Essays on Ancient Greek Literature and Culture Ewen Bowie, 2023-07-27 Assembles a major scholar's work on Hellenistic and Imperial Greek poetry and the novels over four decades illustrating its evolution Luke the Historian, in the Light of Research A. T. Robertson, 1920 Old Age in the Roman World Tim G. Parkin, 2003-05-07 Noting that privileges granted to the aged generally took the form of exemptions from duties rather than positive benefits Tim Parkin argues that the elderly were granted no privileged status or guaranteed social role At the same time they were permitted and expected to continue to participate actively in society for as long as they were able BOOK JACKET Matthew's Trilogy of Parables Wesley G. Olmstead, 2003-11-27 Wesley Olmstead examines the parables of the Two Sons the Tenants and the Wedding Feast against the backdrop of the wider Matthean narrative He explores Matthew's characterization of the Jewish leaders the people and the nations and assesses the respective roles of Israel and the nations in the plot of Matthew's Gospel Against the current of contemporary Matthean scholarship Olmstead argues both that the judgement this trilogy announces falls upon Israel and not only her leaders and that these parables point to the future inclusion of the nations in the nation that God had promised to raise up from Abraham Bringing both literary critical and redaction critical tools to bear on the texts at hand Olmstead not only elucidates the intended meanings of this parabolic trilogy but also attempts to determine the responses they elicited from their first readers Transcending Matthean scholarship this book has implications for all Gospel studies

Paul's Offer of Leniency (2 Cor 10:1) Donald Dale Walker, 2002 Originally presented as the author's thesis Ph D University of Chicago 1998 Biblica: Vol. 71, Katalog der Handbibliothek der Handschriftenabteilung: Alphabetischer und Schlagwortkatalog Mo-Rz Bayerische Staatsbibliothek. Handschriften- und Inkunabelabteilung, 1983 Rewriting the Sacred Text Kristin De Troyer, 2003-01-01 Readers may be surprised at the complex course that many biblical texts traveled between original composition and inclusion in the Jewish or Christian canons of Scripture Four different patterns of development are examined and evaluated in this study The Texts of Early Greek Philosophy Daniel W. Graham, 2010 This two part volume collects the complete fragments and most important testimonies for the leading presocratic philosophers The Greek and Latin texts are translated on facing pages and accompanied by a brief commentary for each philosopher Perspectives on New Testament Textual Criticism, Volume 2 Eldon Jay Epp, 2020-11-30 Eldon Jay Epp's second volume of collected essays consists of articles previously published during 2006-2017 All treat aspects of the New Testament textual criticism but focus on historical and methodological issues relevant to constructing the earliest attainable text of New Testament writings More specific emphasis falls upon the nature of textual transmission and the text critical process and heavily on the criteria employed in establishing that earliest available text Moreover textual grouping is examined at length and prominent is the current approach to textual variants not approved for the constructed text for they have stories to tell regarding theological ethical and real life issues as the early Christian churches sought to work out their own status practices and destiny Bulletin of Dr. Williams's Library Dr. Williams's Library, 1967 Origins of the Colonnaded Streets in the Cities of the Roman East Ross Burns, 2017-06-02 The colonnaded axes define the visitor's experience of many of the great cities of the Roman East How did this extraordinarily bold tool of urban planning evolve The street instead of remaining a mundane passage a convenient means of passing from one place to another was in the course of little more than a century transformed in the Eastern provinces into a monumental landscape which could in one sweeping vision encompass the entire city The colonnaded axes became the touchstone by which cities competed for status in the Eastern Empire Though adopted as a sign of cities prosperity under the Pax Romana they were not particularly Roman in their origin Rather they reflected the inventiveness fertility of ideas and the dynamic role of civic patronage in the Eastern provinces in the first two centuries under Rome This study will concentrate on the convergence of ideas behind these great avenues examining over fifty sites in an attempt to work out the sequence in which ideas developed across a variety of regions from North Africa around to Asia Minor It will look at the phenomenon in the context of the consolidation of Roman rule To Cast the First Stone Jennifer Knust, Tommy Wasserman, 2018-11-13 The story of the woman taken in adultery features a dramatic confrontation between Jesus and the Pharisees over whether the adulteress should be stoned as the law commands In response Jesus famously states Let him who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her To Cast the First Stone traces the history of this provocative story from its first appearance to its enduring presence today Likely added to the Gospel of John in the third century the passage is often held up by modern critics as an example of textual corruption by early Christian scribes and editors yet a judgment of corruption obscures the warm embrace the story actually received Jennifer Knust and Tommy Wasserman trace the story's incorporation into Gospel books liturgical practices storytelling and art overturning the mistaken perception that it was either peripheral or suppressed even in the Greek East The authors also explore the story's many different meanings Taken as an illustration of the expansiveness of Christ's mercy the purported superiority of Christians over Jews the necessity of penance and more this vivid episode has invited any number of creative receptions This history reveals as much about the changing priorities of audiences scribes editors and scholars as it does about an original text of John To Cast the First Stone calls attention to significant shifts in Christian book cultures and the enduring impact of oral tradition on the preservation and destabilization of scripture The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1912 The English Catalogue of Books ...: 1801-1836. Ed. and comp. by R.A. Peddie and Q. Waddington. 1914, 1912 The First Chapters Charles E. Hill, 2022 The First Chapters uncovers the origins of the first paragraph or chapter divisions in copies of the Christian Scriptures Its focal point is the magnificent fourth century Codex Vaticanus Vat gr 1209 B 03 perhaps the single most significant ancient manuscript of the Bible and the oldest material witness to what may be the earliest set of numbered chapter divisions of the Bible The First Chapters tells the history of textual division starting from when copies of Greek literary works used virtually no spaces marks or other graphic techniques to assist the reader It explores the origins of other numbering systems like the better known Eusebian Canons but its theme is the first set of numbered chapters in Codex Vaticanus what nineteenth century textual critic Samuel P Tregelles labelled the Capitulatio Vaticana It demonstrates that these numbers were not as most have claimed late additions to the codex but belonged integrally to its original production The First Chapters then breaks new ground by showing that the Capitulatio Vaticana has real precursors in some much earlier manuscripts It thus casts light on a long continuous tradition of scribally placed visual guides to the reading and interpreting of Scriptural books Finally The First Chapters exposes abundant new evidence that this early system for marking the sense divisions of Scripture has played a much greater role in the history of exegesis than has previously been imaginable
