Season Of The Witch Border Lines Marginal Notes:

Season of the Witch Gail B. Griffin, 1995 Griffin's provocative reflections on the art and philosophy of teaching and the still marginal position of women in academe are a must for all those interested in the state of higher education The Chicago Guide to Your Academic Career John A. Goldsmith, John Komlos, Penny Schine Gold, 2010-04-15 Is a career as a professor the right choice for you If you are a graduate student how can you clear the hurdles successfully and position yourself for academic employment What's the best way to prepare for a job interview and how can you maximize your chances of landing a job that suits you What happens if you don't receive an offer How does the tenure process work and how do faculty members cope with the multiple and conflicting day to day demands With a perpetually tight job market in the traditional academic fields the road to an academic career for many aspiring scholars will often be a rocky and frustrating one Where can they turn for good frank answers to their questions Here three distinguished scholars with more than 75 years of combined experience talk openly about what's good and what's not so good about academia as a place to work and a way of life Written as an informal conversation among colleagues the book is packed with inside information about finding a mentor avoiding pitfalls when writing a dissertation negotiating the job listings and much more The three authors distinctive opinions and strategies offer the reader multiple perspectives on typical problems With rare candor and insight they talk about such tough issues as departmental politics dual career marriages and sexual harassment Rounding out the discussion are short essays that offer the inside track on financing graduate education publishing the first book and leaving academia for the corporate world This helpful guide is for anyone who has ever wondered what the fascinating and challenging world of academia might hold in store Part I Becoming a Scholar Deciding on an Academic Career Entering Graduate School The Mentor Writing a Dissertation Landing an Academic Job Part II The Academic Profession The Life of the Assistant Professor Teaching and Research Tenure Competition in the University System and Outside Offers The Personal Side of Academic Life

Resources in Education, 1997-05 "The Events of October" Gail B. Griffin, 2010 Griffin's astute analysis of a 1999 murder and suicide on the Kalamazoo College campus probes the links between intimate violence and larger cultural patterns offering educators students and parents a map for change Vital and disturbing The Events of October unpacks the devastating implications of the narratives we still tell ourselves about gender love and power Joy Castro author of The Truth Book A Memoir Teacher's Guide for in the Shadow of Race: Growing Up As a Multiethnic, Multicultural, and Multiracial American Christine Clark, Teja Arboleda, 2024-02-02 This Teacher's Guide accompanies In the Shadow of Race Growing Up as a Multiethnic Multicultural and Multiracial American by Teja Arboleda It has a twofold purpose First it facilitates K 12 and university faculty in situating Arboleda's book within the fields of race relations multicultural education and related disciplines Second it is intended to critique and problematize the book's content so that it can be used to stimulate critical thought debate and action oriented toward increasing social justice among its readers both inside and outside of the classroom To facilitate use of In the Shadow of Race as a course text topics for discussion included in this Teacher's Guide include the social construction of race racial separatism versus diversity racial ethnic and cultural identity development the politics of racial categorization mixed race peoples cultural identity vs identity by heritage the concept of a cultural home and changing identities within cultures The Teacher's Guide is free to college faculty who adopt Arboleda's In the Shadow of Race

Wise Women Phyllis Freeman, Jan Schmidt, 2013-12-02 Wise Women is a collection of autobiographical essays by important and renowned teachers at mid life The essays which are deeply personal will focus on how these women negotiate the psychological physical and social changes brought on by menopause and how the aging process affects their lives as professionals feminists writers mentors and instructors in the academy The book addresses such questions as the following What challenges are left for the feminists who came of age during the women's movement and now have achieved academic success How do women teachers experience their aging selves in the classroom What legacy will mid life women leave their younger women colleagues All of these questions as well as many others are covered in this insightful and groundbreaking work
