Riviera nature notes [signed C.C.]. George Edward Comerford Casey, 1903 Riviera Nature Notes George Edward Comerford Casey, 2004 The spread of the towns the disforestation of the hills and other causes are conspiring to destroy many of the conditions which made the Riviera of former days so happy a resort for the lovers of Nature But there will always be much to observe and much to study in so favoured a region Quirky erudite and eminently readable the fifty four essays comprising Riviera Nature Notes give an astonishingly clear picture of plant and animal life in the South of France at the turn of the twentieth century not to mention a fascinating insight into the social mores of the time A hundred years later the book is as fresh topical and inviting as when it was first published Preferring to remain anonymous as a naturalist not only out of modesty but to guard the integrity of his liturgical writings its clergyman author speaks of olives and pines myrtles and figs mosquitoes and rare butterflies to name but a few of his subjects with such passion and verve as to bring the land from the Ligurian coastline to the Maritime Alps vividly alive gardens at La Mortola Italy and benefactor of the Royal Horticultural Society's sixty acre estate at Wisley a second edition incorporated photographs taken by the temperamental and extravagant heiress Ellen Wilmot in many ways a greater figure in the plant world than her close contemporary Gertrude Jekyll Our anonymous author moved in the best horticultural and botanical circles wore his learning lightly and unusually for the time spoke to the common man and the general reader on equal terms With an engaging sometimes acerbic always entertaining and informative voice speaking effortlessly across the years he will once again garner admirers among nature lovers gardeners and travellers alike Riviera Nature Notes George Edward Comerford Casey, 1898 Riviera Nature Notes George Edward Comerford Casey, 2019-06 This book has been considered by academicians and scholars of great significance and value to literature This forms a part of the knowledge base for future generations We have represented this book in the same form as it was first published Hence any marks seen are left intentionally to preserve its true nature Riviera Nature Notes George Edward Comerford Casey, 2016-09-13 Excerpt from Riviera Nature Notes A Popular Account of the More Conspicuous Plants and Animals of the Riviera and the Maritime Alps In the present edition I have corrected a few mistakes supplied some omissions and inserted a large number of illustrations I am reluctantly compelled to omit Dr Sturge's interesting article on the Prehistoric Men of the Mentone Caves I hope that this will be published by him in the form of a pamphlet For the convenience of foreign botanists I have given the scientific as well as the English names of plants Indeed I am disposed to regard popular plant names as an unnecessary evil In order to facilitate reference the Index has been made very complete My friend Mr W Dubois Duddell has placed at my disposal his magnificent collection of Riviera photographs from which I have selected some excellent illustrations of the mountain scenery Miss E Willmott has been good enough to contribute some beautiful pictures coast views and vegetation of the littoral zone About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction

Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers.
