Williams, 2010-05 A shocking exposé on the potential for nuclear terrorism on U S soil Even after 9/11 most experts continue to underestimate the dangers of extremist terrorism Not Paul Williams America cannot afford to ignore his terrifying contentions Williams reminds us that we have not seen the last or even the worst of Osama bin Laden and his hydra headed network of terror organizations Neil J Kressel Ph D author of Mass Hate The Global Rise of Genocide and Terror It's important to know your enemy And Paul Williams in this book sheds light on the evil intentions of Osama bin Laden like few others do Brian Kilmeade cohost of Fox Friends Former consultant for the FBI on organized crime and international terrorism and a seasoned investigative reporter Paul Williams reveals the potential for nuclear terrorism on U S soil in this shocking expos Based on the findings of U S Israeli Pakistani and U K intelligence Williams describes how the theft of tactical nuclear weapons from Russian arsenals have in all likelihood made their way to al Qaeda cells throughout the United States in preparation for the next terrorist attack Williams presents evidence showing that in the chaos following the demise of the Soviet Union the Chechen mafia got their hands on portable Russian nuclear weapons Between 1996 and 2001 they negotiated the sale of twenty nuclear suitcase bombs to representatives of Osama bin Laden According to Williams reliable sources indicate that these bombs may already be in the possession of al Qaeda cells in New York Washington Miami Chicago Las Vegas Houston and Los Angeles In addition bin Laden has recruited former Soviet scientists and technicians to maintain these weapons and recharge their nuclear cores so that they may be deployed immediately on his command In 2001 he issued a statement boasting of a Hiroshima against America Also included in the book are bin Laden's Letter to America and his Declaration of War against the Americans Occupying the Land of the Two Holy Places as well as the World Islamic Statement declaring Jihad against Jews and Crusaders These crucial documents highlight the rationale behind and the depth of bin Laden's hatred for the United States Moreover Williams documents that Osama has the international network of embedded terrorists to carry out his threats Although the media have reported on some of these threatening developments and government insiders have acknowledged the threat of nuclear attack no one until now has put all the pieces together in a coherent no nonsense way Williams makes a persuasive case that Bin Laden and his deputies have the motive and the means and are waiting for the right opportunity to launch an apocalyptic attack against the Great Satan of America Paul Williams Ph D Clark's Green PA is a journalist and author of The Vatican Exposed Money Murder and the Mafia among other books Formerly he served as a consultant for the FBI editor and publisher of the Metro and an adjunct professor of Humanities at the University of Scranton

Extreme Pursuits Graham Huggan, 2010-05-18

Recent figures suggest that there will be 1.6 billion arrivals at world airports by the year 2020 Extreme Pursuits looks at the new conditions of global travel and the unease even paranoia that underlies them at the opportunities they offer for alternative identities and their oscillation between remembered and anticipated states Graham Huggan offers a provocative account of what is happening to travel at a time characterized by extremes of social and political instability in which adrenaline filled travelers appear correspondingly determined to take risks It includes discussions of the links between tourism and terrorism of contemporary modes of disaster tourism and of the writing that derives from these but it also confirms the existence of more responsible forms of travel writing that demonstrate awareness of a chronically endangered world Extreme Pursuits is the first study of its kind to link travel writing explicitly with structural changes in the global tourist industry The book makes clear that travel writing can no longer take refuge in the classic distinctions traveler versus tourist foreigner versus native on which it previously depended Such distinctions which were dubious in the first place no longer make sense in an increasingly globalized world Huggan argues accordingly that the category travel writing must include experimental ethnography and prose fiction that it should concern itself with other kinds of travel practices such as those related to Holocaust deportation and migrant labor and that it should encompass representations of travelers and traveling cultures that appear in popular media especially TV and film Graham Huggan is Professor of Commonwealth and Postcolonial Literatures at the University of Leeds He is the coauthor with Patrick Holland of Tourists with Typewriters Critical Reflections on Contemporary Travel Writing University of Michigan Press and coauthor with Helen Tiffin of Postcolonial Ecocriticism Routledge Illustration Shadow Wall 2006 Shaun Tan

