Prestige, Authority and Power in Late Medieval Manuscripts and Texts Felicity Riddy, 2000-12-19 A range of manuscripts and texts from various social contexts studied for what they reveal of that social background Prestige, Authority, and Power in Late Medieval Manuscripts and Texts Felicity Riddy, 2000 A range of manuscripts and texts from various social contexts studied for what they reveal of that social background Christians and Jews in Angevin England Sarah Rees Jones, Sethina Claire Watson, 2013 The mass suicide and murder of the men women and children of the Jewish community in York on 16 March 1190 is one of the most scarring events in the history of Anglo Judaism This book sets it into the context of other attacks on Jews across England at the time looks at how the narrative of events was created and considers the circumstances and processes through which Christian and Jewish neighbours became enemies and victims Wills and Will-making in Anglo-Saxon England Linda Tollerton, 2011 A study of the implications and practices of wills and will making in Anglo Saxon society and of the varieties of inheritance strategies and commemorative arrangements adopted A remarkable series of Anglo Saxon wills have survived spanning the period from the beginning of the ninth century to the years immediately following the Norman Conquest Written in Old English they reflect the significance of the vernacular not only in royal administration during this period but in the recording of a range of individual transactions They show wealthy laymen and women and clerics from kings and bishops to those of thegny status disposing of land and chattels and recognising ties of kinship friendship lordship and service through their bequests and whilst land is of prime importance the mention in some wills of such valuable items as tableware furnishings clothing jewellery and weapons provides an insight into lifestyle at the time Despite their importance no study has hitherto been specifically devoted to Anglo Saxon wills in their social and historical context a gap which this book aims to fill While the wills themselves can be vague and allusive by establishing patterns of bequeathing and by drawing on other resources the author sheds light on the factors which influenced men and women in making appropriate provision for their property Linda Tollerton gained her PhD from the University of York Author, Scribe, and Book in Late Medieval English Literature Rory G. Critten, 2018 The works of four major fifteenth century writers re examined showing their innovative reconceptualization of Middle English authorship and the manuscript book The Production of Books in England 1350-1500 Alexandra Gillespie, Daniel Wakelin, 2011-04-14 This book studies approaches to the production of manuscripts in medieval England from the first commercial guilds to the advent of print Time in the Medieval World Chris Humphrey, W. M. Ormrod, 2001 A look at the competing notions of time in the middle ages from the spiritual death the Last Judgement to the practical lawyers calculations clocks and calendars By exploring some of the more important senses of time which were in circulation in the medieval world scholars from a wide range of disciplines trace competing definitions and modes of temporality in the middle ages explaining their influence upon life and culture The issues explored include anachronism as a feature in earlier senses of time perceptions of death and of the Last Judgement time in literary narratives and in music constructions of time as used in the professions and original work on the particular systems and technologies which were used for the keeping of time such as clocks and calendars Contributors PAUL BRAND PETER BURKE MARY J CARRUTHERS DEBORAH DELIYANNIS CHRISTOPHER HUMPHREY ROBERT MARKUS AD PUTTER HOWARD WILLIAMS

St. William of York Christopher Norton, 2006 St William of York achieved the unique distinction of being elected archbishop of York twice and being canonised twice Principally famous for his role in the York election dispute and the miracle of Ouse bridge William emerges from this the first full length study devoted to him as a significant figure in the life of the church in northern England and an interesting character in his own right William's father Herbert the Chamberlain was a senior official in the royal treasury at Winchester who secured William's initial preferment at York the importance of family connections particularly after his cousin Stephen became king forms a recurring theme Dr Norton describes how he was early on involved in the primacy dispute with Canterbury and after his father attempted to assassinate Henry I he spent some years abroad with Archbishop Thurstan William knew some of the earliest Yorkshire Cistercians who were subsequently among his fiercest opponents during his first episcopate which is here reconsidered in the light of new evidence he emerges from the affair with much greater credit St Bernard with correspondingly less Retiring to Winchester after his deposition he was elected archbishop a second time in 1153 but died the next year amid suspicions of murder Miracles at his tomb in 1177 led to his veneration as a saint The book concludes with the bull of canonisation issued by Pope Honorius III in 1226 Dr CHRISTOPHER NORTON is Reader in Art and Architecture at the University of York

The York Mystery Plays Margaret Rogerson, 2011 Essays on the York Mystery Plays uniting voices from the scholarly world with the York community that has assumed responsibility for their production today The York Play of Corpus Christi also known as the York Cycle has been central to the study of early English theatre for over a century and a touchstone for the revival of medieval dramatic practice for over fifty years But these two endeavours have often found little common ground This volume therefore accomplishes something very important It brings together scholars of medieval English drama and places them in dialogue with experienced practitioners from the community Together they share a common commitment to understanding how performances matter to the communities that produce them and how plays intersect with other public activities CAROL SYMES Professor of History University of Illinois at Urbana This volume provides a wealth of new insights into the performance of mystery plays in medieval York and their modern revival It utilises both academic study and the practical experience of those who now produce the cycle within York itself on wagons in the street in an approximation of their original performance A number of topics are covered The manuscript is linked to Richard III the Masons are introduced as non guildsmen in an enterprise assumed to be guild specific families not just male heads of households are shown to be important to the dramatic narrative and cognitive theory elucidates performance past and present Recent productions are discussed in lively detail by those directly responsible for them leading to analyses of performances in Israel Spain and Australia not all of them of a predictable kind which offer further angles on the medieval dramatic tradition Professor Margaret Rogerson teaches in the Department of English at the University of Sydney Contributors Margaret Rogerson Keith Jones Richard Beadle Sheila K Christie Mike Tyler Jill Stevenson Elenid Davies Ben Pugh Peter Brown Tony Wright Steve Bielby Emma Cunningham Alan Heaven Linda Ali Paul Toy Gweno Williams John Merrylees David Richmond Alexandra F Johnston Sharon Aronson Lehavi Pamela M King
