Loved And Unloved The Girl Child In The Family:

Loved and Unloved Jasodhara Bagchi, Jaba Guha, 1997 Why does this book speak of the girl child and not of the child whether boy or girl The girl child is the endangered sex in our society She remains entrapped in a complex social process that naturalises her deprivation Her place is within the family which traditionally has been viewed as a specially nurturing and protecting institution for her Critically examining this view the authors raise vital questions on gender based discrimination within the family Thirteen case studies poignantly reveal the way discrimination occurs The authors have used the data for West Bengal compiled by the School of Women s Studies Jadavpur University as part of the national project on the girl child that was sponsored by the Indian government and carried out in twenty two women s studies centres The book surveys 600 sample households covering girls aged 7 18 years in selected rural and urban areas It offers detailed analysis of the girl child s mother and her perceptions of her children her daughters in particular

Endangered Daughters

Elizabeth Croll, 2002-01-04 This unique and groundbreaking book seeks to re focus gender debate onto the issue of daughter discrimination a phenomenon still hidden and unacknowledged across the world It asks the controversial question of why millions of girls do not appear to be surviving to adulthood in contemporary Asia In the first major study available of this emotive and sensitive issue Elisabeth Croll investigates the extent of discrimination against female children in Asia and shifts the focus of attention firmly from son preference to daughter discrimination This book brings together demographic data and anthropological field studies to reveal the multiple ways in which girls are disadvantaged from excessive child mortality to the withholding of health care and education on the basis of gender Focusing especially on China and India the book reveals the surprising coincidence of increasing daughter discrimination with rising economic development declining fertility and the generally improved status of women in East and South Asia Essential reading for all those interested in gender in contemporary society

Family, School and Nation

Nivedita Sen, 2015-07-03 This seminal work examines the concurrence of childhood rebellion and conformity in Bengali literary texts including adult texts a pertinent yet unexplored area making it a first of its kind It is a study of the voice of child protagonists across children s and adult literature in Bengali vis vis the institutions of family the education system and the nationalist movement in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

The Politics of Rights

Andrea Cornwall, Maxine Molyneux, 2013-09-13 Since the late 1990s development institutions have increasingly used the language of rights in their policy and practice This special issue on feminist perspectives on politics of rights explores the strategies tensions and challenges associated with rights work in a variety of settings Articles on the Middle East Africa Latin America East and South Asia explore the dilemmas that arise for feminist praxis in these diverse locations and address the question of what rights can contribute to struggles for gender justice Exploring the intersection of formal rights whether international human rights constitutional rights or national legislation with the everyday realities of women in settings characterized by entrenched gender inequalities and poverty plural legal systems and cultural norms that can constitute formidable obstacles to realizing rights The contributors suggest that these sites of struggle can create new possibilities and meanings and a politics of rights animated by demands for social and gender justice

Child Marriage in an International Frame Mary E. John, 2021-04-12 Child marriage has been given a pre eminent place in agendas addressing harmful practices as defined by the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals India leads the world in the number of women who marry below the age of 18 and is therefore of unique interest to international and national forums Refusing simplistic labels like harmful practice this book explores the complex history of child marriage as a social and feminist issue in India across different domains It critically reviews a wide range of historical demographic and legal scholarship on the subject Major concepts relevant to child marriage such as childhood adolescence the girl and marriage are analysed in a comparative framework that uncovers the unnoticed presence of the practice in the USA and China The volume questions existing approaches analyses the latest data sources and develops a new concept of compulsory marriage A definitive study of child marriage in India in a changing global context this book will interest scholars and students in the fields of women s gender and sexuality studies childhood studies development studies and the social sciences It will also be of great appeal to all those working with civil society organisations NGOs states and international agencies in India and globally

Conceptualizations of Childhood, Pedagogy and Educational Research in the Postmodern Mariam John Meynert, 2015-11-25 In the last fifty years a debate between modernism and postmodernism has surfaced within the social sciences Epistemologically there has been a shift away from the concept of a found world out there objective knowable and factual towards a concept of constructed worlds thus problematizing postulates based upon the autonomous stable unified coherent and integrated subject capable of rational action and opening up spaces for a new understanding of subjectivity based on provisionality and contingency From the ashes of these tendencies for fragmentation have arisen the new sociology of childhood and new directions in pedagogy and research creating spaces for constructing notions of children and childhood The emergent child has an active agency allowing the construction of a more dynamic child located in a multiplicity of domains opening up spaces for more flexible pedagogies and new sensibilities in educational research Originating from a critical reading of texts in the area of childhood pedagogy and educational research within the modern and the postmodern this book extracts appropriates and integrates parallel but socially constructed discourses across disciplines such as the sociology of childhood the sociology of knowledge and the sociology of education The book constructs conceptions of childhood both historically and within the modernist postmodernist paradigm and documents the implications of the paradigmatic shift from modernity to postmodernity for the study of childhood as well as pedagogical practices and educational research
