves.
- Read each page together, pointing to each word as you read it to help your child to begin to recognize what each says and means.
- Read to your child if they want you to but encourage and praise your child when they join in or finish off your sentences.
- Ask your child to read the book and encourage and praise them as they begin to point to each word as they read.
