National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1983 American Book Publishing Record ,1984 Child Psychotherapy Alan E. Kazdin,1988 Public Health, Mental Health, and Mass Atrocity Prevention Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum,Caitlin O. Mahoney,Amy E. Meade,Arlan F. Fuller,2021-07-29 This multidisciplinary volume considers the role of both public health and mental health policies and practices in the prevention of mass atrocity including war crimes crimes against humanity and genocide The authors address atrocity prevention through the framework of primary pre conflict secondary mid conflict and tertiary post conflict settings They examine the ways in which public health and mental health scholars and practitioners currently orient their research and interventions and the ways in which we can adapt frameworks methods tools and practice toward a more sophisticated and truly interdisciplinary understanding and application of atrocity prevention The book brings together diverse fields of study by global north and global south authors in diverse contexts It culminates in a narrative that demonstrates the state of the current fields on intersecting themes within public health mental health and mass atrocity prevention and the future potential directions in which these intersections could go Such discussions will serve to influence both policy makers and practitioners in these fields toward developing adapting and testing frames and tools for atrocity prevention Multidisciplinary perspectives are represented among editors and authors including law political science international studies public health mental health philosophy clinical psychology social psychology history and peace studies Behavioral Approaches to Community Psychology Michael T. Nietzel,Richard A. Winett,Marian L. MacDonald,2013-10-22 Behavioral Approaches to Community Psychology reviews and evaluates the extension of social learning procedures to various demanding community problems This book presents the applications of the behavioral paradigm for various social problems including alcoholism adult offenders aging unemployment drug addiction juvenile delinquency environmental protection psychiatric residence and problems of the schools Organized into 12 chapters this book begins with an overview of the development and patterning of human behavior This text then examines various research conducted in schools concerning behavioral approaches to educational problems Other chapters consider the increasing concern and debate for the problems of crime and delinquency This book discusses as well the concern of the society about opiate drug addiction and abuse The final chapter deals with the strengthened relation between behaviorists and community psychologists This book is a valuable resource for social psychologists and graduate students Applied researchers and practitioners in community health settings will also find this book useful Luxury Fever Robert H. Frank,2001-04-02 A new luxury fever has America in its grip Independent of stock prices recessions and inflation rates the past two decades have witnessed a spectacular and uninterrupted rise in luxury consumption Ordinary functional goods are no longer acceptable Our cars have gotten larger heavier and far more expensive Mansions larger than 30 000 square feet no longer seem extravagant Wristwatches for the super rich cost tens of thousands of dollars We are living in an era of excess Consider The average house built in the United States today is nearly twice as large as its counterpart from the 1950s Even as houses have gotten more expensive and farther from the workplace there has been a sharp increase in second home ownership The average price of an automobile sold in the United States now exceeds 22 000 up more than 75 percent from a decade ago Total U S spending on luxury goods increased 21 percent between 1995 and 1996 typical of recent years while overall merchandise sales increased only 5 percent Robert Frank caused a national debate in 1995 when he and co author Philip Cook described the poisonous spread of winner take all markets Now he takes a thought provoking look at the flip side of spreading inequality as the super rich set the pace everyone else spends furiously in a competitive echo of wastefulness The costs are enormous We spend more time at work leaving less time for family and friends less time for exercise Most of us have been forced to save less and spend and borrow much more The annual rate at which American families file for personal bankruptcy has grown to one in seventy Budgetary pressures have reduced our willingness to fund even essential public services Our food and water are increasingly contaminated Potholes proliferate and traffic delays double every ten years Frank offers the first comprehensive and accessible summary of scientific evidence that our spending choices are not making us as happy and healthy as they could Furthermore he argues that human frailty is not at fault The good news is that we can do something about it We can make it harder for the super rich to overspend and capture our own competitive energy for the public good Luxury Fever boldly offers a way to curb the excess and restore the true value of money

Deutsche Bibliographie ,1981 Coercion and Trust Saradamoyee Chatterjee,Jill Jameson,2024-06-17 The first volume in the Lucy Cavendish College Lecture Series Coercion and Trust provides a unique multi disciplinary dialogue on the complex links between coercion and trust from perspectives in the social sciences medicine and literature combining high quality academic research with professional recommendations Part I analyses adolescent adult relationships in youth fiction alongside research on the sexual coercion of women and the link between animal and domestic violence Part II investigates blind trust and coercion in social media grooming challenges and solutions to coercion by misinformation Part III investigates coercion and trust in migration detention deportation kidnapping in violent political campaigns and sentencing in rehabilitation The book makes a significant original contribution to multi disciplinary research professional practice and advanced development with theoretical and empirical chapters linking theory practice and training This book will be of interest to academic researchers professional practitioners and postgraduate students in research and training in multiple fields across the social sciences humanities and medicine for whom there is no comparable book available worldwide
