Loving Relationships Self Others And God:

Loving Relationships Robert L. Shelton, 1987 Other: Loving Self, God and Neighbor in a World of Fractures Kester Brewin, 2010 God as Sacrificial Love Asle Eikrem, 2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi layered and complex theological topic From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology creation trinity incarnation atonement sin faith sacraments and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today May to May - My Journey to Self-love with God Reabetswe Moabi, 2024-08-16 One of society's main problems today is a lack of self love this is evident in the way most people live their lives sadly I was also part of the statistic The fact that I was not living life to the full bothered me in many ways I was not running my own race I constantly compared myself to others I had not accepted myself for who I was and I had not taken full responsibility for my life I was merely alive and confused Although everything on the outside looked good I felt miserable I learned the hard way that what goes on inside us is more important than what people can see A lack of self love impacted most areas of my life negatively I knew something needed to change Once I had surrendered my life to God He helped me see my own value I started May to May My Journey to Self love with God to move my life in the right direction After discovering the 20 components that lead to self love my life has never been the same I could finally accept myself just as I was I am proud to say there is no other race I would rather run than my own I needed to love myself first so I could truly live To Love as God Loves Roberta C. Bondi, 1987 Being a Christian means learning to love with God's love But God's love is not a warm feeling in the pit of the stomach It has definite characteristics we learn in the course of our life in the behavior and teaching of the early monastics as we ponder over what we can say about God as God deals with us and finally as we model our own lives on what we have learned The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians Love's Transcendence and the Problem of Theodicy Claudia Welz, 2008 Claudia Welz explores responses to the problem of evil that do not end up in a theodicy Kierkegaard's and Rosenzweig's reasons for having no reason to defend God and their ethics of love are discussed in the context of German idealism and French phenomenology
