Loves Song Canto De Amor:

Love Songs from al-Andalus Otto Zwartjes, 2023-08-21 Love Songs from al Andalus presents an updated survey of the debates concerning Andalusian strophic poetry and their Kharjas Attention is focused on the texts themselves and their literary implications as testimonies of the multicultural and multilingual society of al Andalus Since languages and alphabets of the three major religions have been used these texts are studies historically prosodically thematically and stylistically and are related to the three literary traditions One of the novelties of this study is the fact that it has been based upon the most updated edition and interpretations of the texts introducing emendations in over a third of its contents and making obsolete most of the hundreds of previous articles and books on the topic Another novelty is the fact that stylistic features have been studied according to the Arabic model casting new light on them The survey of thematic relationships and the analysis of code switching phenomena add weight to the conclusions of this research

Political Poetry in the Wake of the Second Spanish Republic Grant D. Moss, 2017-12-06 From notions of art for art's sake to committed poetry it may seem that poets cannot achieve reconciliation between the politics and poetry However among committed Communist poets of the 20th century of the Spanish speaking world three poets stand out as examples of a search to bring together their political and their poetic commitments Rafael Alberti Nicolás Guillén and Pablo Neruda Political Poetry in the Wake of the Second

Spanish Republic analyzes the simultaneous development of politics and poetics in these three Spanish language poets as it was nurtured by the Second Spanish Republic 1931-1939. Beginning in these years Alberti, Guillén and Neruda strove to tackle the challenge of committing to their own independent poetic projects and to their politics at the same time. Later these three poets maintained their Communist Party affiliation until their deaths and produced collection after collection of quality poetry. Despite the differences in their overall poetic trajectories and projects, the ability to maneuver between politics and poetry without sacrificing either one is common among them. Because of their unique experiences during the time of the Second Spanish Republic in Spain, each author explicitly denounced the injustices that the opposing Franquist forces had committed against the Republic. After the fall of the Republic in 1939, Alberti, Guillén and Neruda continued to intertwine their politics with their poems, only in a less obvious manner. Therefore, each could solidify his position within the poetic canon while at the same time each could maintain his position as a committed or at least card-carrying Communist.
