Plant Nutrition for Sustainable Food Production and Environment Tadao Ando, Kounosuke Fujita, Tadahiko Mae, Hideaki Matsumoto, Satoshi Mori, Jiro Sekiya, 1997-12-31 In the history of the International Plant Nutrition Colloquium from its first meeting in 1954 this meeting the 13th Colloquium is the first to be held in Asia and will be the last in the 20th century The 20th century has seen huge changes in the number and activities of mankind Our population has increased from around 1.7 billion to more than 5.8 billion and technological innovations have completely altered our way of living As a consequence of such rapid change we are facing many problems including changes in our environment of a global scale But while food shortage has been a serious concern to mankind throughout our history serious food shortages in the 20th century have been confined to limited times and areas As Lester Brown discusses in this volume farmers have increased food production heroically on demand We the plant nutritionists should be proud of our support to the world's farmers which has helped them make their achievement possible During the 20th century the science of plant nutrition also has achieved great progress as described by Jack Loneragan it became established as a discipline firmly based in science defined the chemical elements supporting plant growth and has contributed to improvements in plant production and environmental quality as readers will find in many contributions in this volume

The Symphonic Repertoire, Volume IV A. Peter Brown, 2024-03-29 Central to the repertoire of Western art music since the 18th century the symphony has come to be regarded as one of the ultimate compositional challenges Surprisingly heretofore there has been no truly extensive broad based treatment of the genre and the best of the existing studies are now several decades old In this five volume series A Peter Brown explores the symphony from its 18th century beginnings to the end of the 20th century Synthesizing the enormous scholarly literature Brown presents up to date overviews of the status of research discusses any important former or remaining problems of attribution illuminates the style of specific works and their contexts and samples early writings on their reception The Symphonic Repertoire provides an unmatched compendium of knowledge for the student teacher performer and sophisticated amateur The series is being launched with two volumes on the Viennese symphony Volume IV The Second Golden Age of the Viennese Symphony Brahms Bruckner Dvorak Mahler and Selected Contemporaries Although during the mid 19th century the geographic center of the symphony in the Germanic territories moved west and north from Vienna to Leipzig during the last third of the century it returned to the old Austrian lands with the works of Brahms Bruckner Dvorak and Mahler After nearly a half century in hibernation the sleeping Viennese giant awoke to what some viewed as a reincarnation of Beethoven with the first hearing of Brahms's Symphony No. 1 which was premiered at Vienna in December 1876 Even though Bruckner had composed some gigantic symphonies prior to Brahms's first contribution their full impact was not felt until the composer's complete texts became available after World War II. Although Dvořák was often viewed as a nationalist composer in his symphonic writing his primary influences were Beethoven, Schubert and Brahms. For both Bruckner and Mahler the symphony constituted the heart of their output for Brahms and Dvořák it occupied a less central place. Yet for all of them the key figure of the past remained Beethoven. The symphonies of these four composers together with the works of Goldmark, Zemlinsky, Schoenberg, Berg, Smetana, Fibich, Janáček and others are treated in Volume IV The Second Golden Age of the Viennese Symphony covering the period from roughly 1860 to 1930. Beethoven Romain Rolland, 1919 Chamber Music of Haydn and Schubert Franz Joseph Haydn, Franz Schubert, A collection of chamber ensembles composed by Franz Joseph Haydn and Franz Schubert