Postcolonial Urbanism Ryan Bishop,John Phillips,Wei Wei Yeo,2013-01-11 A common assumption about cities throughout the world is tht they are essentially an elaboration of the Euro American model Postcolonial Urbanism demonstrates the narrowness of this vision Cities in the postcolonial world the book shows are producing novel forms of urbanism not reducible to Western urbanism Despite being heavily colonized in the past Southeast Asia has been largely ignored in discussions about postcolonial theory and in general considerations of global urbanism An international cast of contributors focuses on the heavily urbanized world region of Southeast Asia to investigate the novel forms of urbanism germinating in postcolonial settings such as Indonesia Thailand Singapore Hanoi and the Philippines Offering a mix of theoretical perspectives and empirical accounts Postcolonial Urbanism presents a panoramic view of the cultures societies and politics of the postcolonial city The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle,2006-11-02 This book brings the serious world of politics to the superficial world of contemporary travel writing The Delicious History of the Holiday Fred Inglis,2005-11-28 Our holidays lie near the heart of our emotional life enjoyed for a fortnight fed on imagination for eleven months of the year What we want from our holidays tells a lot about who we are and what we wish we were In this charming account Fred Inglis traces the rise of the holiday from its early roots in the Grand Tour through the coming of Thomas Cook and his Blackpool packages to sex tourism and the hippie trail to Kathmandu He celebrates the bodily pleasures of generations of tourists from Edwardian banquets in Paris to fish and chips on the beach from the Bright Young Things on the Riviera to the chosen hardships of the sea the desert wastes and the mountain tops He considers the ideals and the spiritual aspirations which are part of what we look for in a holiday but he also warns of a darker current how we have increasingly destroyed what we take most pleasure in and how the dealings between those who have much and those who have little can seldom however good our intentions avoid the taint of exploitation The House at Sugar Beach Helene Cooper,2008-09-02 The author traces her childhood in war torn Liberia and her reunion with a foster sister who had been left behind when her family fled the region The Dutch Century Carl Douglass,2022-08-01 The Great White Hunter Southern Africa is the third and final book of the Dutch Century Trilogy It covers the last two thirds of the 1600s during which the Dutch exercised considerable control of all sub Saharan Africa Among the Dutch who spent significant portions of their lives in the region were farmers traders builders mariners and slavers And most interesting some intrepid long distance hunters They sought fortunes as rewards for museum quality mounted specimens success beyond their wildest imaginations from the elephant tusk ivory trade and adventure always adventure They were brave and hardy souls who faced hardships of miserable travel in oxwaggon difficult to manage native helpers balky oxen mules and horses In addition there were problems of tribalism close calls from fearsome beasts including lions leopards elephants rhinos crocs and dangerous men Piet van Brakel explored the lower half of the African continent while still a fugitive from the dangerous Dutch VOC To succeed he had to control the vicissitudes of weather floods droughts winds starvation and great thirsts He was the baas the bwana who had to deal with all unseen and unknown surprises That included animal attacks Arab slaver killer invasion war with ruthless Zulu impis poisons malfunctioning guns and misbehaving men of his safari team He lost six of his nine lives accumulated hard won treasure twice and gained incomparable friends and success beyond measure Such a life was never a sure thing for the man How he accomplished that is the stuff of legend Killing the Planet Rodney Howard-Browne,Paul L. Williams,2019-11-05 In Killing the Planet How A Financial Cartel Doomed Mankind best selling authors Rodney Howard Browne and Paul L Williams investigate the true motives and consequences of the Pilgrim Society Early members of the Society included J P Morgan Andrew Carnegie Andrew Mellon Cornelius Vanderbilt Paul Warburg Mortimer I Schiff Otto Kahn and John D Rockefeller Although the Pilgrim Society and the powerful men involved are often praised for their philanthropic actions Howard Browne and Williams show that the Society was self serving and subjected the American people to a brutal system of economic tyranny one which is still in place today As a sequel to The Killing of Uncle Sam Killing the Planet is a thoroughly documented and impeccably researched book with over 1 500 footnotes It shows how mankind has become enslaved within the Luciferian world system that is managed and controlled by the world s wealthiest families The book is not full of conspiracy theories but instead unfortunately for all of humanity full of gut wrenching facts A Desert Named Peace Benjamin Claude Brower,2011 In the mid nineteenth century French colonial leaders in Algeria started southward into the Sahara beginning a fifty year period of violence Lying in the shadow of the colonization of northern Algeria which claimed the lives of over a million people French empire in the Sahara sought power through physical force as it had elsewhere yet violence in the Algerian Sahara followed a more complicated logic than the old argument that it was simply a way to get empire on the cheap A Desert Named Peace examines colonial violence through multiple stories and across several fields of research It presents four cases the military conquests of the French army in the oases and officers predisposition to use extreme violence in colonial conflicts a spontaneous nighttime attack made by Algerian pastoralists on a French village as notable for its brutality as for its obscure causes the violence of indigenous forms of slavery and the colonial accommodations that preserved it during the era of abolition and the struggles of French Romantics whose debates about art and politics arrived from Paris with disastrous consequences Benjamin Claude Brower uses these different perspectives to reveal the unexpected causes of colonial violence such as France s troubled revolutionary past and its influence on the military s institutional culture the aesthetics of the sublime and its impact on colonial thinking the ecological crises suffered by Saharan pastoralists under colonial rule and the conflicting paths to authority inherent in Algerian Sufism Directly engaging a controversial history A Desert Named Peace offers an important backdrop to understanding the Algerian war for independence 1954 1962 and Algeria s ongoing internal war begun in 1992 between the government and armed groups that claim to fight for an Islamist revolution International Relations in the Post-Industrial Era A.

Natella,2011-05-23 The current emphasis on the greening of the world marks a beginning of a new concern for our relationship with our planet This book states that we are entering into a new era a transitional time in history in which the values of the industrial revolution are being replaced by a post industrial consciousness Eco-Warriors, Nihilistic

Likar,2011-04-07 The first book to thoroughly address the topic this volume examines the ideologies tactics and goals of environmental terrorists and offers a security planning methodology to defend against their attacks To counter eco terrorism we must understand why it occurs Eco Warriors Nihilistic Terrorists and the Environment is a comprehensive examination of the vulnerability of the natural environment of its nexus with the strategic goals of terrorists and of a security planning methodology that can prevent or ameliorate environmentally linked attacks The first book to comprehensively address the prevention of environmentally focused terrorism this work looks at the environment and the private and government facilities that impact it as assets to be protected Focusing on the capability of lone wolf terrorists and small self radicalizing cells to commit effective violent acts security expert Lawrence E Likar furnishes personality and operational profiles of both nihilistic and eco warrior terrorists showcasing an essential component of the behavioral science based security planning methodology he promotes Most critically the book addresses the gap in current security planning methodology and literature and it reveals novel intelligence gathering techniques operational procedures and countermeasures designed to defend against attacks
