Loves Sacred Order Four Meditations:

Love's Sacred Order Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis, 2010-01-13 When seeking to understand Christian love with some precision we inevitably come to speak about order in loving The title of this book Love's Sacred Order is intended to address the problem of the need for clarification in the matter of love above all the question of the relationship among the different kinds of love all of which make their legitimate claim on us A central concern of these reflections is the fact that we can do as much harm to ourselves by being too restrictive as by being too permissive in what we allow to come under the heading of Christian love The main intent of these meditations is to explore what the hierarchy might be that God established among all our human loves on the one hand and between these and the gratuitously revealed love of God that uncreated mystery kept secret for long ages to which we could not have had access if God himself had not taken the initiative to manifest it in Christ Jesus The author approaches this subject pondering and responding to issues raised in the widely known work of C S Lewis The Four Loves of which the year 2000 marks the fortieth anniversary of publication This volume then is offered as a modest contribution to our celebration of this year of the Great Jubilee of our redemption as well as an homage to the great Christian writer

Prophets of the Posthuman Christina Bieber Lake, 2013-09-30 Prophets of the Posthuman provides a fresh and original reading of fictional narratives that raise the question of what it means to be human in the face of rapidly developing bioenhancement technologies Christina Bieber Lake argues that works by Nathaniel Hawthorne Walker Percy Flannery O'Connor Toni Morrison George Saunders Marilynne Robinson Raymond Carver James Tiptree Jr and Margaret Atwood must be reevaluated in light of their contributions to larger ethical questions Drawing on a wide range of sources in philosophical and theological ethics Lake claims that these writers share a commitment to maintaining a category of personhood more meaningful than that allowed by utilitarian ethics Prophets of the Posthuman insists that because technology can never ask whether we should do something that we have the power to do literature must step into that role Each of the chapters of this interdisciplinary study sets up a typical ethical scenario regarding human enhancement technology and then illustrates how a work of fiction uniquely speaks to that scenario exposing a realm of human motivations that might otherwise be overlooked or simplified Through the vision of the writers she discusses Lake uncovers a deep critique of the ascendancy of personal autonomy as America's most cherished value This ascendancy coupled with technology's glamorous promises of happiness helps to shape a utilitarian view of persons that makes responsible ethical behavior toward one another almost impossible Prophets of the Posthuman charts the essential role that literature must play in the continuing conversation of what it means to be human in a posthuman world

Confessions of Love Craig J. N. De Paulo, 2011 Confessions of Love The Ambiguities of Greek Eros and Latin Caritas includes a collection of essays by internationally renowned scholars such as Phillip Cary Roland Teske and Leonid Rudnytsky tackling some historic controversial confessions of love Inspired by the Augustinian tradition this volume focuses on the ambiguous nature of love especially with regard to some of the conflicting aspects of

Greek eros and its ancient Latin rival caritas in great thinkers like Augustine Thomas Aquinas Marsilio Ficino Freud and Max Scheler This volume will be of interest to humanities philosophy theology history and classics departments seeking a new way to approach the Western tradition through the historic controversy in the West over eros and caritas Finally its focus on the retrieval and disclosure of sensuality and eroticism in these great texts will also be of special interest to postmodernism and hermeneutics
