The Presence of Others Andrea A. Lunsford, John J. Ruszkiewicz, 2008 The Presence of Others Andrea A. Lunsford, John J. Ruszkiewicz, 2008-01-02 Presenting widely varying opinions on provocative topics The Presence of Others invites every student to enter a dialogue with the readings and with accompanying commentaries from the editors student writers and experts in other disciplines and fields Noted scholars Andrea A Lunsford and John J Ruszkiewicz whose takes on political and academic culture differ markedly have selected a range of visual and written texts that cover issues of importance in academic and public life from education to ethics science and technology to American cultural myths With its diverse selection of ideas The Presence of Others encourages students to respond thoughtfully to arguments and to move toward excellence in articulating and supporting their own positions Wonder, Silence, and Human Flourishing Finn Thorbjørn Hansen, Solveig Botnen Eide, Carlo Leget, 2023-03-20 Wonder Silence and Human Flourishing Toward a Rehumanization of Health Education and Welfare approaches humanization and the process of re enchantment in a radical new way For more than a decade the call for rehumanization in education care and welfare has been heard and discussed primarily in critical thinking political theory and sociological discourses This critique is mainly based on a social constructivist and naturalistic worldview that keeps the discussion in an anthropocentric perspective By focusing on the phenomenology and ethics of wonder as an ontological and even spiritual event and by listening to the silence that follows this contemplative wonder the contributors offer an existential phenomenological and hermeneutic way of understanding humanization Edited by Finn Thorbjørn Hansen Solveig Eide Botnen and Carlo Leget the book shows from various perspectives that the force of wonder and the silence that follows from it can nurture our ability to be receptive to and present in human relations and in resonance with the meaning giving life phenomena that surround us Language Education Today Georgeta Rață, 2009-12-14 Language Education Today Between Theory and Practice is a collection of essays that appeal to teachers of modern languages almost exclusively English regardless of the level of instruction The essays deal with three main aspects of the opposition Linguistic Identity vs Multilingualism language education mother tongue Turkish Kurdish and Serbian contact linguistics the impact of Slavic and of German on modern Romanian the opposition L1 vs L2 Arabic Farsi Urdu and Serbian vs English and contrastive studies German and Macedonian English language teaching and learning English as a Foreign or Second Language taught to Serbian and Ruthenian students English for Specific Purposes Business English Information Technology English the English of hotel terminology and the English of business media taught to Romanian students English language teaching and assessing methods to Thai Italian Malaysian and Croatian students and the profile of the language teacher in the universities of the F Y R of Macedonia and of Romania and linguistic issues with focus on some English word histories and on some English modal verbs on French spelling and on some French verbs of animal communication and on the Latin Plesiosauria Nomenclature Shakespearean Ethics in Extremity James

Kearney, 2025-03-05 Shakespearean Ethics in Extremity addresses forms of ethical experience on the Shakespearean stage. Early modern theater traffics in the vicarious experience of ethics often in some extreme or impossible circumstance. It does so not by parading concepts across the stage or ventriloquizing ideas from the philosophical tradition but by bringing to life stories and characters and worlds by crafting scenes and moments of great emotional and cognitive intensity. What does it feel like to be enjoined to avenge your father's murder? What is it like to banish your daughter or disavow your community? To murder. James Kearney contends that Shakespearean theater fundamentally oriented to the experiential invites its audiences to entertain and to be entertained by what the philosopher Bernard Williams calls a phenomenology of the ethical life. The early modern world inherited and developed rhetorical and philosophical practices geared toward the creation of immersive virtual experience. These phenomenological arts share underlying assumptions about the cultivation and management of the self as well as a straightforward orientation toward ethics. Taking up key concepts from the long history of moral philosophy—recognition, obligation, decision, luck—Shakespearean Ethics in Extremity brings together a discursive history of ideas and the more phenomenological realms of body and affect, environment and world. In Shakespearean theater we encounter or witness or simply have our attention called to the ethical problem of other minds, the obligation to neighbor and community, the mysteries of decision, the moral quandaries posed by epistemological uncertainty, the risk of ethico-affective relations and the vagaries of luck. Each of these concepts points to an elemental aspect of ethical life and they all have long and rich histories, ancient and modern. With a concentrated focus on formally inventive plays written in the later part of Shakespeare's theatrical career—King Lear, Timon of Athens, Macbeth, Pericles, The Tempest, and The Winter's Tale—Kearney explores Shakespearean theater as an arena or lab in which the experience of ethics in extremis is simulated or reverse engineered, counterfeited or created.

