King,2006-10-12 This book was first published in 2006 Second only to the Bible and Book of Common Prayer John Foxe s Acts and Monuments known as the Book of Martyrs was the most influential book published in England during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The most complex and best illustrated English book of its time it recounted in detail the experiences of hundreds of people who were burned alive for their religious beliefs John N King offers the most comprehensive investigation yet of the compilation printing publication illustration and reception of the Book of Martyrs He charts its reception across different editions by learned and unlearned sympathetic and antagonistic readers The many illustrations included here introduce readers to the visual features of early printed books and general printing practices both in England and continental Europe and enhance this important contribution to early modern literary studies cultural and religious history and the history of the Book The Use of Hereford William Smith,2017-05-15 The Use of Hereford a local variation of the Roman rite was one of the diocesan liturgies of medieval England before their abolition and replacement by the Book of Common Prayer in 1549 Unlike the widespread Use of Sarum the Use of Hereford was confined principally to its diocese which helped to maintain its individuality until the Reformation This study seeks to catalogue and evaluate all the known surviving sources of the Use of Hereford with particular reference to the missals and gradual which so far have received little attention In addition to these a variety of other material has been examined including a number of little known or unknown important fragments of early Hereford service books dismembered at the Reformation and now hidden away as binding or other scrap in libraries and record offices This is the fullest examination of Hereford liturgical sources ever undertaken and may stimulate similar and much needed studies of other diocesan uses in particular Sarum and York As well as describing in detail the various manuscript sources the rare single edition printed

Hereford texts the missals and breviaries are also discussed Unlike books of the Sarum and York rites these one offs were never revised and reissued In addition to the examination of these sources William Smith discusses the possible origins of the rite and provides an analysis of the Hereford liturgical calendar of the festa including those of the cathedral s patron St Ethelbert and the no less famous St Thomas Cantilupe that helped to make Hereford use so distinctive

Non-standard Collection Management M. Pearce,2018-11-09 First published in 1992 this volume recognises that it is not unusual when practising librarianship to come across small to medium collections within the library which because they are different from the main collection are outside the librarian s experience or are a new type of material not properly managed or exploited Therefore this volume contains chapters on a range of materials which are united by a certain rarity in the experience of most librarians It is aimed at those who need to know how to progress from scratch with a collection but not necessarily to take it into complete specialization There is information about characteristics of each type of material as well as guidance for their management Lists of further reading are provided and a note of some important collections known surviving sources of the Use of Hereford with particular reference to the missals and gradual which so far have received little attention In addition to these a variety of other material has been examined including a number of little known or unknown important fragments of early Hereford service books dismembered at the Reformation and now hidden away as binding or other scrap in libraries and record offices A Census of Greek Medical Manuscripts Alain Touwaide,2016-08-12 Manuscripts containing Greek medical texts were inventoried by author and work at the beginning of the 20th century by a group of philologists under the direction of Hermann Diels Useful as it was and will continue to be Diels catalogue omitted authors and works misidentified manuscripts and overlooked codices Furthermore since the publication of the catalogue some libraries have adopted a new system of classification manuscripts have been destroyed items have changed location and new ones have come to light The present Census is a checklist of the Greek medical manuscripts currently known in collections worldwide It is both an amended and updated index of Diels catalogue and a list of the items missed or overlooked in Diels or located since Although it does not supersede Diels catalogue it is the indispensable instrument for a New Diels and will be the reference for years to come for any new critical edition and medico historical research based on manuscripts besides providing the basis for a broad range of other historical inquiries from codicology to the history of medicine and science including Byzantine intellectual history Renaissance studies and humanism history of the book and early printing and the history of medical philology and learning A Radical's Books Michael Cyril William Hunter,1999 The library owned by Samuel Jeake of Rye nonconformist and local activist was one of the most remarkable of its time It is of particular importance in that relatively little information has hitherto been available about the ownership of books in the English provinces or the reading habits of intellectuals who like Jeake were outside London and university circles from which most surviving libraries have come down to us The collection of some 1500 volumes includes an extraordinary assemblage of radical pamphlets from the English Revolution alongside works of theology literature scholarship and science Other books reflect astrological and magical interests and the collection also includes a medical library Jeake s library catalogue published here gives much information about titles that are now lost about the penetration of foreign books into provincial England and about book prices The introduction places Jeake s collection in context and makes a significant contribution to the history of the book in the early modern period appendices list surviving volumes from the library and give a complete list of the Jeake manuscripts now in Rye Museum MICHAEL HUNTER is Professor of History at Birkbeck College University of London GILES MANDELBROTE is a Curator British Collections 1501 1800 at the British Library RICHARD OVENDEN is Deputy Head Rare Books Division of the National Library of Scotland NIGEL SMITH is Reader in English at the University of Oxford