Programme of ... Symphony Concerts ... Detroit Symphony Society, 1928 Alun Hoddinott R. Craggs Stewart, 2017-11-30 Alun Hoddinott is the most important living Welsh composer and one of the most distinguished and prolific composers of his generation internationally. His works have been performed in major centres as far afield as Tokyo and Berlin, Melbourne and Leipzig, New York and Venice as well as the major festivals in Wales and England. He is one of the very few composers to have been commissioned to compose a concerto for Mstislav Rostropovich. Born in Bargoed Glamorganshire in August 1929, Alun Hoddinott started to play the violin and compose at an early age. Some of his works were performed and broadcast whilst he was a student at University College Cardiff and he later studied with the Australian composer and pianist Arthur Benjamin. His first major success was his Clarinet Concerto No. 1 given by Gervase de Peyer and the Halle Orchestra under John Barbiroli at the 1954 Cheltenham Music Festival. This Source Book lists all Hoddinott's compositions from 1946 to 2005, almost 60 years of phenomenal output and shows he has achieved a mastery of composition which embraces almost every musical medium. With information given on first performances, manuscript locations and recordings in addition to details of composition dates, authors, librettists, durations, commissions and dedications amongst much else, this book is a key reference for all those interested in Alun Hoddinott and his music. The Bulletin of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences ... Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, 1914 Two Centuries of British Symphonism Jürgen Schaarwächter, 2015-02-27 Die britische Sinfonik ist erst in jüngster Zeit ins allgemeine Interesse gerückt. Ein Überblick über die sinfonische Entwicklung im Vereinigten Königreich seit den Anfängen im 18. Jahrhundert bis ins 20. Jahrhundert blieb aber bis heute ein Desideratum. Der hier vorgelegte Überblick zeigt, wie sich die Identität einer britischen Sinfonik über mehr als hundert Jahre entwickelte, geprägt durch Einflüsse vom europäischen Kontinent und von dem Bedürfnis, eigene Wege zu finden. Gegen Ende des 19. Jahrhunderts nahm das sinfonische Schaffen in Großbritannien stark zu, brachte jedoch erst mit Edward Elgar einen prominenten Vertreter von internationalem Rang hervor. Ein besonderer Schwerpunkt dieser Publikation liegt auf jenen Werken, die zu einem gewissen Grade von anderen überschattet wurden, unveröffentlicht oder unaufgeführt blieben. Das Ergebnis ist das Bild einer vielgestaltigen sinfonischen Landschaft Großbritanniens, das die sthetischen Perspektiven der einzelnen Komponisten wie auch ihre soziokulturellen Kontexte erhellt Ein umfangreiches Verzeichnis aller bekannten Werke und eine ausf hrliche Bibliographie laden zu weiterer Erkundung des Sujets ein Only in relatively recent times has any real attention been given to British symphonies So a comprehensive survey showing what exists and how the situation in the United Kingdom developed from the beginnings in the 18th century until well into the 20th century is long overdue The preliminary survey presented here shows how a British symphonic identity gradually took shape over more than a century through influences from abroad and at home enterprising attempts to find new ways of expression By the end of the 19th century British symphonists had produced an impressive body of work yet only with the appearance of Elgar s two symphonies in the following decade did this flourishing school find a champion of international renown In this publication light is shone on those works that have to some extent been overshadowed as well as on those that have remained unpublished or unperformed The result is a multi faceted panorama of British symphonism offering many insights into the composers thinking and their socio cultural contexts A comprehensive catalogue of all known works and an extensive bibliography invite readers to delve further into the subject

Edward MacDowell's European Piano Music Paul Bertagnolli, 2024-09-10 Edward MacDowell s European Piano Music is a critical study of the piano music that MacDowell composed during his European sojourn 1876 1888 steeped in reception history and with a special emphasis of programmaticism The book expands current knowledge of MacDowell s childhood in four of the chapters based on his previously uninvestigated sheet music collection thereby achieving a better balance among the stages of MacDowell s life than is evident in most books of the life and works variety Prolific contemporaneous music criticism meticulously preserved in MacDowell s scrapbooks is likewise undervalued in the MacDowell literature but it furnishes penetrating observations about the expressive and programmatic content of numerous compositions especially as it was revealed to critics when MacDowell performed his own works Lastly the book offers explanations for why MacDowell immersed himself in European culture for decades and then at a crucial juncture in his career embraced diverse American heritages and worked toward a conception of a pluralistic music that was American in a creative sense The book s content and methodology would appeal most directly to specialists within the broad fields of musicology and music theory particularly within American art music and its composers nineteenth century music program music reception history and piano literature
