Prepop Postappropriation:

Art After Appropriation John C. Welchman, 2013-01-11 Beginning with the first comprehensive account of the discourse of appropriation that dominated the art world in the late 1970s and 1980s Art After Appropriation suggests a matrix of inflections and refusals around the culture of taking or citation each chapter loosely correlated with one year of the decade between 1989 and 1999 The opening chapters show how the Second World culture of the USSR gave rise to a new visibility for photography during the dissolution of the Soviet Union around 1989 Welchman examines how genres of ethnography documentary and travel are crossed with fictive performance and social improvisation in the videos of Steve Fagin He discusses how hybrid forms of subjectivity are delivered by a new critical narcissism and how the Korean American artist Cody Choi converts diffident gestures of appropriation from the logic of material or stylistic annexation into continuous incorporated events Art After Appropriation also examines the creation of public art from covert actions and social feedback and how bodies participate in their own appropriation Art After Appropriation concludes with the advent of the rainbow net an imaginary icon that governs the spaces of interactivity proliferation and media piracy at the end of the millennium John Welchman is Professor of Modern Art History Theory and Criticism at the University of California San Diego He is the author of Modernism Relocated 1995 and Invisible Colors 1997 and editor of Rethinking Borders 1996 and a forthcoming three volume anthology of the writings of LA artist Mike Kelley Welchman has contributed to numerous journals magazines museum catalogues and newspapers including Artforum New York Times Los Angeles Times International Herald Tribune Los Angeles County Museum of Art Tate Gallery Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Reina Sofia Madrid Haus der Kunst Munich

Wet Mira Schor, 1997 Taking aim at the mostly male bastion of art theory and criticism Mira Schor brings a maverick perspective and provocative voice to the issues of contemporary painting gender representation and feminist art Writing from her dual perspective of a practicing painter and art critic Schor's writing has been widely read over the past fifteen years in Artforum Art Journal Heresies and M E A N I N G a journal she coedited Collected here these essays challenge established hierarchies of the art world of the 1980s and 1990s and document the intellectual and artistic development that have marked Schor's own progress as a critic Bridging the gap between art practice artwork and critical theory Wet includes some of Schor's most influential essays that have made a significant contribution to debates over essentialism Articles range from discussions of contemporary women artists Ida Applebroog Mary Kelly and the Guerrilla Girls to Figure Ground an examination of utopian modernism's fear of the goo of painting and femininity From the provocative Representations of the Penis which suggests novel readings of familiar images of masculinity and introduces new ones to Appropriated Sexuality a trenchant analysis of David Salle's depiction of women Wet is a fascinating and informative collection Complemented by over twenty illustrations the essays in Wet reveal Schor's remarkable ability to see and to make others see art in a radically new light
