The Oxyrhynchus Papyri Edgar Lobel, 1951

Studies in Sappho and Alcaeus Kyriakos Tsantsanoglou, 2019-09-23

The poetry of the archaic poets of Lesbos Sappho and Alcaeus has been imperfectly and poorly transmitted either in book fragments or in later ragged papyri so that new attempts of interpretation will always be required especially when new research tools and methods have appeared in classical scholarship The book consists of 14 articles by the author which present and deal with diverse problems of the two poets of Lesbos Various questions on already transmitted poems different readings reconstructions and interpretations of the new finds are proposed but most importantly new approaches in general topics such as the division of Sappho's work in Books the logic leading to this division the order of these Books the contents of each of them the interpretation of the surviving fragments often quite different than before A feature that characterizes the old age poetry of Sappho is her anxiety about the posthumous fate of her poetry and her hope that Kle's her only daughter will ensure its dissemination Finally the author investigates the communal festival of Hera in Lesbos a festival performed in common with Zeus and Dionysus the so called Lesbian Triad The festival is specified as a welcome to the season of spring at the time of the vernal equinox Also the location of the temenos of Hera is investigated close to Pyrrha of Lesbos which was the site of Alcaeus second exile
