Robert McCloskey Connection:

The Robert McCloskey Connection Will C. Howell, 1990-01-01 Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Heller, 1999-04-01

Reading Writing Connections From Theory to Practice is an extraordinary language arts methods text that enables elementary and middle school teachers to create classroom environments where all students can become lifelong readers and writers. Focusing on developmentally appropriate methods and materials, this remarkably readable book empowers a new generation of teachers to integrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking in K-8 classrooms. Heller's highly accessible writing style makes this book suitable as a primary text for undergraduate and graduate courses in language arts, reading, writing, and literacy. Special features of this second edition include a vision of how to transform cutting-edge theory and research into classroom practice that utilizes integrated language arts instruction, a unique developmental perspective with separate chapters on teaching methods and materials for kindergarten, primary 1-3, intermediate 4-6, and middle grades 7-8 instructional guidelines that offer generous, detailed suggestions for applying theory to practice, plus For You to Try and For Your Journal exercises that encourage critical thinking and reflection, and a wealth of classroom vignettes, examples of students' oral and written language, illustrations, and figures that accentuate interesting and informative theory, research, and practice. In addition, Reading Writing Connections offers expanded content on the impact of sociocultural theory and the whole language movement on the teaching of reading and writing, across the curriculum, greater emphasis on cultural diversity, including new multicultural children's literature booklists that complement the general children's literature bibliographies, and current information on alternative assessment, emerging technologies, the multiage classroom, reader response to literature, and thematic teaching.

The Art of Connection Michael J. Gelb, 2017-08-15

These days it's often easier to avoid face-to-face contact in favor of technological shortcuts. But as Michael Gelb argues in this compelling, entertaining book, the meaningful relationships that come from real interaction are the key to creating innovative ideas and solving our most intractable problems. In The Art of Connection, Gelb offers readers seven methods of developing this essential rapport in their professional and personal lives. Each chapter covers specific techniques and illustrates them with memorable stories, relevant scientific research, and hands-on exercises that allow readers to apply their new skills. Most important, Gelb reminds us that developing rapport with others is not just a business tool to enhance productivity but a valuable end in itself. He guides us to cultivate the skills we all need to deepen our relationships, broaden our humanity, and transform our lives.

Read with Me Samantha Cleaver, Munro Richardson, 2018-11-30

Parents and early childhood teachers know that reading aloud to children is important, but the specific things that adults do while reading with children that make reading a powerful way to improve children's language vocabulary and early literacy skills can remain a mystery. Read with Me makes those behaviors clear and easy to implement for parents and teachers by outlining the ABCs of Active Reading: Ask Questions, Build Vocabulary, and Connect to the Child's World. Active Reading is an approach to reading aloud with young children that is supported by decades of research Read With Me provides parents and teachers with the knowledge and skills to engage young children age 2 to 5 in Active Reading with examples clear explanations and ideas for making one on one or small group read aloud sessions a powerful way to build children s early literacy and language skills all while creating a lifelong love of reading Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States.
