Embracing the Passion Nigel Pimlott, 2015-02-28 Convention suggests it is best not to talk about faith and politics this book talks about both It argues that Jesus was a political figure who championed the rights of the marginalised the oppressed and voiceless In this challenging and accessible book Nigel Pimlott argues young people are often marginalised oppressed and rarely heard in a world favouring the rich and powerful Young people are opinionated passionate about what they think is right and wrong and are concerned about the world they live in Yet research indicates young people are disengaged from mainstream political processes where they can express their views young adults have stopped voting in elections in unprecedented numbers This is something of a paradox Nigel contends that by more effectively equipping Christian youth workers and ministers to do politicking they will be able to better equip and disciple young people to be more politically engaged in their own contexts This unique research based book provides a concise overview of how youth workers might best help young people flourish and realise the common good It engages those interested in politics and more importantly encourages those not interested to get interested and make a difference in the world ThirdWay, 1987-04 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture ThirdWay, 1986-10 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture
