Lucys E Journal:

Lucy's (Completely Cool and Totally True) E-Journal Jane Harrington, 2001-12-01 Delighted with her new computer Lucy starts writing about everything she is going through in her e journal including her parents insistence that she go to summer camp and her fear that her biggest enemy will soon move next door In Search of Song: The Life and Times of Lucy Broadwood Dorothy de Val, 2016-05-23 Born into the famous family of piano makers Lucy Broadwood 1858 1929 became one of the chief collectors and scholars of the first English folk music revival in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Privately educated and trained as a classical musician and singer she was inspired by her uncle to collect local song from her native Sussex The desire to rescue folk song from an aging population led to the foundation of the Folk Song Society of which she was a founder member Mentor to younger collectors such as Percy Grainger but often at loggerheads with fellow collector Cecil Sharp and the young Ralph Vaughan Williams she eventually ventured into Ireland and Scotland while remaining an eclectic contributor and editor of the Society's Journal which became a flagship for scholarly publication of folksong She also published arrangements of folk songs and her own compositions which attracted the attention of singers such as Harry Plunket Greene Using an array of primary sources including the diaries Broadwood kept throughout her adult life Dorothy de Val provides a lively biography which sheds new light on her early years and chronicles her later busy social artistic and musical life while acknowledging the underlying vulnerability of single women at this time Her account reveals an intelligent generous though reserved woman who with the help of her friends emerged from the constraints of a Victorian upbringing to meet the challenges of the modern world Applied Language Learning, 2006

Lucy to Language R. I. M. Dunbar, Clive Gamble, J. A. J. Gowlett, 2014-02 This volume readdresses the past contribution from archaeology towards the study of evolutionary issues and ties evolutionary psychology into the extensive historical data from the past allowing us to escape the confined timeframe of the comparatively recent human mind and explore the question of just what it is that makes us so different Women in the Biological Sciences Carol A. Biermann, Louise S. Grinstein, Rose K. Rose, 1997-07-16 Biology textbooks and books on the history of science generally give a limited picture of the roles women have played in the growth and development of the biological sciences mentioning primarily the Nobel laureates This book provides a definitive archival collection of essays on a larger group of women profiling both their work and their lives The volume includes 65 representative women from different countries and eras and from as many branches of biological investigation as possible In addition to biographical information and an evaluation of the woman's career and significance each entry provides a full bibliographic listing of works by and about the subject The volume includes entries on women who have gained recognition through attainment of advanced degrees despite familial and societal pressures innovative research results influence exerted in teaching and guidance of students active participation and leadership in professional societies extensive scholarly publication participation on journal editorial boards extensive field experience and influence on public and political scientific policymaking A woman was considered eligible for inclusion if she met several of these criteria Providing a historical perspective the book is limited to women who were born before 1930 or are deceased

Lucy's Bones, Sacred Stones, & Einstein's Brain Harvey Rachlin, 2013-07-14 Leap across time with bestselling author Harvey Rachlin as he collects over 50 of the most fascinating objects in the world under one book The Mounted Hide of Stonewall Jackson's Battle Horse The Black Obelisk The Rosetta Stone George Washington's False Teeth Vice Admiral Lord Nelson's Uniform Coat The Elephant Man's Skeleton and Lincoln's Death Bed are just some of the objects Rachlin explores with wit pick and an amazing sense of spectacle Publisher's Weekly calls Lucy's Bone's Sacred Stones and Einstein's Brain entertaining and enlightening Library Journal declares Rachlin's work fascinating Parade says it is detailed and authoritative It is also intensely moving as Rachlin weaves together seemingly disparate histories into a holistic statement that celebrates human endeavor This book is not simply wonderful it is full of wonder

Lucy's E-Journal Jane Harrington, 2001
England's Folk Revival and the Problem of Identity in Traditional Music Joseph Williams, 2022-08-12 Establishing an intersection between the fields of traditional music studies English folk music history and the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari this book responds to the problematic emphasis on cultural identity in the way traditional music is understood and valued Williams locates the roots of contemporary definitions of traditional music including UNESCO designated intangible cultural heritage in the theory of English folk music developed in 1907 by Cecil Sharp Through a combination of Deleuzian philosophical analysis and historical revision of England's folk revival of the Victorian and Edwardian eras Williams makes a compelling argument that identity is a restrictive ideology that runs counter to the material processes of traditional music's production Williams reimagines Sharp's appropriation of Darwinian evolutionary concepts asking what it would mean today to say that traditional music evolves in light of recent advances in evolutionary theory The book ultimately advances a concept of traditional music that eschews the term's long standing ontological and axiological foundations in the principle of identity For scholars and graduate students in musicology cultural studies and ethnomusicology the book is an ambitious and provocative challenge to entrenched habits of thought in the study of traditional music and the historiography of England's folk revival
