Loving Enchantment:

Enchanted Love Marianne Williamson, 2013-12-17 Three of Marianne Williamson's previous bestsellers A Return to Love, A Woman's Worth and Illuminata explored the issue of relationships. Now in this deeply personal collection of essays, prayers and self-reflection, she turns to romantic love. In Illuminata, Williamson wrote that we experience God to the extent to which we love, forgive and focus on the good in others and ourselves. Now in Enchanted Love, she writes that enchanted partnership begins with the conscious understanding on the part of two people that the purpose of their relationship is not so much material as spiritual and the internal skills demanded by it are prodigious. High romance, she says, is not about past or future. It is not about practicality. It is not about society or worldly routines. It is an audacious ride to the center of what is at the heart of every person. It is a bold and masterful inquiry into what two people really are and how we might become while still on earth, the angels who reside within us.

Love the Greatest Enchantment: The Sorceries of Sin: The Devotion of the Cross ... Attempted strictly in English asonante and other imitative verse, by Denis Florence MacCarthy. With an introduction to each drama, and notes by the translator, and the Spanish text from the editions of Hartzenbusch, Keil, and Apontes Pedro Calderón de la Barca, 1861 Love the Greatest Enchantment Pedro Calderón de la Barca, 1861 Love the greatest enchantment: The sorceries of sin: The devotion of the Cross, from the Span. in Engl. verse by D.F. MacCarthy, with an intr. and notes and the Span. text Pedro Calderón de la Barca, 1861 Narrating Experiences of Alzheimer's Through the Arts Ana Paula Barbosa-Fohrmann, 2023-05-09 While Alzheimer's might be associated with a difficulty to express oneself, Ana Paula Barbosa-Fohrmann addresses this topic by examining experiences with Alzheimer's based on narratives. In this original contribution, she studies the nexus of life stories, subjectivity, fragmentation and fiction. The philosophical basis of this research is phenomenology from the end of the 19th century to the middle of the 20th century, specifically that of Husserl and above all that of Merleau-Ponty. This work also draws on Proust's and Camus' literature as well as Beckett's dramaturgy.

FourFold Andrew-Thomas Corbett, 2013-12-08 Fourfold 2013 is a spiritual treatise conceived and written directly from a meditative state of stillness, articulating subjective relation to the language of meditative harmonics. Based upon a symbology of sound harmonics, its four chapters take root in combining the four elements: the

The look of love through an analytic lens Long treated with skepticism in literary and cultural studies love as a subject of serious scholarly inquiry is now attracting intense interest and renewed attention Love Etc centers on two key themes representations of love in literature and culture and love as a relationship to literature and culture How are our attitudes to love changing in the wake of new technologies and social media shifting norms around partnering marriage and divorce and feminist and queer thought Fifteen short and accessible essays cover a wide range of topics from Tinder to The Bachelor from liking trees to loving aliens from unrequited love to maternal love from polyamory to new stories of female friendship from loving physical books to theorizing love in popular music Contributors Carolina Bandinelli University of Warwick Mette Blok Roskilde University Denmark Angus Connell Brown Stephanie Burt Harvard University Anne Marie S Christensen University of Southern Denmark Jonathan Flatley Wayne State University Lily Gurton Wachter Smith College Timothy Laurie University of Technology Sydney Hanna Meretoja University of Turku Finland Kevin Ohi Boston College John Plotz Brandeis University Anna Poletti Utrecht University The Netherlands Jessica Pressman San Diego State University Biswarup Sen University of Oregon Hannah Stark University of Tasmania Love Simon May,2019-03-28

What is love s real intent Why can love be so ruthlessly selective How is it related to sex beauty and goodness And is the child now the supreme object of love In addressing these questions Simon May develops a radically new understanding of love as the emotion we feel towards whomever or whatever we experience as grounding our life as offering us a possibility of home in a world that we supremely value He sees love as motivated by a promise of ontological rootedness rather than as two thousand years of tradition variously asserts by beauty or goodness by a search for wholeness by virtue by sexual or reproductive desire by compassion or altruism or empathy or in one of today s dominant views by no qualities at all of the loved one After arguing that such founding Western myths as the Odyssey and Abraham s call by God to Canaan in the Bible powerfully exemplify his new conception of love May goes on to re examine the relation of love to beauty sex and goodness in the light of this conception offering among other things a novel theory of beauty and suggesting against Plato that we can love others for their ugliness while also seeing them as beautiful Finally he proposes that in the Western world romantic love is gradually giving way to parental love as the most valued form of love namely the love without which one s life is not deemed complete or truly flourishing May explains why childhood has become sacred and excellence in parenting a paramount ideal as well as a litmus test of society s moral health In doing so he argues that the child is the first genuinely modern supreme object of love the first to fully reflect what Nietzsche called the death of God Readers will find Love

Excitingly new yet immediately recognizable that s the paradox at the very heart of love and it is what Simon May has achieved Los Angeles Review of Books Love and Women in Early Chinese Fiction Daniel Hsieh,2008 This book focuses on how women and love are portrayed in chuanqi fiction a genre of Chinese literature of the Tang dynasty It argues that the emergence of love as a theme in Chinese literature is closely related to the historical background of the Tang dynasty

Relentless Love Edwin Carl Smith,2004 Ed Smith defines enchantment as that place where our life and our deepest dreams merge and he maintains that it is our true nature In Relentless Love he proposes that we can live lives of enchantment through the practice of relentless love He inspires us to create a world based on our intention to love and our faith in life and contends that evolution is propelling us to do so He defines evolution as events you do not like that converge to create a possibility you could not anticipate This is an original lucid voice with something very compelling and vital to say that can change all of our lives 7 Days of Magic Ellen Dugan,2004 Tap into each day s magical potential Enchantment is not limited to the Sabbats and the occasional full Moon Magic happens all the time and every day 7 Days of Magic demonstrates how to successfully apply the specific magical energies of each day into spells Three dramas of

in a world full of challenges The three graces can almost be seen as motors for Christian life in today s world but the words faith hope and love have so many everyday uses that their technical theological meanings are for many difficult to appreciate Modern life also leaves many yearning for authenticity and meaning Many religions have answered that need by calling to mind the image of a path Always profound progressions religious paths tend to be motivated either by practices the act of walking the path or focal points Christianity has a focal point an object and it sees the three graces as distinctively content filled The heart of this book is about helping people find the Christian path and their intellectual emotional and spiritual balance an equilibrium that is sustained by a strong personal faith an enduring hope for the future and genuine love that will withstand the worst of times It contributes to the category of Christian literature that provides a pattern for Christian living without surrendering the intellect to the more popular side of this genre Infinite Love: Poetry Dedicated to Mothers