The Presence of Others Andrea A. Lunsford, 1997 A Language for the Soul Stuart C. Devenish, 2024-10-24 This volume offers Christian spiritual instructors a language for the soul uncovered from the storehouses of Christianity's ancient living spiritual tradition. That language describes the deep soul movements that unfold in the interior life of believers in response to the Divine invitation. It presents an accessible language of the soul for use in today's professional, educational, ministerial, and everyday life situations. The end product is an experiential dictionary comprised of sixty word concepts which name and explore the inward human reactions to the whispering of God's Spirit. Those reactions result from inward desires that lead to the embrace of faith, the quest for consecration, and the journey of discipleship. Nurturing these intra-personal choices and commitments is the central task of Christian ministry, but many faith instructors remain unaware of these critical inner-life processes. More than other resources available today, this experiential dictionary informs, enriches, and intensifies the spiritual journeys of genuine disciples and seekers. The volume is tailored for seminaries, churches, schools, and community settings. It has application to the training of ministry leaders, the instruction of believers, and in supporting the growing number of secular mystics who are open to merging their journeys of self-discovery.

with the quest for Christ discovery Stanley Cavell and the Potencies of the Voice Adam Gonya, 2019-04-04 Stanley Cavell was one of the most influential American philosophers of the past several decades Yet because he is often read in connection with Wittgenstein there has been little consideration of his work against the background of the larger German philosophical tradition Stanley Cavell and the Potencies of the Voice brings Cavell into dialogue with Schopenhauer and Nietzsche on the question of how we make ourselves intelligible opening up a new way of looking at central themes in Cavell's philosophy JAC ,1999 The Aesthetics of Toni Morrison Connor, Marc C., 2010-01-06 Nobel laureate Toni Morrison's novels have almost exclusively been examined as sagas illuminating history race culture and gender politics This gathering of eight essays by top scholars probes Morrison's novels and her growing body of nonfiction and critical work for the complex and potent aesthetic elements that have made her a major American novelist of the twentieth century Through traditional aesthetic concepts such as the sublime the beautiful and the grotesque through issues of form narrative and language and through questions of affect and reader response the nine essays in this volume bring into relief the dynamic and often overlooked range within Morrison's writing Employing aesthetic ideas that range from the ancient Greeks to contemporary research in the black English oral tradition The Aesthetics of Toni Morrison shows the potency of these ideas for interpreting Morrison's writing This is a force Morrison herself has often suggested in her claims that Greek tragedy bears a striking similarity to Afro American communal structures At the same time each essay attends to the ways in which Morrison also challenges traditional aesthetic concepts establishing the African American and female voices that are essential to her sensibility The result is a series of readings that simultaneously expands our understanding of Morrison's work and also provokes new thinking about an aesthetic tradition that is nearly 2 500 years old These essays offer a rich complement to the dominant approaches in Morrison scholarship by revealing aspects of her work that purely ideological approaches have obscured or about which they have remained oddly silent Each essay focuses particularly on the relations between the aesthetic and the ethical in Morrison's writing and between the artistic production and its role in the world at large These relations show the rich political implications that aesthetic analysis engenders By treating both Morrison's fiction and her nonfiction the essays reveal a mind and imagination that have long been intimately engaged with the questions and traditions of the aesthetic domain The result is a provocative and original contribution to Morrison scholarship and to scholarship in American letters generally
